LIBERALS WON A SMASHING VICTORY IN SASKATCHEWAN

The Martin Government Handsomely Sustained at the Polls—The Government Will Have a Majority Larger Than in the Last House—Every Cabinet Minister was Re-elected—Liberals will have 50 Seats Out of 59.

Regina, June 26. — Victory, crushing and complete, was achieved by the Liberals in Saskatchewan today, when Premier Martin's government was returned to power by a majority practically as large as that in the last Legislature.

Up to 10 o'clock the returns indicated the election of but three Conservatives in a house of fifty-nine, while the return of thirty-six Liberals seemed assured. Before dissolution the Liberals had forty-seven seats, the Conservatives seven and five new seats were added. Although the vote was split in many constituencies, today by the entrance of independent candidates the non-partisan league had not succeeded in electing any candidate in the first forty-four seats heard from.

J. B. Bradshaw, looked upon as the real leader of the opposition went down to defeat in Prince Albert. Premier Martin won a great personal triumph in Regina with nearly 1,000 majority over J. F. Embury. W. B. Willoughby, the nominal opposition leader, secured a narrow lead in a three-cornered contest in Moosejaw city.

The election in Saskatchewan today completes the record of provincial elections held in Canada since 1912, in which Liberalism has made gains. Manitoba, British Columbia and New Brunswick turned out strongly entrenched Conservative governments to give Liberal premiers a chance. Quebec, Nova Scotia, Alberta and Saskatchewan endorsed the Liberal governments in power, in three cases failing to elect the opposition leader.

The last elections in Ontario and Prince Edward Island showed the Liberal opposition gaining with every indication that at the next appeal the Hearst and Matheson-Arsenault governments respectively would be swept from power.

Premier Martin today achieved a great victory and will now proceed to give Saskatchewan sane, business government.

Latest reports indicated the Liberals had swept Saskatchewan almost clean in today's elections and will have more than fifty of the fifty-nine seats in the Legislature, a greater majority than was accorded the Scott government in 1912.

Only Two Certain.

Of the seven Conservatives in the house only two are definitely known at midnight to be re-elected, W. B. Willoughby, the opposition leader, and Lieutenant-Colonel Glenn, who was not opposed by the Liberals in South Qu'Appelle, but was opposed by an Independent. The only other Conservative elected is Donald MacLean in Saskatoon city. The winning of Saskatoon city constitutes the only gain from the Liberals.

On the other hand the Liberals wrested Lumsden, Moose Jaw county, Prince Albert and Willow Bunch from the opposition, while returns from Maple Creek are still so incomplete as to give no indication of the result.

Most of the Labor, Independent and non-partisan league candidates suffered defeat.

The majorities secured by the cabinet ministers are in many cases very large, Hon. J. A. Calder over 1,600; Premier Martin about 900; Hon. C. A. Dunning over 1,000; Hon. George A. Bell, over 700; Hon. A. Turgeon, over 1,000; while many of the Liberal candidates have majorities of four figures.

CONSCRIPTION DEBATE AT OTTAWA DRAGGING ALONG

Able Speeches for and Against Compulsion—Mr. A. K. McLean of Halifax Expressed Himself in Favor of the Bill.

Ottawa, June 26.—With words moderate in tone and gripping in their sincerity, A. K. MacLean, Liberal member for Halifax, tonight steadied a parliament which, during the earlier part of the day threatened to forget the gravity of the issue confronting it and besprinkle its patriotism with the corroding acid of partisanship. Mr. MacLean lifted the debate again to a high pitch. He gave earnest recognition to considerations of national unity and sturdy war winning. He gave credit to all sincere parliamentarians for their convictions, and bespoke his own in favor of the principle of conscription.

The party system of politics had been dubbed the "madness of the many for the benefit of the few." "Yet," said Mr. MacLean, "it is only when one finds himself differing from the majority of his party associates that he realizes the strong ties and the warm affections which bind members holding the same party faith together."

The Halifax members paid feeling tribute to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his singleness of purpose and his intense patriotism.

Leader's Action Voluntary.

"The announcement of the Liberal leader asking his followers to act upon their own convictions was neither sought nor asked for," said Mr. MacLean. It came freely and spontaneously, and was truly characteristic of the man and truly reflects his Liberalism."

Mr. MacLean added that he understood and appreciated that repugnance to conscription was not confined to one province and counseled parliament to give leadership by winning respect and give it without arrogance and without dogmatism. Mr. MacLean expressed regret that in certain speeches which had been delivered during the afternoon there "had seemed to be a regrettable coloring of spirit which, at this time, I do not care about."

Lieutenant-Colonel James Arthurs, Parry Sound, who recently returned from France, was the first speaker of the day. He pleaded the case of the boys at the front, but unfortunately permitted himself to be led into a specific and somewhat acrimonious assault upon the French-Canadians, which tended toward bitterness.

Dr. Michael Clark, Red Deer, who followed marred an otherwise eloquent and patriotic deliverance by an uncalculated and none too temperate criticism of his distinguished leader and such fellow Liberals as did not see eye to eye with him. From his sentiments other Liberals who favored the principle of the bill hastened to disassociate themselves.

Dr. Clark left the chamber as soon as he concluded amid Conservative cheering and was met at the entrance by Hon. Robert Rogers who warmly patted him on the back and clasped his hand in congratulation.

O. Turgeon, Gloucester, N. B., in an earnest speech championed the course of consulting the people by referendum and of better treatment of soldiers in the matter of pay and pensions as an aid to recruiting.

Soldier Member Talks.

Colonel James Arthurs of Parry Sound, who was at Vimy Ridge continued the debate on the compulsory service bill when the house opened. Colonel Arthurs said there were no two opinions at the front concerning conscription. If a vote was taken not one man would be against it. The only condition the men at the front commanded was that reinforcements be sent forward with the least possible delay. These men did not care what the premier or the leader of the opposition or any other man said about conscription in 1914. With regard to Hon. William Pugsley who had described the bill as a partisan measure, Colonel Arthurs pointed out that it was supported by the best elements of Dr. Pugsley's own party.

Miss Hazel K. Upton, who has been spending the winter with friends in Ontario, has returned to her home at Margerville.
