ALLIES HAVE NOT REJECTED THE GERMAN PEACE OFFER

London, Jan. 11.—Premier Lloyd George, speaking in the Guildhall this afternoon, said Emperor William had told his people that the Entente Allies had rejected his peace offering. The Emperor did so, he said, to drug those whom he could no longer dragoon.

"We have rejected no peace terms," the Premier said, and added: "We were not offered terms, but a trap baited with fine words. It would suit Germany to have peace now on her own terms. We all want peace, but it must be a real one."

The Premier said the Allies were of the opinion that war was preferable to Prussian domination over Europe. The Allies had made that clear, he said, in the Rome conference.

The Premier said that the great resolution of the Entente Allies at the recent conference in Rome was that at all costs they must achieve the high aim which was before them when they accepted the challenge of the "Prussian Military Caste" to rid the world "forever of its menace and save Europe from unspeakable despotism."

Under No Delusions.

The Rome conference was under no delusions, Mr. Lloyd George continued, as to the magnitude of the task of the Allies, but felt no doubts as to the results. The whole situation was probed, the difficulties were faced and arrangements were made to deal with them. All the Allies felt, he declared, that if victory was difficult defeat was impossible.

Victory in 1917.

The Premier said the navy had completely strangled the commerce of Great Britain's enemies, and would continue to do so, despite "all piratical devices of the enemy." With proper support at hand, he continued, the armies would cleave through to victory during 1917.

ROLL OF HONOR

Several thousand officers and employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company enlisted for active military duty with the Canadian Expeditionary Forces, and the majority of them are now in Europe, bravely battling for Canada and the Empire. As particulars of Army Reservists are not available, these lists of those who have given up their lives for their country or been wounded in action are necessarily incomplete, and do not therefore indicate fully the extent to which the Company's officers and employees have participated in the great struggle.
