KUT-EL-AMARA CAPTURED FROM THE TURKS

London, Feb. 26.—Kut-el-Amara has been captured from the Turks by the British forces, according to a statement in the House of Commons today by Andrew Bonar Law, member of the British War Council.

The Turks on the Tigris river front are in full retreat toward Baghailah, 24 miles to the west of Kut-el-Amara, says the British War Department. The fleeing Turks are being engaged by pursuing British cavalry.

THE CYNIC CYNICIZED.

(N. Y. Sun.)

"Love," I told her, "is a myth."

She just smiled a smile, Dropped her lids and sat in thought, Mussed my hair the while.

"Can you prove," I asked, "it's not?"

Still she did not speak, Simply brushed her velvet hand Smooth across my cheek.

"Then you will admit," I cried,

"Love is not a fact!"

Then I noticed in her face

What some faces lacked.

"For a man of thought," I raved,

"Love does not exist!"

Then I laid my finger tips

Softly on her wrist.

"I could never make myself

Drivel pretty lies!"

Goddess like she raised her head—

Lord, taht girl had eyes!

"Oh, your eyes are like twin pools"

I began to say.

But she gave a rippling laugh,

Rose, and moved away.

We find a grim spur to optimism in the words attributed to the Grand Vizier, that Turkey will fight to the last man. If that end should really come it would solve the everlasting problem.

Someone hails as a solution of the "short skirt menace" the assertion of an expert that women who wear skirts short and thin have to eat more to keep warm, and therefore grow fat. The trouble is that no woman believes that.

When you try to straighten out a difficulty between man and wife, be sure one or the other is dead.

FOR 5 OR 6 YEARS.

Diseases and disorders of the heart CAN BE CURED BY USING the nervous system have become frightfully prevalent of late years.

One can scarcely pick up a paper but he will find recorded instances of sudden deaths through heart failure, or of prominent men and women unable to prosecute their ordinary business or profession on account of a breaking down of the nervous system.

We do not desire to unnecessarily alarm anyone, but to sound a word of warning.

When the heart begins to beat irregularly, palpitates and throbs, has shoot-pains through it, it is time to stop and

I continued taking them until I had used six boxes, and now I feel as well as can be."

"At the present time my sister is using them for nervousness, and finds great comfort by their use."
