In Great Demand.

Two carloads of wheat, a carload of oats and a quantity of barley ordered by the Provincial Agricultural Department have arrived here and been distributed by officials of the department. The demand for seed grain has been remarkably keen and testifies to the good judgment exercised by Hon. Mr. Tweeddale in arranging to make a supply available. Another supply of seed wheat is expected next week.

Died in the West.

The sad intelligence was received here yesterday of the death at Hedley, B. C., of Mrs. P. S. Collins, formerly Miss Annie Allen of this city. She was a graduate nurse and had been living in the west for some years. Last summer she visited her old home here and was then apparently in the best of health. The news of her untimely death was a great shock to relatives and friends here. The deceased leaves besides a husband, one sister, Miss Nellie Allen of Vancouver, and three brothers, Mr. George C. Allen, general baggage agent of the I. C. R., Moncton, John S. and Frederick Allen of this city.

Mr. S. H. White of Sussex, is a guest at the Queen.

NASHWAAKSIS
MAN DIES OF HIS WOUNDS

Pte. Howard D. Chase Died in Hospital in London—Was Wounded in Battle of Vimy Ridge.

York county has given another life in the cause of the Empire as the result of the taking of Vimy Ridge by the Canadians. Private Howard Douglas Chase, of Nashwaaksis, according to official information forwarded to Mr. Albert E. Chase, of that place, died in King George's Hospital, London, England, May 15th. Death was the result of wounds in the spine and chest received early in April.

The late Private Chase was first reported to be seriously ill, but a later report stated that he had been wounded.

He is survived by two young sons, who are living at Nashwaaksis. His wife died some years ago. The deceased enlisted in the 140th Battalion and was stationed in Fredericton. After his arrival in England he was drafted to the front and saw much service.

Entertained at Bridge.

Dr. and Mrs. H. V. B. Bridges entertained a large number of college boys at bridge last night in honor of their nephew, Lieut. Atwood Bridges of St. John. Mr. Wilfred N. Main was the prize winner. After luncheon music was furnished by those who were present.

Fast Driving.

Two men who were up for fast driving on the highway bridge were fined $2.50 each in the police court this morning.

Campbell Cases Dismissed.

The two cases against Sam Campbell for violation of the Canada Temperance Act were dismissed by Police Magistrate Limerick this morning. There was no proof that the beer sold was intoxicating and the case of wine seized was Mrs. Campbell's own property. The case against Nicholas Saracen, an Austrian, for selling the beer for Campbell also was dismissed.
