THE SITUATION AT OTTAWA IS BECOMING RATHER TENSE

Important Conference of Liberals is Now Being Held—Sir Wilfrid Given Strong Assurances of Support by Ontario Liberals—Western Tory Leaders Fighting Hard Against Union Government.

Ottawa, Oct. 11. — Easterners took the centre of the stage from the western Liberals in the union government negotiations today and the situation seems nearer adjustment than at any other time during the last week. There is no certainty as to what is to happen in the next twenty-four hours but clear-cut decisions will not long be delayed. Sir Wilfrid Laurier came back from Toronto bringing every assurance of support and affection from hundreds of Ontario Liberals but, it is understood, he has not definitely decided against his withdrawal as leader of the opposition. He was in conference with F. B. Carvell this afternoon and much depends on the gathering which followed the arrival of Hon. George H. Murray, premier of Nova Scotia, here tonight. Premier Borden anxiously awaited the decision of the Liberal conference, hoping to make an announcement of union to the morning papers.

Eighteen Liberals at Ottawa.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier on his return from Toronto was accompanied by F. F. Pardee, the chief Liberal whip. Sir Robert up to noon was still struggling to get Liberals to take $7,000 a year portfolios and administer the country. He now has eighteen representative Liberals to make proffers to. These are Premier Murray and A. K. McLean of Nova Scotia; Hon. William Pugsley and Mr. Carvell of New Brunswick; Hon. Sydney Fisher of Quebec; Hon. N. W. Rowell, F. F. Pardee, W. L. MacKenzie King and Hon. Chas. Murphy of Ontario; Attorney-General Hudson and T. A. Crear of Manitoba; Premier Martin, Hon. J. A. Calder, Attorney-General Turgeon and J. G. Turfitt, M. P., of Saskatchewan; Premier Sifton of Alberta, and Premier Brewster and Attorney-General Farris of British Columbia.

Some of these men might join the union on acceptable terms; others would not go in at any price. Union government is being fought hard from within the cabinet. Hon. Arthur Meighen is opposed to two such strong figures as Premier Sifton and Hon. J. A. Calder coming in and taking the glory of controlling the west from him.

Financial Situation a Factor.

Should Premier Borden succeed in overcoming the opposition in his own following to a real union, it is believed his successful argument will be not the conscription situation which is regarded as pretty definitely settled—but the need for united effort in rehabilitating Canada's financial position, endangered through the huge war expenditure and the reckless railway gifts and other favors extended to political favorites of the present government.

Soon to Be Settled.

Ottawa, Oct. 11. — Negotiations looking to the formation of a union government are approaching the stage of finality. Hon. J. A. Calder stated this morning that the deliberations which have agitated the capital and the country for several days past are likely to be terminated before Saturday. He said nothing which would definitely indicate his belief either in success or failure.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier returned from his trip to Toronto. The Liberal leader was in good spirits. He had little to say, as is his custom, but intimated that his trip had been a pleasant experience.

GENERAL H. H. McLEAN NOMINATED IN ROYAL

Gagetown, Oct. 11.—The Conservative convention, falsely called the "Win-the-War" convention by the Conservative machine, was held here this afternoon and resulted in the nomination of Brigadier-General H. H. McLean to contest the united counties of Kings and Queens in the coming election, in opposition to Dr. D. H. McAlister, the Liberal candidate, who was chosen by a Liberal convention some time ago.

The convention, which opened just before 3 o'clock, was in every respect a Conservative one. No Liberals were present as delegates from any of the parishes and only a few Liberal residents of Gagetown were amongst the spectators. One remarked that he wanted to see how General McLean looked in his new role.

An effort was made on the part of some of the delegates, who were passengers on the boat from St. John, to have Hon. L. P. Farris, who was also on hand, go to the court house, but he declined, saying that everyone knew he was a Liberal.

Conservatives on Deck.
Such Conservatives as Hon. J. A. Murray, M. P., Geo. B. Jones, M. P., P., and H. V. Dickson, M. P., accompanied the fifty-odd Kings county delegates who came up from St. John.

The meeting was presided over by S. L. Peters, former secretary of the Queen's County Conservative Association.

Captain (Rev.) Correy, of Havelock, who referred to the fact that the late member for Kings (Senator Fowler) had gone to the Senate, made an appeal to all to bury politics. Next to being in the trenches, he said, he did not know of any place where he would rather be than where he was standing at present.

Hon. J. A. Murray said that he had always been a Conservative and would continue to be one, but under the circumstances he thought it well for all to get together and help to promote union in Canada. He was willing to lay aside his political garments and help to elect anyone who would help beat back the invader.

Went over to Borden. Geo. B. Jones, M. P., proposed Brigadier-General H. H. McLean as a candidate. He said that the canvass had been raised that the General was drawing too much money out of the government, but he thought that he was "entitled to all that he was getting." General McLean, he said, "almost broke his neck" trying to get to the front. He said that the General

THE AD. AND THE MAN.

By James J. Montague.

He saw the ad from day to day And muttered: "I defy it; The stuff may be just what they say, But I'm not going to buy it." As time wore on he made remarks It would not do to mention, For he was mad because that ad Was forced on his attention.

But in a week, or two, or three, He said: "There's no denying, The way that ad gets hold of me, The stuff may be worth trying." For just about a fortnight more He dared mere words to win him, And then the ad completely had Aroused the spender in him.

Next day he drifted in a store And quietly expended A few big iron dollars for The stuff the ad commended. He found it filled a long-felt need Its excellence surprised him, And now he's glad because the ad So deftly hypnotized him.
