THE DAILY MAIL

This paper has a special value to the local advertiser, as the majority of its readers are in this city and the immediate surrounding country.

Our Advertising Rates will be found decidedly reasonable in view of the results.

PEOPLE READ

OUR ADVERTISEMENTS

They are trying to buy as wisely as they can. It is necessary they should.

They are eager to know what the local merchants have to offer, and good live advertising is interesting reading to them.

Most of our enterprising business men have already realized this fact and their advertising appears regularly in the Mail.

If you are not a regular advertiser in the DAILY or SEMI-WEEKLY MAIL, you are overlooking an opportunity that no business man in this locality ought to be too busy to appreciate.

THE AD. AND THE MAN.

By James J. Montague.

He saw the ad from day to day
And muttered: "I defy it;
The stuff may be just what they say,
But I'm not going to buy it."
As time wore on he made remarks
It would not do to mention,
For he was mad because that ad
Was forced on his attention.

But in a week, or two, or three,
He said: "There's no denying,
The way that ad gets hold of me,
The stuff may be worth trying."
For just about a fortnight more
He dared mere words to win
him,
And then the ad completely had
Aroused the spender in him.

Next day he drifted in a store
And quietly expended
A few big iron dollars for
The stuff the ad commended.
He found it filled a long-felt need
Its excellence surprised him,
And now he's glad because the ad
So deftly hypnotized him.

HON. F. B. CARVELL SPOKE AT LIBERAL CONVENTION

Told the Electors of Sarnia, Ont. That Winning the War was First Consideration of the Union Government--Never Had Any Doubt as to His Course in Regard to Conscription.

Sarnia, Ont., Oct. 24. — Hon. Frank Carvell, minister of public works, addressing a convention which today reaffirmed the nomination of F. F. Pardee as Liberal candidate in West Lambton, declared that the winning of the war was the first consideration of the union government, and it was to do his share in that great cause that he had entered the national administration.

Convention Not Harmonious.

The convention today was anything but harmonious. There was a feeling against Mr. Pardee having left his party on the conscription issue and both he and Mr. Carvell at length explained their attitude on the Military Service Act, the question on which they were forced to split with Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

"Never since compulsory service became a matter of policy did I have the slightest doubt as to my course," said Mr. Carvell, "but I did worry over leaving my friends in the house. The hardest blow was when I had to break with Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in whose great loyalty I believed and still believe. I acted on my convictions, and I claim that those who acted as I did must be given all credit." Mr. Carvell told of the great efforts made to prevent a rupture in the Liberal ranks. Two weeks ago Monday, Messrs. Pardee, Graham, McDonald and Carvell met at Ottawa with Sir Wilfrid in an effort to find a common ground on the question of compulsory service on which they could agree, compatible with carrying on the war. But it failed.

Start Again After War.

"But we men who disagreed with Sir Wilfrid are Liberals yet and when the war is over we will start again where we were last week," he said. Mr. Carvell declared that the Liberals in the government would not remain unless profiteering was stopped and unless certain things happened which we think ought to happen. "When things don't suit us, there is no reason why we should remain."

"I am going through this campaign as a Liberal, as a man who has joined with his opponents for a definite time and for a definite purpose. I would a thousand times rather have gone to the country with my own party but it was not to be."

Mr. Carvell said conscription was the hardest pill he ever swallowed, but he was forced by his conscience to swallow it.

Mr. Pardee was nominated at a convention three years ago as a follower of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, but he insisted on today's convention so that he could explain his votes in the House of Commons. There was much heckling of Mr. Pardee, but he received the nomination.

Nickle Back in Fight.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 24. — W. F. Nickle will run as union candidate in Kingston in response to petitions from both sides of politics. As five weeks have passed since his letter of resignation as a Conservative without bringing unanimity among Kingston electors as to a candidate he has decided to enter the field. In Frontenac county, "owing to chaotic conditions at Ottawa," ex-Warden James Halliday has declined the Liberal nomination tendered some time ago. He suggests a convention to consider the present attitude of the Liberals.

MOTHER! YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, FROM CONSTIPATION

If tongue is coated, breath bad, stomach sour, clean liver and bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach-sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

INTOLERANCE A MAGNIFICENT SPECTACLE

Large Audience Last Night—Orchestra Music Greatly Appreciated—Performance Tonight.

"Intolerance" the colossal effort in moving pictures produced by Mr. D. W. Griffiths was seen at the Opera House last evening and was up to its advanced notices in ever particular. Although there was a pouring rain there was a large number of spectators whose interest was held from the first until the last of the great spectacle.

The orchestration which accompanies the picture is in advance of any heard in Fredericton before and the vocal efforts also deserve special mention.

The moral in the picture is plain to all but those who expected to see a particular phase of reform selected for attack were disappointed. The attack is against "intolerance" in all its forms.

Of the four stories which run through the picture the most effective from the pictorial viewpoint was that connected with the fall of Babylon. The reproduction of the walls of the city and the siege operations of the attacking Persians under Cyrus is wonderful as also are the representations of the life and customs of the Babylonians eventually betrayed by the treasonable intolerance of the priesthood of Bel.

The representation of the Massacre of St. Bartholomew's Eve and attendant circumstances are magnificent examples of correct costuming and acting.

A largely attended matinee is being held this afternoon and the final performance in Fredericton will be tonight.
