To Meet Monday.

It is understood that the Provincial Government will meet her on Monday evening to dispose of unfinished business before tendering their resignations to His Honor the Lieutenant Governor.

Accident at Fire Station.

When the ladder truck was leaving the Central Fire Station last night in response to an alarm, the horse broke through the rigging and ragged the driver from his seat. The ladder truck was delayed until temporary repairs were made.

Week-end Market.

The market this morning was somewhat larger than usual, but there was little change in prices, and eggs sold at 40c. doz., butter at 40c. lb., beef at 12c. and 14c. lb., pork at 18c. and 20c. lb., apples at $3 bbl. Potatoes were scarce as the market is at present unsettled.

Going to Sydney.

Mr. D. Leo Dolan will leave for Sydney, N.S., next week to take a position on the news staff of the Record, an afternoon newspaper published there. Mr. Dolan has the wishes of many friends for further success. He will be much missed in local musical circles.

Returned from Toronto.

A party of non-commissioned officers of the 236th Highland Battalion, who were taking a course in physical training at Toronto, has returned to Fredericton. The party was composed of Lance Corp. I. A. Skeggs, Lance Corp. B. Riley, Lance Corp. H. H. Hoyt and Corp. H. L. Carten.

Promotions in Orders.

Battalion orders of the 236th Highland Battalion contain the following promotions: Lance Corp. A. H. Gough to be corporal; Lance Corp. P. LeBlanc to be armorer sergeant; Private A. C. Benson to be armorer corporal, and Sergt. B. A. Burden to be signaller sergeant.

Why Titus is Wrathful.

There is a report in political circles here to effect that had the government been sustained in the recent election, Mr. Titus J. Carter, ex-M. P. P., of Andover, was to have been appointed to an important position in this city. Mr. Carter was not a candidate at the recent election, having dropped out with the understanding that he was to be provided for. Since the election he has been going about like a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour.

Old Designation Wanted.

The Chatham World, the Moncton Transcript and other papers are supporting the proposal to restore the former designation of a member of the House of Assembly, M. P. P., instead of M. L. A., the designation introduced by the defeated Conservative administration. The Mail also supports the proposal. This newspaper never intentionally has used any other designation but M. P. P. That of M. L. A. was adopted in imitation of Quebec and other provinces.

Wretched Mail Service.

Residents of Hanwell are complaining that the mail service to that section is far from satisfactory. Under a former arrangement the mails had to be conveyed from the city by team twice a week, but there is now a tri-weekly service from Hammondville, on the line of the Valley Railway. The people complain that the service is not satisfactory. The courier quite frequently fails to put in an appearance, and it is very hard to get newspapers regularly. The recent election was held a week before residents of Hanwell received newspapers containing the reports. It is understood that complaints have been forwarded to the P. O. inspector.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Wainwright, wife of Dr. S. F. A. Wainwright, has returned from a delightful visit of six weeks spent in Montreal. Dr. Wainwright has leased the house in Queen street at present occupied by Mr. F. P. Robinson, and will move into it on May 1.

Mrs. A. E. Trites, of Salisbury, who has been visiting Mrs. W. E. Trites at Salamanca, has returned home.

After spending two months with her son, Major Gerald Loggie, at Calgary, Mrs. T. G. Loggie has returned home.

Mrs. John Z. Currie, of Cambridge, Mass., returned home with her sister, Mrs. Spirden, and will be her guest for a short time.

Mr. M. S. Strangate, of New York, is at the Barker House.

Mr. Geo. McCutcheon, of St. John, is in the city.

GALLIPOLI VETERAN MARRIED LAST NIGHT TO LOCAL LADY

Pte. Aubrey C. Curtis and Miss Gertrude L. Lipsett United in Marriage
---Groom Now With 236th.
Battalion

Private Aubrey Clarence Curtis, of the 236th Highland Battalion, and Miss Gertrude L. Lipsett, only daughter of Mrs. John Lipsett, of this city, were united in marriage by Rev. J. E. Sutherland last night. The wedding took place at St. Paul's Manse at 8 o'clock. The bride was attended by Mrs. B. C. Dennison, of this city, and Corporal D. A. Hickey, of the 236th Battalion, was groomsman. The bride was gown-d in pink silk and carried a large bouquet.

The wedding was attended by only the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. It was followed by a wedding supper to which some thirty guests sat down.

Private and Mrs. Curtis will reside in Saunders street. They are being warmly congratulated by their numerous friends and showered with wishes for future happiness and success.

The groom is a native of Cardiff, Wales. He served twelve years in the Royal Navy, concluding his service upon being discharged from hospital as the result of wounds received at Gallipoli during the attack on the Dardanelles. He recovered from the effects and after coming to Canada last autumn re-enlisted in the 236th.

Mr. P. J. Lynch, of Queenstown, is in the city.

DESERTER FROM 236TH BATTALION IS ARRESTED AFTER CHASE

Sidney Phillips of St. John Found in Chinese Restaurant--Broke Away From Provost Sergeant But Was Run Down.

The first deserter from the 236th Highland Battalion to be arrested was run down last night after a lively chase in which Provost Sergt. Cinq Mars, two military policemen and Police Sergeant Marshall of the city force took part.

Sergt. Cinq Mars spotted the man, Stephen Phillips, in the Chinese restaurant on York street, dressed in civilian clothing and accompanied by a civilian. The Sergt. informed Phillips that he was wanted as a deserter. Phillips said there was a mistake as his name was Thompson. The sergeant said he would take a chance on that.

Phillips and his friend left together, the sergeant following closely. Two military policemen were waiting at the door. Phillips, on reaching the street, dashed between them and made a bolt up King street.

Chase was given, Police Sergeant Marshall joining. The deserter was finally run to earth, being found hiding in a wagon in a yard.

Phillips is being held for court martial. He is said to belong to St. John. His visit to Fredericton was for the purpose of inducing his brother to leave the 236th. The brother, however, is under detention at Partridge Island, St. John.

Mr. J. L. Feeney and bride have taken apartments at Miss Colwell's for the winter.
