Complexion Lotion!
Use Fresh Lemons
and Strain Juice

Any grocer will sell you two fresh lemons and your drug store will supply you with three ounces of orchard white. Put these in a bottle and shake well. Here you have a whole quart pint of the most wonderful lemon lotion at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams.

Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, smoother and beautifier.

Used by day, this sweetly fragrant lotion protects the skin from the evil effects of the weather and prevents roughness, redness, chafing and smarting. At night it works in the pores while you sleep, and is intended to bring a freshness and peach-like beauty that wins envy and admiration.

Just try it! Make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally helps to whiten, soften, freshen and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It works marvelously on rough, red hands. Try it and see for yourself.

FILM DISPLAYS
VERSATILITY

Douglas Fairbanks' versatility manifests itself strikingly in "Down to Earth," at the New Gaiety Theatre. Wrapped up in his dynamic personality are such accomplishments as those of writer, comedian, acrobat and philosopher. So far as his current specialty is concerned, he is a healer of ailments and a curer of unhealthful habits.

His methods are as novel as they are sensible—and exorcisingly funny.

"Did you ever hear of a dyspeptic hyena?" he inquires of a man with an unruly digestion. And before the surprised person can emit a sound he exclaims:

"No! I want you to laugh out loud and flap your arms for fifteen minutes else you get nothing to eat."

New Cures for Many Ailments

The woman with a ravenous appetite who wants to reduce, yet cannot resist her craving for large portions of food, is forced to roll and wriggle on the ground in imitation of a snake.

"You never heard of a fat snake, did you?" he asks her. "Exercise!"

Another woman who believes that she possesses all the ailments in the medical almanac is put to work gathering wood for a bonfire to make her forget her imaginary troubles. "A beaver is too busy to get sick," he informs this person. And to the habitual drunkard he prescribes two quarts of water at stated intervals. "A fish never sees a lavender rhinoceros," he tells the friend of alcohol. "Drink plenty of water and you'll get rid of the D.T's."

Whole Sanitarium Kidnaped

These and other patients he gathered at a fashionable sanitarium patronized by the wealthy on account of its elastic rules, which allow numerous privileges, however injurious they may be. Fairbanks, or "Bill Gaynor," as the play knows him, purchases the patients and the good will of the place from the proprietor and by a ruse transports them to what appears to be an uninhabited desert island. His real

The Pledge Required of Quebec Liberal Candidates

THE whole evil intent of Henri Bourassa, idol of Quebec, Nationalist, and Anti-Britisher, is shown in the following pledge which he has required Liberal candidates in Quebec to sign:

"I, the undersigned candidate for the Federal deputation, by these presents agree, if I am elected, to exact the immediate suspension of the Military Service Act of 1917, and of all its effects, until the Canadian electors have been consulted by a plebiscite, and, should the majority of the people condemn conscription in this referendum, I agree to require that it (the Military Act) be considered as void and without effect from its very origin, and that in consequence the conscripts be liberated from service and discharged.

"I also agree to vote against any government that would refuse to adopt the above-mentioned policy."

Vote for Union Candidates

Vote for the men who have banded themselves together for national unity, national honor, and national salvation.

"Election means just one thing—you are either going to send men to back up the Canadians, or you are not."
