OF INTEREST TO WOMEN.

WOMAN'S COLUMN
TABLECLOTHS AND TABLE TALK.

Isn't it delightful that we are really becoming so sensible! This may be an age of absurdities and fads but if a future historian should compare us with the times of the Louis or the early Victorian, he would certainly by comparison, call us a "simple age" as to our house furnishings at any rate.

Think of a drawing or description of a table set for a refined family a century ago! What a profusion of "plate" crystal "fruit salvers" and other ornamental table fittings there were!

In no respect has table service so simplified as in the use of dollies and "runners" and small cloths to replace the large table drape. It may have been that with numerous servants six tablecloths a week mattered not. But with present problems of service we try to make two cloths a week do and then wish we could still further cut down our laundry bills.

So has come into general use the simple lunch cloth, the individual dolly and the runner. All of these come in all styles and grades, from imitation buttonhole on coarse damask to lace. All are attractive and simple and especially fitting for summer service.

In small lunch cloths there is also a wide choice, especially in the colored cloths, which are far away from the "red tablecloth" of the long ago. These new cloths come in all colors, mostly with conventional patterns. There are also Japanese cloths, which come in all the gay hilarity of old Japan. A set of these with napkins, in blue or green, is within the means of the moderate purse—so attractive are they and, what appeals especially to my practical mind, so easy to launder!

Then there are the "runners" which look particularly well with plain or craftsman furniture. These may be linen, crash, monk's cloth or of other similar materials. The two strips, about eighteen inches wide, are laid at right angles across the center of the table and have decorated and embroidered ends. Or a whole tablecloth may be made of green or blue or brown denim and scalloped or edged with a heavy lace.

I have one friend who would not tolerate the usual cloths in summer and who evolved a crepe cloth of loveliness. Crepe in white, with heavy lace like imitation cluny, is very decorative, washes like a handkerchief and needs no ironing.

Why is the housewife's work hard? Because she makes it so! Try a simple summer service and save time and laundry bills; besides if you do you will be a bit "different"—which is something we like to be!

SHERIFF'S SALE.

There will be sold at public auction in front of the Court House in the city of Fredericton in the county of York, and Province of New Brunswick, on Wednesday, the seventeenth day of tober A. D. 1917, at the hour of twelve o'clock, noon, under and by virtue of an execution issued out of the York County Court, the 26th day of February, A. D. 1917, in an action wherein Harry Ryan is plaintiff and J. Fred Ryan is defendant, all the right, title interest, possession, claim and demand which the said J. Fred Ryan had on the 27th day of February, A. D. 1917, being the date on which the memorial of said judgment was registered in the office of the Registrar of Deeds, in and for the said County of York, or now has in, to, out of, or upon the following described lands and premises; that is to say:

"All those certain lots of land and premises situate and being in the Parish of Kingsclear in the County of York aforesaid and distinguished as lots Number 11 and 12 on the plan of subdivisions of the tract of land known as the McNally property, which said plan was made by A. E. Hanson, deputy land surveyor, dated the fourth day of January, A. D. 1913, filed in the office of the Registrar of Deeds, in and for the County of York, bearing official number 41 and being a portion of the property deeded by the New Brunswick and British Colonization Company, Limited, to the said J. Frederick Ryan by deed dated May 26th, 1913, recorded in York County records in Book W-6, p. 21. For terms of sale and further particulars apply to solicitors for the plaintiff or the undersigned sheriff.

Dated the thirtieth day of July, A. D. 1917.
(Sgd) JOHN B. HAWTHORNE,
Sheriff in and for the County of York.

SLIPP & HANSON,

of juice in a glass and add to it one spoonful of 95 per cent grain alcohol, mixed by shaking the glass gently.

Pour slowly from the glass, noting how the pectin—the substance in fruits which makes them jelly—is precipitated. If the pectin is precipitated as one lump, a cup of sugar may be used for each cup of juice; if in several lumps the proportion of sugar must be reduced to approximately three-fourths the amount of the juice. If the pectin is not in lumps, the sugar should be one-half or less of the amount of the juice.

