CIVIC AFFAIRS AT DAYTON, OHIO.

had been used as dumping grounds for dirt and rubbish until they were prize examples of municipal untidiness.

The Manager told the people that if they would clean up those lots, the city would haul away the rubbish and plow up the ground for gardens. The only condition was that a row of flowers must be planted along the front of each lot. The first year four hundred lots were turned into gardens; last year six hundred and fifty; this year nearly a thousand. Some of these lots are used for school gardens, which the children cultivate under supervision. The children's gardens are graded according to their excellence; and the young gardeners who attain a certain grade are allowed to sell their produce in the city's public curb market at little stands which the city puts up for them. Who can doubt that this vacant lot garden movement pays real dividends to the community in civic comeliness, health, thrift, and even perhaps in the way of a slap at the common enemy, the high cost of living?

The new government applied common sense to the vexed problems of vagrancy and the treatment of minor offenders. Formerly homeless men used to sleep in the hall of the police station. A municipal lodging house has been established, with two simple rules. Every applicant must take a bath before he gets a bed, and every one must work half a day for his lodging. MRS. WILLIAMS SAYS USE DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

She Suffered for Two Years, but Three Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills Made Her a New Woman.

Adamsville, Kent Co., N. B., Jan. 26.—(Special.) "I can recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to every woman who suffers." So says Mrs. Williams, a well-known and highly respected lady residing here. Mrs. Williams was a sufferer for two years till she used Dodd's Kidney Pills. She found in them quick relief and complete cure. That is why she is so enthusiastic in her praise of them.

"My troubles started with a cold," Mrs. Williams states. "I never seemed to get over the effects of it. I had cramps in my muscles and my joints were stiff. There were dark circles under my eyes which were puffed and swollen. I had a bitter taste in my mouth and I suffered from severe headaches."

"I felt heavy and sleepy after meals and had attacks of neuralgia. Heart flutterings and rheumatism were soon added to my troubles. I took just three boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills. I cannot be too glad that I did so."

Every one of Mrs. Williams' symptoms was a symptom of kidney disease. That is why Dodd's Kidney Pills cured her.

Improved Water Supply.

There are plenty of other directions in which the new government has saved money for the taxpayers. Dayton, for instance, had an antiquated and inefficient water supply system when the Manager came into office. In the winter he found every pump working to full capacity and knew that when the increased summer demands came some of the city's wants must go unsupplied. The only solution believed possible by the old-time politicians was to get the money for the indispensable improvements by raising the water rates. But the Manager thought otherwise. He employed prominent engineering experts from outside the city—peace to the Little Boss's outraged feelings—followed their recommendations, and today the city is getting all the water it needs and the revenue is taking care of operating expenses, interest and sinking fund with no increase in the water rate.

The cost of garbage collection has been cut from $2.60 a ton to $1.60. The heavy oil used for oiling the streets is bought for $1.95, instead of $3.25, as of old. The streets are now flushed with a motor flushing machine which covers seven miles of street a day at a cost of two dollars a mile, instead of the two horse-drawn machines of former times that did one mile a day at a cost of $12.72 a mile.

These are some of the high spots in the record of the new government of Dayton. I pick them out because they can be visualized as such things as increased efficiency in city departments, and wise and far-sighted planning for the future cannot be. They are characteristic.
