HAD BOILS

B. B. DROVS THEM AWAY

When the blood becomes impure the very first symptoms which manifest themselves are a breaking out of various forms of skin trouble such as boils, pimples, sores, etc., and to get rid of these troubles you must cleanse the blood thoroughly with a good blood remedy.

The best blood cleansing remedy on the market today is Burdock Blood Bitters.
Thousands of people from one end of Canada to the other have used it during the past forty years and have nothing but words of praise for its cleansing properties.

Mr. Rufus Beers, Upper Main River, N. B., writes: "I want to say a few words about your medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters. I had boils for over six months and sometimes was so bad I could not work. I tried lots of cures, but nothing would drive them away for good until I took B.B.B. In a short time I was all better. It is a dandy medicine. I keep it in the house all the time."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont., but so well and favorably is it known that there are many imitations on the market. See that our name appears on the wrapper.

GILLETT'S LYE*Slants of Humor*WHY DANNY DIDN'T START.

Danny Clements was captain of a schooner that plied between New York and Haverstraw. One day his craft was loaded with brick, ready to start for New York, but Danny gave no sign of any intention to get under way. Instead he sat on deck smoking a cigar.
The owner of the brickyard, also owner of the schooner, who had reasons for wishing the brick in New York at the earliest possible moment, came hurrying on board and demanded to know why Danny didn't sail.

"There's no wind," said Danny.
"No wind! What's the matter with you? There's Morgan's schooner under sail going down the river now."
"Yes, Ol' been watchin' her, but it's no use my gettin' under way," replied Danny. "She's got the wind now, and, to me mind, there ain't enough of it for two."—New York Times.

NOT SO SCANDALOUS.

(Youngstown Telegram.)
An inquisitive neighbor who has an inordinate fondness for gossip recently overheard the daughter of an acquaintance talking about affairs in her home that seemed to have a spicy smack.
"What was that you said, Alberta?"
she inquired.

"I was talking about papa and mamma."

"Yes?"

"And I said papa beat mamma up the other day."

"Did he, indeed?"

"Well, what did he beat her with?"

"With an alarm clock."

"Ah, did your papa hit your mamma with the clock?"

"No, indeed, my papa never hits my mamma."

"Then what do you mean when you say he beat her up the other morning?"

"Mamma usually gets up first, but papa wanted to go fishing, and he set the clock so he could beat her up in the morning."

"O-o-h!"

IMPROVISING GEOGRAPHY.

At a dinner party reference was made to undesirable localities when this incident was recalled by Congressman Henry L. Emerson of Ohio: Some time ago an eastern man was traveling toward the Pacific coast when the train stopped at a wretched looking place that had not been dignified with even a passing glance by the geographers.

"Hey, there, pard," called the traveler, looking out the window and noticeing a man shuffling across the station platform. "Come here a minute, will you?"

"Sure," was the obliging rejoinder of the native. "What kin I do for you?"

"I am after information," returned the traveler. "What is the name of this cast down, dried up, dismal, heaven forsaken hole?"

"That's near enough, stranger," sadly rejoined the native. "Jes' let her go at that."—San Francisco Chronicle.

Waste of Energy.

Clarence announced his coming by a series of howls. "Oh, my finger, my finger!" he said.

"Poor little finger," mother cooed.
"How did you hurt it?"

"With the hammer."

"When?"

"A long time ago," Clarence sobbed.
"But I didn't hear you cry."

"I didn't cry then; I thought you were out," said Clarence.

Nearly all our minor ailments, and many of the serious ones, too, are traceable to flatulence, headaches, constipation, and a host of other distressing ailments, you must see to it that your stomach, liver the work they have to do. It is a simple matter to take 30 drops of Mother Seigel's Syrup daily, after meals, yet thousands of former sufferers have banished indigestion, bil-
