THINGS LOOKED BAD DURING GREAT NAPOLEONIC WAR

(London Times.)
Now we know what it felt like to live through the Napoleonic wars and the struggles which preceded it. We can see "in clear dream and solemn vision" the days in the middle of the eighteenth century when this country, with its astute and not too reliable ally, Frederick of Prussia, battled with France and Austria, when disaster followed disaster and William Pitt made the boast he was faithful to redeem—"My Lord, I am sure I can save this country and nobody else can." We can picture the time when we were fighting a losing battle with the American colonies, when France and Spain hoped to take for Pitt's victories a revenge that would have destroyed our claim to rank among the great nations of Europe, when Denmark, Sweden, Prussia and Austria formed an armed neutrality to threaten the sea power on which our hope depended, and when we found it better to have Holland as an open enemy than as a treacherous neutral. There was an ignominious summer when the French and Spanish fleets commanded the channel and lay for nearly a month before the indignant and humiliated eyes of the people of Plymouth. There was another summer when the French landed in Jersey. For three years Gibraltar was in grave peril. Enemy cruisers infested our coasts and our fleet more than once lost command of the sea. India was threatened, and the French seemed likely to undo the work of Clive; while at home we were squabbling and rioting about Catholic emancipation. Posterity has been content to remember about this war that we were beaten by our own kith and kin in America. Contemporaries knew that they had trembled for Gibraltar, for India and for Canada, and that they had kept them safe through a war in which Great Britain was without a single friend or ally and during a greater part of which she stood alone against a world in arms. Let one who lived through those evil days tell how it struck a contemporary.—

"The Empire was shaken and convulsed in almost every quarter. Domestic faction pervaded all the departments of Government, infected the Navy, and manifested itself in every debate in either House of Parliament. A large proportion of society here at home regarded the American rebellion with favorable eyes, and secretly wished success to the

TO THE ELECTORS OF YORK-SUNBURY

The GOVERNMENT must be JUDGED by its RECORD, not its PROMISES
SIR WILFRID LAURIER IN HIS MANIFESTO SAYS:

"The Liberal members of the reconstructed government have put the mantle of their respectability upon this nefarious Act (War Times Election Act) as well as upon the C. N. R. Act, and upon many others against which they strongly protested and from which their presence in the government cannot remove the dangerous and indefensible character."

HOW SHALL I VOTE?

TO VOTE FOR GOVERNMENT

Means compulsion, force, conscription, discord, taxation and poverty. A DIVIDED CANADA.

TO VOTE FOR OPPOSITION

Means Liberty, unity of purpose, voluntary action, co-ordination of all our resources in men, money, munitions and food. A UNITED CANADA.

TO VOTE FOR GOVERNMENT

Means the approval of the C. N. R. steal, the Franchise Outrage and an unfairly manipulated election, under the guise of A WIN THE WAR CANDIDATE.

TO VOTE FOR OPPOSITION

Means the C. N. R. for the people, an honest local Franchise and a resolute Win The war policy, intelligently co-operating with our Allies to the fullest extent possible.

TO VOTE FOR GOVERNMENT

Means waving the flag over the lame horses, the rotten boots, the profiteers, the food manipulators and a Higher Tariff to fatten the Trusts.

TO VOTE FOR OPPOSITION

Means honest dealing, greater production, lower cost of living, free wheat, free potatoes, free fertilizer, free machinery and the Voice of the People.

TO VOTE FOR GOVERNMENT

Means the upholding of an ornamental Soldier, a ten thousand dollar Hero, who quit and came back to Canada to force our Boys to go where he would not, who now asks you to make sacrifices that he himself shuns, who now insults the people of this constituency by posing as a Win the War Candidate.

TO VOTE FOR OPPOSITION

Means the election of an honest farmer, well versed in the agricultural, commercial and economic needs of the best agricultural constituency in New Brunswick.

I ask for your support as the Representative of the Common People,

Yours faithfully,
N. W. BROWN,

TROUBLED FOR YEARS WITH BRONCHITIS Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup Gave Instant Relief.

Bronchitis is a disease which is very prevalent during the late winter and early spring, when there are sudden atmospheric changes. It is a condition of inflammation of the bronchial tubes which produces mucous or phlegm. This irritates the throat and causes you to cough in order to get rid of it. The cough may be tight or loose, according as to whether this mucous is sticky and hard to remove, or soft and easily expelled.
Bronchitis is not really dangerous, but the complications which are liable to follow makes it necessary to get rid of it on the first sign. This you can do by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. A remedy that has been on the market for over 25 years.
John D. McFarlane, Jr., S. W. Margaree, N.S., writes: "I was troubled for years with bronchitis, and could not find any relief. I was especially bad on a damp day. I went to a druggist, and asked him for something to stop the constant tickling in my throat. He gave me a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which I found gave me instant relief. It is the best remedy for bronchitis I know of, and I now take care that I always have a bottle of it on hand."
See that you get "Dr. Wood's." Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c.; manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
