GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST
CLOTH THROUGH HAIR
DOUBLE ITS BEAUTYTry This! Hair Gets Thick, Glossy,
Wavy and Beautiful at Once.

Immediate? Yes! Certain? That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; it cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

COST OF DYING WAS EXPENSIVE IN 1818

The following is an extract of a letter from Trinidad, published in the Halifax Recorder in 1818:

Dear Sir,—I send you the following statement of the expenses for five days medical attendance and medicine, together with the burial expenses of my friend, who died during the last sickness—that in case you or any of your friends should take a notion to visit our island you may be prepared with the needful:

Five days attendance of three physicians	$386
Apothecary's bill	36
Nurse	15
Wine, etc., during illness	16
Making will	24
Washing and laying out deceased	24
Cotton cambric for sheet, shrouds, scarf, etc.	40
Mounted Coffin	48
Printed invitation cards	15
Boys to distribute cards	3
Refreshments for funeral	24
Gloves, hat-bands and crepe	36
Sexton's bill	72
Services at the church (Catholic)	13
Five pounds wax tapers	6
To the Governor for breaking the seal of the will	16

Total

There were many more small expenses not enumerated, making about $800—a moderate calculation!

The bill is a rather heavy one, and the inference is that the deceased must have been one of the well-to-do kind.

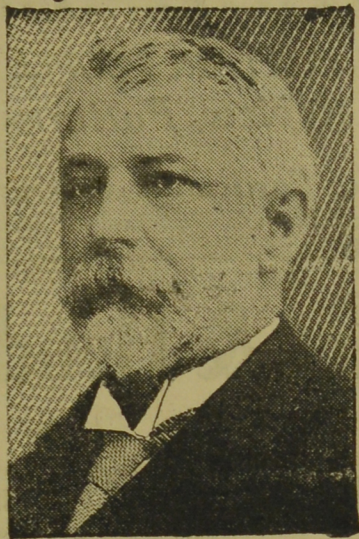

PERSONAL

Mrs. G. A. Bartlett of Temperance Vale passed through the city yesterday on her way to St. John. She was accompanied by Miss Bessie Whitehead of Queensbury who is a delegate to the C. of E. Women's Auxiliary. Mr. W. A. McLellan has gone to Toronto on a business trip.

THE VINDICATION
OF HON. W. S. FIELDING

(Toronto Globe.)

The government's surrender to the free-wheat policy is the vindication of a great Canadian—one of the most faithful stewards of the public business the country has ever known—the Hon. W. S. Fielding. He was not the only Canadian negotiator of the reciprocity proposals of 1911, but as finance minister he was specially loaded with obloquy by the men who raised the spurious loyalty cry as an election dodge. It is begging the question to say that the Canadian order-in-council abolishing the duty on wheat is not related to the Knox-Fielding pact, but to a later enactment by Congress. Everyone whose memory goes back to the events of six years ago knows that free wheat was regarded as the backbone of the reciprocity agreement. It was the favorite bogey of anti-reciprocity writers and orators, east and west. Free wheat would destroy the trans-continental railway systems. It would disrupt Confederation by turning the currents of trade from interprovincial channels and causing them to flow north and south. Economic absorption would sap Canadian independence and lead to political absorption. Such was the fundamental clamor of politicians who now confess that they won success by false pretences. In that campaign of calumny Mr. Fielding went down to defeat with his party, but his reputation and his fiscal policies survive. Those who slandered him out of parliament and out of office now steal his political clothes and seek to hide the theft by removing the label.

HON. W. S. FIELDING.

VERY HEALTHY INDEED.

"Short skirts," said the actress, "are much more sanitary than the dragging skirts of the past, which gather up all sorts of germs, etc."

One of those dress reformers in a very long skirt said to a chorus girl: "Isn't your skirt rather ultra?"

"Knee plus ultra," laughed the chorus girl.

"Can a skirt so short be healthy?"

"Sure," said the chorus girl. "My aunt invested in a skirt like this at the beginning of the season, and even though she's a widow with seven children, she was married last month to a millionaire munition manufacturer."

PRO-GERMAN MINISTERS WILL HOLD POWER

Amsterdam, April 24.—A Vienna despatch says that the continuance in power of the pro-German ministers is considered certain as the result of the deliberations of the German parties on the political situation. In parliamentary circles it is expected that the Reichsrath will be convened on May 30th.

STOCK EXCHANGE

WAS ANAEMIC FOR OVER A YEAR

Anaemia, or blood turning to water, is caused by the heart becoming deranged, and if the heart becomes weakened it cannot pump the blood as it should.

As a result the blood becomes impoverished, and it loses its nourishing qualities. The face becomes pale and thin, and the lips bloodless. There is a weakness, tiredness and loss of weight.

When those suffering from thin or watery blood start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, they can see a change from the outset.

Every dose introduces into the blood those vital elements necessary to make it rich and red. The pale cheeks take on the rosy hue of health, the weight increases, and the whole being thrills with a new life.

Mrs. R. J. Grey, Fredericton, N. B., writes: "When I was a girl working at general housework I overtaxed my strength and became completely run down. For over a year I was very bad with anaemia. A friend told me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills so I got a box and when it was done I felt and looked so much better I decided to get six more. When I had taken them I had gained not only in strength, but in flesh and color, and best of all was good health."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box; three boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SUNDAY FOLLOWS THE CROWD.

Toronto Saturday Night: To use some of his own sign language, the Rev. William Sunday does not overlook any safe bets. Up to the time the United States formally went to war with Germany, the Rev. William was strictly neutral. Edith Cavell and the Lusitania didn't bother him. Did the Rev. Billy say anything about "ghastly, hideous, infernal Prussian militarism," during his Buffalo campaign, which closed only a few weeks ago? He did not. But now that he has opened up in New York and war is a popular subject there, Sunday has altered his tune. He is now just the finest little flag-waver one ever heard, and as he lays the invectives over the Kaiser's back the people cheer. Which all goes to show that the Rev. William is a past master at stage play. He follows the crowd, and the crowd, poor boobs, think he is leading them. Some one has said that circuses and minstrel shows have gone out of fashion. Sunday proves the contrary, and at the same time further demonstrates that he is the best little opportunist before the public eye.

THE ROAD TO THE RIGHT.

YOU'VE met at least one of those few good old souls, who are constantly getting the worst of it when shopping, who don't believe in advertising. A hundred disappointing and instructive experiences have failed to teach him their plain lesson.

When he bought his first watch he was beguiled into buying one without a known name or a trustworthy guarantee. That watch—a poor timekeeper—cost him dearly by reason of missed appointments and missed trains, and for frequent repairs. Yet he paid the price of a good watch.

It is the same story with regard to his underwear, his shoes, and his fountain pen.

This good old soul's case is not unique. Many of us, if the truth be confessed, resemble him; we allow ourselves to be sold merchandise with an unknown brand or trade mark instead of buying merchandise which is well known to us through the medium of advertising. In slang language, we get "stung" pretty often.

In most of these cases we have ourselves to blame, for "the road to the right" thing to buy has been made plain by advertising.

There is no good reason for passing by the known thing, soundly guaranteed, to buy a dubious article, which, quality for quality, cannot be cheaper than the known, branded article.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lansden Building, Toronto.
