

DON'T YOU KNOW

that Zam-Buk cures when other ointments fail? There is a reason! It is because the Zam-Buk method of healing is unlike that of any other ointment.

Ordinary ointments, which are composed of such coarse ingredients as animal fats and mineral drugs, never get beneath the surface skin. Zam-Buk, on the contrary, being composed entirely of herbal essences and vegetable extracts, is so refined that it has marvellous powers of penetration. This combined with its strong germ-killing properties, makes it possible for Zam-Buk to reach and destroy all the germs in the underlying tissues, which is where skin diseases have their roots. Until this is done a cure cannot be effected.

When the germs have been destroyed and the diseased patch thoroughly cleansed, the healing herbal essences acting upon the tissues promote the growth of new flesh. As the healthy tissue develops it builds itself up to the surface skin and complete and permanent cure is the result.

Zam-Buk is equally good for old wounds, ulcers, abscesses, ringworm, blood-poisoning, piles, boils, pimples, cuts, burns, scalds, and all skin injuries. All druggists and stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25.

STOCK BROKERS MUST SHOW THEIR RECORDS

New York, Jan. 24.—The members of the New York Stock Exchange, who have been requested by their board of governors to make available for the examination of the rules committee of the House the records of their transactions, during the period when Wall Street is supposed to have received advance information on the President's peace note, are not expected by the board of governors to withhold this information. This assurance was given the committee by President Noble of the Exchange at the resumption of the "leak" inquiry here today.

SOLDIER'S MESSAGE TO PRESIDENT WILSON

Paris, Jan. 24.—President Wilson's note to the belligerents inviting them to state their war aims has been discussed extensively by soldiers at the front, the Excelsior says.

At one point near the junction of the French and British lines at a place in the Argonne, and at a point in Alsace, according to this newspaper, soldiers decided to send letters to President Wilson, each signed by 300 of them, thanking him for his generous intervention in favor of peace, and inviting him to "dream no longer of the chimera of peace until victory is gained."

BROADWAY HAS A REAL FOX HUNT

Theatre Crowds Join in Night Chase After an Animated "Muff"

New York, N.Y., Jan. 24.—The Times Square Hunt Club held its first run of the season last night, just before theatre time.

A silver fox led a merry chase up Broadway, making a score of stout gentlemen in evening dress perspire most of the starch out of their shirt bosoms.

The fox today occupies a cell in the West 47th street police station. He may remain there indefinitely.

After one glance at the mangled thumb of Philip G. Dollard, Master of Fox Hounds, Lieut. Upwood and his minions announced in chorus that they would leave the cell to its furry occupant for life before they would attempt to take it out again.

In the five minutes intervening between the time the fox broke cover at 44th street and this taking to earth in an Eighth avenue saloon, a dozen middle aged men showed bursts of speed that no one could have believed they harbored, several portly dowagers ran themselves into a case of heaves, at least one huntsman in evening dress came a cropper over an ash-can, and Master of Fox Hounds Dollard had most of his right thumb chewed off. Altogether it was a most successful hunt.

To the "M. F. H." goes the credit of starting the quarry. When not fox-hunting by electric light Mr. Dollard lives on East 176th street.

At 44th street and Broadway he paused on his way to the theatre last night to pick up a valuable muff that someone had dropped beside a pile of timber. The muff growled and then galloped down Broadway. That did not seem right to Dollard, who is not a drinking man, and he started in pursuit.

In just 30 seconds he had most of the theatre crowd for company.

By the time the fox reached 43rd street anyone could see that the hunt was bound to be a success.

One white-whiskered old gentleman, well up in front and beating himself across the flank with his cane, under the impression that he was a horse, was so carried away by the spirit of the affair that he raised the cry of "Stole away!" as the animal darted into 43rd street and headed west.

The hunt ended when the fox was run down in the Eighth avenue station.
