OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

BEAD NECKLACES.

It is a fad with many women to have a necklace for every blouse. The shops are showing some very enticing offerings in that line; black with huge beads of barbaric design and coloring to weight their ends; black, silver and gold tasseled, and one that is a clever replica of snakeskin with its bronzy sheen. Others are entirely beaded from end to end with cut steel beads. Combinations of black and silver, striped black and gold are most effective. The plain black gros-grain or moire is highest in favor, however, for no costume is complete, you know, without a touch of black.

IN THE BOUDOIR.

Breakfast negliges are a combination of petticoat and combing jacket. The petticoat is often of pink crepe de chine, with a couple of frills of the material, headed by wide lace insertion. The jacket is an elbow sleeve affair, generally made in one piece, edged with lace and tied together with ribbon in front. A little boudoir cap covers the undressed hair.

Very artistic nighties are made of two thickness of Georgette crepe. They are cut like a chemise that is sleeveless, and finish in two points over each shoulder. The armholes are about four times the depth of the usual armhole. They are long and narrow, really more like slashes in the sides of the sides of the gown. All edges are finished with a picot and the top edges are picoted together, but at the nightgown hem the two crepe nighties fall apart. The only ornament is the narrow satin ribbon.

Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand.....

"I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink..... naked, and ye clothed me....."

Then shall they answer him, saying— "Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?or naked, and clothed thee?"

And the King shall answer.....

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me".

Overseas, in ravaged Belgium, more than 3,000,000 of "the least of these" are hungry, thirsty, thinly clad—looking to us! Have you done what you could for any of them?

RUSSIAN TROOPS
ACHIEVE SUCCESS

Petrograd, via London, Jan. 26.—Russian troops in two sectors of the Riga region carried out successful offensive movements yesterday, advancing at one point east of the river Aa for about a mile.

Counter offensives by the Germans later resulted in withdrawal of the Russian forces which had advanced.

CABINET COUNCILS

How British Affairs of State Are Strictly Guarded

In England Cabinet Councils are conducted in the strict privacy, although very occasionally important officials and other outsiders have attended a meeting for the purpose of giving information or advice on specific matters; while the remarkable step was taken of inviting Sir Robert Borden, as Prime Minister of Canada, to attend one of the meetings while he was in England. Otherwise the most stringent measures are adopted to secure the inviolability of Cabinet proceedings. Trusted janitors keep watch outside to guard against the possibility of eavesdropping, while the very blotting pads are destroyed after each meeting lest they should betray anything that has taken place.

Touching this matter of Cabinet secrets, by the way, Mrs. Lloyd-George remarked in a public speech that she, at least, could not disclose any, since her husband never told them to her, but it is well known that other Cabinet Ministers have not always been equally discreet. In this connection it may be recalled that the famous Lady Holland once asked, at one of the Whig consultations at Holland House, why her husband should not be Foreign Secretary. "Why, ma'am," said Lord John Russell, bluntly, "they say you open all Holland's letters." Mr. Gladstone, on the other hand, was of opinion that a Minister need have no secrets from his wife, and how nobly Mrs. Gladstone justified his confidence is well known.

Another aid to the preservation of Cabinet secrets is the system of communication between the members which is adopted. This is effected by the circulation of special despatch boxes, and one of the most important possessions of each Minister is the "key" which unlocks all these boxes. In all memoirs of Ministers will be found constant reference to "sending round a box," groans at the arrival of "piles of boxes" from other departments, and so on. When a Minister wishes to circulate some memorandum among his colleagues for information or comment he does it in this way. Altogether the Cabinet is a very wonderful institution.

MOTHER! YOUR CHILD IS CROSS FEVERISH,
FROM CONSTIPATION

If Tongue is Coated, Breath Bad, the Stomach Sour, Clean Liver and Bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out of sorts, half sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see its tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups, printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

It's impossible to suppress the man who thinks he can tell a funny story.

The girl who is wise never gives a young man a lock of her hair. She may decide to change the color of it later.

It's all right to make some things go as far as possible, but it isn't policy to stretch the truth.

WORLDLY WISDOM.

In Turkey a rich man is known by the number of wives he can afford; in America by the number of divorces he can afford.

Just as a small boy stirs up a wasp's nest "to see what will happen," a grown man sometimes stirs up a woman's jealousy "to see what she will do"—and then howls when she does it!

What hurts a woman's feelings is not the fact that every man lies to her, but the fact that he takes so little trouble to do it artistically—and yet expects her to believe him.

man is out of breath when he reaches the end of it.
