

ALASKA GIRL FINDS BROADWAY LIKE MAIN STREET, FAIRBANKS

So Naturally New York is Alright, All
Except the Climate--The Cold Wave Tempers That.

(New York Sun.)

"Well, this is something like a real climate!" exclaimed a pretty girl at the McAlpin hotel this morning, as she stood and let the icy breezes blow in through the open windows.

"It cures the only ill New York suffers from, this fine cool breeze."

The girl was Miss Louise Sacken, of Kuyukuk, Alaska, who arrived in this city last Saturday to learn for herself whether or not she would be contented to live in the frozen North for the rest of her life with miners for companions and dog sleds for transportation. She had found but one cause for complaint--the climate. This morning's drop in temperature saved the day for Manhattan.

"There is nothing the matter with New York now that it has shown that it can be cool enough to be comfortable," she said a half hour after she greeted the morning with her indorsement. She was sitting at breakfast when most of the guests in the hotel were just beginning the last lap of their night's sleep, and it was hard to believe that she was not one of New York's own daughters.

Looked Like a Debutante.

There was nothing about her to indicate that she had lived all her life in a mining camp six days' journey by dog team north of Fairbanks with but one white woman as her companion. She looked like a debutante in all the freshness of her first season and her frocks showed the taste and discrimination of the true daughter of Eve.

"I came down here to satisfy myself that Fairbanks was the best place on earth," she declared, twirling a solitaire ring round and round on her engagement finger. "I always thought so, but father thought I should see New York before I made up my mind to stick it out in Alaska."

"It took me six weeks to get here, but it was worth the trip. New York is wonderful and Fifth Avenue is unbelievable. Broadway is all right, but it is strangely like a big, well staged production of the Main street in Fairbanks. Your shows are great, but they seem like the burlesque show posters I saw in Fairbanks. Taxicabs are a relief after dog sleds, but my New York is on Fifth avenue."

The Styles "Got" Her.

"Yes, you've guessed it. The frocks have cinched me and thrown me. I never dreamed that women could dress the way New York women dress."

"Every new dress I see is a revelation. The number of pretty women I have seen here is simply amazing."

"Oh, but if they wouldn't point, Rouge is so evident and so unbecoming. Why don't they get out in Central Park and romp in the snow! Then the roses in their cheeks would be the real thing."

She refused to declare herself on returning north after her visit. "It is too soon for me to make my plans," she declared. "There is enough to see to keep me for quite a while, and when I do go back I want to be sure there is nothing I have missed, so that there never will be a thing to regret."

She was toying with the solitaire again, and the last question put to her was perhaps an unfortunate one.

"What do you think of New York men?" she was asked.

"I don't," was her straightforward and staggering response.

HEAVY SNOWSTORM VISITS ALASKA

Juneau, Alaska, Jan. 27.—One of the worst snow storms ever experienced in this part of Alaska is raging today. Already the mountains near Juneau have more snow on them than in many years, and snowslides have been frequent during the last few wdays.

Two men lost their lives in a slide yesterday and mine property was damaged to the extent of many thousands of dollars.

Suffered With Heart For Ten Years

WOULD NEARLY SMOTHER.

There is nothing that brings with it such fear of impending death as to wake up in the night with that awful sense of smothering. The uncertain and irregular heart action causes the greatest distress of both mind and body.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the only remedy that can give prompt relief and effect a complete cure in cases of such severity.

They strengthen and invigorate the heart, so that it beats strong and regular, and tone up the nervous system so that the cause of so much anxiety becomes a thing of the past.

Mrs. M. O. McCready, Wapella, Sask. writes: "I am not much of a believer in medicines, but I feel that it is only right for me to let you know what your wonderful remedy has done for me, and in a very short time, too. I had suffered terribly with my heart for nearly ten years, could scarcely do any work, and would nearly smother at times. I had many remedies, some only relieving me for a time. I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and felt so much better that I kept on using them, and can truthfully say I feel like a new woman."

"I would advise anyone with heart trouble to use them."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. or three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Irish Canadians Visit Old Ireland

Dublin, Ireland, Jan. 26.—The visit of the Irish Canadian Rangers to the City of Dublin was successfully inaugurated today when the battalion formed at Wellington Barracks. Lord Mayor Gallagher and Lady Mayoress, accompanied by leading citizens of the Irish capital, were present to convey their welcome.

The Lord Mayor said the voluntary service of Canadians or Irish birth and all creeds and politics showed what the Irish could do when united by one great cause.

The battalion paraded the streets, the Lord Mayor taking the salute from the steps of the Mansion House.

Later the Canadians were reviewed in Phoenix Park by the Lord Lieutenant and Lieut. General Bryan Mahon, commander of the British forces in Ireland. The press of all shades of politics warmly welcomed the visitors, who excited much public interest.
