

GLENN ACQUITTED ON THE GROUND OF INSANITY

Woodstock, Oct. 17. — "Not guilty on the grounds of insanity," was the verdict brought in by the jury after being out twenty minutes this afternoon in the case of William Glenn, with the murder of Harry Wiley. The fact that Glenn killed Wiley was not disputed by the defense but the question was raised as to whether, at the time of the murder, the defendant knew that he was committing a wrong act. In his charge to the jury, Judge Chandler pointed out that it is not the law that an insane man can kill another man and not be punished for it and that it was the duty of the jury to decide whether or not at the time Glenn shot Wiley, he understood the nature of his deed and knew that he was doing wrong. The jury decided that the murderer was irresponsible.

At the morning session three witnesses for the prosecution, Guy Welch, William Love and Alexander Quinn, gave evidence as to seeing the body of Wiley, and the crown then closed its case.

Defense Opens.

Hon. F. B. Carvell opened for the defense, and in outlining his case, said that the defense did not deny that this unfortunate affair had occurred and the shooting had been done by the accused. If this man, Glenn, was insane he was not guilty of murder. Dr. W. D. Rankin swore that he had seen Glenn several times and asked him questions and found his mind very much unbalanced.

H. V. Mooers, deputy sheriff, related particulars concerning the arrest of Glenn. Witness said he was the jailer and saw Glenn three or four times a day. He never talked about the case, reads some and is very slow in answering.

Elmer Glenn, a brother, testified that his brother had changed greatly and seemed to want to be alone always. While working in the woods he carried his rifle from tree to tree as he said the spies would get it if he left it down any place.

Dr. Anglin on Stand.

Dr. J. V. Anglin, superintendent of the provincial hospital, gave evidence in the afternoon. He saw the prisoner in August and after a conversation, concluded he was abnormal. He had hallucinations, heard voices and said there were "sneakers" about his house. The witness said that many of the insane could distinguish between right and wrong, can discuss some matters and still be insane. It was quite possible that at the time he committed the crime it was an impulsive act. He considered his insane at the time.

Several other witnesses called by the defense, all testified to the eccentric actions and habits of the accused.

Mr. Carvell addressed the jury for fifty minutes, went into the evidence in detail and said there was every indication that the accused was not responsible for the crime.

Attorney General Byrne followed with a forcible argument in which he claimed that Glenn knew what he was doing when he shot Harry Wiley.

The judge's charge was favorable to the prisoner.

LITTLE BOY HAD DIARRHOEA

Only Blood Passed Bowels.

Diarrhoea, dysentery and summer complaint are responsible for more deaths, especially of children, during the summer months, than any other form of disease.

Diarrhoea does not need to uersist for any length of time until the whole system is weakened, and no other disease so quickly undermines the strength and brings about a condition of prostration and often collapse.

Mrs. E. Stoddart, Lower Clark's Harbor, N. S., writes: "When my little boy was a year and a half old he was taken awfully bad with diarrhoea. I ad the doctor, but he got worse so that only blood passed his bowels. I tried everything, but he got no relief. One day while I was at work, I picked up a piece of paper, and on it was an advertisement for Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. After trying a bottle he began to get better, and the second one made acure. I would not be without it in the house for my little ones. I am proud to say "Dr. Fowler's" saved my little boy's life."

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been on the market for the past 72 years, and there are many imitations of this wonderful bowel complaint remedy. See that you get the genuine when you ask for it. Price 35c. Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SOLDIERS HAVE A DAILY PAPER

(Canadian Press direct wire.)

Ottawa, Oct. 17. — Although the large majority of Canadians are probably unaware of the fact, soldiers of the Dominion overseas, even those in the trenches in France and Belgium, receive a daily paper filled with news from Canada. This little publication which is of such immense value to the boys at the front because it contains news of home, is published in London and goes by the name of "The Canadian Daily Record. It is the latest development of the Canadian military authorities in Canada and overseas to provide news to the soldiers.

Axel Sjoberg of North Grafton, Mass., has harvested potatoes raised by planting potato peels. He planted real seed potatoes also, but had better luck with the potato peels.

"For the Red Cross"

Ye that have gentle hearts and fain
To succour men in need,
There is no voice could ask in vain
With such a cause to plead—
The cause of those that in your care
Who know the debt to honour due,
Confide the wounds they proudly bear,
The wounds they took for you.

Out of the shock of shattering spears,
Of screaming shell and shard,
Snatched from the smoke that blinds and sears
They come with bodies scarred,
And count the hours that idly toll
Restless until their hurts be healed—
And they may face, made strong and whole,
To face another field.

And yonder where the battle waves
Broke yesterday o'erhead,
Where now the swift and shallow graves
Cover the Empire's dead:
Think how your sisters play their part
To serve as in a holy shrine,
Tender of hand and brave of heart,
Under the Red Cross sign.

Ah, by that symbol, worshipped still,
Of life blood sacrificed,
That lonely Cross on Calvary's Hill,
Red with the blood of Christ;
By that free gift to none denied
Let pity serve you like a sword,
And Love go out to open wide
The gate of life restored.

Sir Owen Seaman in "Punch"

The British Red Cross once more makes an earnest but confident appeal for our help.

That is why today, October 18th, has been set aside as "Our Day" for giving.

Canada's trust is, that out of their abundance every man and woman will give generously to aid the work of the British Red Cross.
