USES FOR STALE BREAD.

FOR DINNER—Take the hardest part of the bread, cover with hot water, drain, season, add one large onion; lay this dressing between two rump steaks, tie securely, bake in oven as you would a roast, and it will be eaten with a relish. If soup is served, small cubes browned in the oven, make delicious croutons.

FOR PANCAKES—Soak the hardest bread in hot water, draining and adding one egg, a little salt, tablespoon of sugar, milk to make a suitable batter, and fry as pancakes.

FOR MOCK HASH—Take left-overs of all kinds of meat, run through food grinder with stale bread, onion, season turn into frying pan, brown a golden brown and don't be stingy with the lard.

FRIED BREAD is made with a batter of milk, flour and sugar, dipping slices into the batter, and after the skillet is hot, put in at one time enough to fill the skillet, cover, and when done sprinkle with sugar before serving.

AROUND THE HOUSE.

Boot polish which has become dry can be successfully softened with a few drops of turpentine.

If a brick is used for an iron stand the iron will hold its heat much longer than when an ordinary stand is used.

After cleaning pictures, test all the cords before putting them up again, and if they are at all weakened put on new ones.

Paraffine is useful for the removal of paint stains. Dip the stain into the paraffine, rub between the fingers and then wash thoroughly with soap and water.

To remove ink stains from an oak table, lay spirits of wine on the marks, let it remain for some time, then rub well and clean off.

All household pans should be kept on shelves made of strips of wood, so that plenty of air can get to them. This keeps them fresh and sweet for use.

NAP LAJOIE IS AS BRILLIANT AS EVER IN FIELDING

Accepted Twenty-one Out of Twenty—
Two Chances the Other Day—
No Runner Steals Second.

(Toronto News.)

That Lajoie is the same brilliant fielder that he always was, the work of the Leafs' manager at Providence yesterday, when he accepted 21 out of 22 chances, is an indication. Where Larry starred in particular was in tagging runners who tried to filch the bag. Kelly had a tough time getting the ball down to the sack, but no matter where the peg came—high, wide or low—Lajoie was always on the job, and the skill with which he grabbed the wild shoots and tagged the runners was the subject of no end of favorable comment.

Seven runners who tried to steal the bag were retired during the double bill, and most of the outs were due more to Lajoie's work than to Kelly's throws.

MATT. WELLS LOST
BOU TO WALTER MOHR

Albany, N. Y., May 1.—Walter Mohr of Brooklyn won from Matt Wells of England in a ten-round bout here tonight. It was one of the fastest battles staged in Albany in many a day. Wells carried the fight four rounds, but after that Mohr did some good two-handed fighting through to the end.

HOOF PRINTS.

George Hicks is actively in the sport again. He is training a couple of Bingen family trotters over the Speedway track for Frank Whitcomb.

Tuesday is entry day at Hartford, Plattsburg, Malone, Portsmouth, Rockville, Lewiston, Rochester, Rutland, Middlebury, North Adams, White River Junction, Brattleboro and Stafford Springs.

Trainer James Snell, of Lexington, Ky., has bought the two-year-old brother to Worthy Volo, 2.08½. Kentuckians say this youngster, for whom Murphy offered $15,000 in the winter, is just as good as his near relatives, Volga or Peter Volo.

The classes which close at Hartford tomorrow are 2.20 trot (three-year-olds), $2,000; two-year-old trot, $2,000; free-for-all (to be raced over the half-mile track), $3,000, and the Battle Royal Purse (for trotters with win races of 2.06 or better), $5,000.

Hugh Milan expects Echo Direct, owned by Albert Hastings, of Fair Oaks Farm, Lexington, to be one of the sensational two-year-olds of 1917. The youngster is by Echo Todd, 2.14½, out of the dam of Director Todd, 2.07½.

A WISE SELECTION.

It is highly improbable that any physician could be found who would deny there is a great big legitimate field wherein a good liniment proves a welcome and powerful ally. When need arises, therefore, it is only a question of wise selection on the part of the purchaser. If he obtains a liniment that can be used internally for coughs, colds, sore throat, cramps, chills, etc., and externally for sprains, strains, muscular rheumatism, various aches, pains, and almost any soreness, he is twice fortified against many of the common ailments that all flesh is heir to. For over 100 years Johnson's Anodyne Liniment has proved to be just such a double value liniment. This prescription of Dr. Abner Johnson's, an erstwhile old family physician, has attained its enviable record of more than a century of success purely on its wonderful merit. As a tribute to its remarkable healing, soothing and penetrating qualities, thousands of grateful users speak of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment as "an angel in disguise."

SCARCITY OF OATS
PUTS STOP TO RACING
ON ENGLISH TRACKS

This Week Sees the Last—Thoroughbred Horses Will be Put on Rations—
---Situation is Serious.

London, May 1.—All racing will cease in the United Kingdom this week, it was announced in the House of Commons for the government by Captain Charles Bathurst. He added that an order providing for the rationing of thoroughbreds would be issued shortly. Questioned by Arthur Lynch, Nationalist member for West Clare, as to whether the prohibition would be extended to small race meetings in Ireland, Captain Bathurst replied that he was not authorized to say any exception would be made to the rule. It is calculated that at the present rate of consumption the British stock of oats would be completely exhausted by the middle of June.