The housewife will do well before making the test to taste the juice as fruits having less acid than good tart apples probably will not make good jelly unless mixed with other fruits which are acid.

THE WORLD BUNK

(DeKalb County (Mo.) Herald)
I looked over a convention of people the other day. Every fellow who got up and bragged on somebody else was cheered, and it got so practically everything that was said was cheered—the platitudes stuff, the stereotyped stuff, the fake stuff that the fellow who said it didn't believe in and the fellow who cheered it didn't believe in. And I wondered why it was all put into the program when nobody believe in it. It reminded me of a little story that Elton T. Harris, of Cameron, one time told me about how Judge Alexander sat on a lawyer one time when the judge was on the bench. The lawyer, I think in some equity case, was arguing a point fulsomely to the judge, when the judge stopped him with this: "What is the use of your standing there and making the point, you are trying to make when you know it is not the law, and you know that I know it's not the law, and you know that I know that you know it's not the law." I didn't learn whether the lawyer sat down or not. But circuit courtrooms are not the only places where men put on the fake stuff that nobody believes in.

CITIES ONE SHOULD SEE.

(Collier's.)

There are at least six cities on this continent which everyone should see. Everyone should see New York, because it is the largest city in the world, and because it combines the magnificence, the wonder, the beauty, the sordidness and the shame of a great metropolis. Everyone should see San Francisco because it is so vivid, so alive, so golden; everyone should see Washington, the clear white splendor of which is like the embodiment of a national dream. Everyone should see the old gray granite city of Quebec, piled on its hill above the river like some fortified town in France; everyone should see the sweet and aristocratic city of Charleston, which suggests a museum of tradition and early American elegance. And of course everyone should see New Orleans, the City of the South.

Jimmy Bean, of Kentucky, is an orphan, but he has 18 mothers. A Sunday school class of girls at Holland, Mich., has taken him under their wing and is raising a fund for his education.

The Crisis!

Untold sacrifices are being made in defence of the world's liberty, assailed by the Hun, who declares he fights for "existence." Let us not forget that other crisis in which the fate of the dread Liquor Traffic, subdued just now by the necessities of war, is also fighting for existence.

Prohibition must be impregnable fortified now by means of proper enforcement in readiness for the struggle to come when Prohibition must be finally ratified or lost by the votes of the people in many provinces, including New Brunswick.

Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick have adopted Prohibition during the war. Prince Edward Island has enjoyed its benefits since 1901. The great majority of districts in Quebec are "dry." That is the situation to-day, but remember, the crisis comes after the war.

The total value of foodstuffs destroyed by the liquor traffic in 1916 was approximately $4,244,090.22. Add to this the immense waste of transportation facilities, clogged and hindered by carrying the grain to destruction, and again conveying the product of the breweries and distilleries to make precious men less efficient in this solemn hour!

Ontario's Splendid Record

Since September 16, 1916, Ontario has enjoyed good enforcement of Prohibition in all but a few districts. Not the most daring anti-prohibitionist hopes for a return of the curse of the traffic in Ontario. Here are some figures showing results in Ontario's largest cities for the last three months of 1915 and 1916:

ARRESTS FOR DRUNKENNESS

	Under License 1915	Under Prohibition 1916
Toronto	2,908	953
Ottawa	286	234
Hamilton	498	61
London	367	144
Brantford	152	16

Note.—"It will be noted that Ottawa has not much reduction in arrests for drunkenness. It is perhaps strange that it should show any reduction in the drunkenness record, inasmuch as it is separated only by the river from the license city of Hull."—PIONEER, Toronto.

Whether your district be under the new Provincial Prohibitory Law, or under the Canada Temperance Act, help us to arouse the full force of public opinion for vigilant enforcement of province-wide Prohibition.
