ATTACKS ON SIR WILFRID.

The Canadian Courier, a non-political paper, reads a timely lecture to rabid Conservative papers which publish vile attacks on Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the veteran Liberal chieftain, once described by an English paper as "the greatest statesman of Greater Britain." The Courier says:

"The bitter attacks which the Conservative press are making upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier are driving thousands of Liberals into opposition to union. For while many Liberals believe Sir Wilfrid has not suggested the best method for winning the war, few, if any of them, believe him guilty of not wanting to win the war. It is a mistake of judgment and not of heart, they reason. To denounce the man upon whom they have relied since childhood for leadership in public matters as a traitor, to caricature him as in league with the Kaiser, is an insult to their judgment. We must remember that charging Sir Wilfrid with treason is no new thing. When in 1911 he advocated reciprocity with the United States, he was represented as a traitor to the Empire. The charges today are no stronger, no more virulent, the cartoons no viler, than they were then. And yet today we have a fair measure of reciprocity with the United States; we have borrowed money from the United States by the scores of millions, and we are relying upon the United States today to finance the grain crops of western Canada. We have gone further toward Continentalism than Sir Wilfrid advocated, and no one has suggested that treason has been committed. To attack Sir Wilfrid as a traitor is to raise a battle-cry for war horses retired from duty through lack of employment. It must not be forgotten that six months ago Sir Wilfrid had the biggest personal following of any man in Canada. To hold Sir Wilfrid up to the Liberals of Canada as in league with the Kaiser is to weaken confidence in the statesmanlike qualities of unionism. Sir Robert Borden has not done so, and his example ought to be good enough for his followers."

Liberal members of the Union government could render a good service to Canada at the present time if they would persuade Sir Robert Borden to apply the muzzle to some of the more rabid of his newspaper organs. It must not be forgotten that Sir Wilfrid Laurier was Premier of Canada for fifteen years, and gave the country wise and progressive government during that long period. While there are many Liberals who differ with him on the question of conscription, they still have great admiration for the man and are inclined to resent the vile attacks being made upon him by a portion of the press. The strong opposition to Union government which has developed in Nova Scotia is largely due to the bitter attacks being made on Sir Wilfrid by the Halifax Conservative organ.

The town of Kitchener, where the Prime Minister of Canada was grossly insulted on Saturday night, is not in the province of Quebec, but is located in an Ontario county which six years ago returned a Conservative to parliament in the reciprocity issue. The Conservative slogans then were: "Under which flag?" and "No truck or trade with the Yankees!" Of course the pro-Germans of Kitchener were truly loyal in 1911.

A London cable announces the death of Sir Leander Jameson at the age of sixty-nine years. Sir Leander will be best remembered as Dr. Jameson, who led a party of Outlanders in a filibustering expedition into the Transvaal shortly before the outbreak of the Boer war. The raiders, one of whom was Mr. John Hays Hammond, an American mining engineer, were captured by the Boers and heavily penalized. Dr. Jameson was for years associated with the late Cecil Rhodes in successful mining ventures. After the Boer war he became Premier of Cape Colony, which office he held for four years. He was knighted in 1911.

The assets of the Bank of Montreal now reach the total of four hundred and four million dollars, which is a record for Canadian banking. The savings deposits total two hundred and forty-six millions. The earnings of the bank for the year ending October 31st represent 15.5 per cent. on the paid-up capital.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt, ex-President of the United States, spoke to a large audience last evening in behalf of Canada's Victory Loan. He was given a most enthusiastic reception and delivered a characteristic speech which provoked great applause.

Through Our Sieve

Only three more days left to secure Victory bonds.

The way to victory is paved with bonds.

Russia still appears to be making scrambled history.

The beer-drinking Germans thought they were the only tanks.

A man who is really fond of music seldom tries to sing.

A girl can love almost any man her parents are willing to object to.

We notice that a patriot is still a man who votes the way you want him to.

What has become of the old-fashioned theorist who asserted that it was bad policy to save anything?

It is well that the Kaiser and the Sultan have decorated each other—no body else would.

There is such a thing as dollar patriotism, which is most useful when applied to the purchase of Victory bonds.

There are male and female of the Wheat family—old Buck Wheat and young May Wheat. Tee hee!

Opportunity knocks at the door nearly every day now—the opportunity to do something for the world's highest ideals.

We fancy that a poetry magazine that would guarantee to print at least one poem a year written by each subscriber, would soon have a Saturday Evening Post circulation.

Sure! High Heels Cause Corns But Who Cares Now

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear, they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which mauls makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

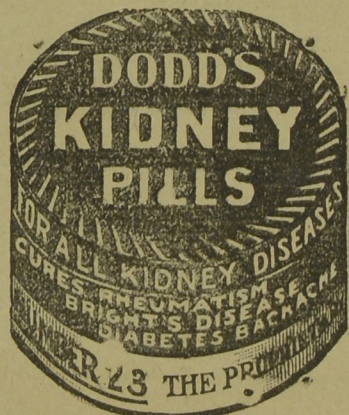

A few drops of a drug called freezone applied directly upon a sore corn gives quick relief and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain. Ask the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freezone, which costs very little, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This drug is an ether compound and dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Clip this out and pin on your wife's dresser.

TWO MORE SOLDIERS

(Continued on page 8.) In the 9th Siege Battery and went to France with the same draft with which Gunner McAdam went. He was the only son of Mr. A. R. Wetmore, chief engineer of the Provincial Public Works department. Gunner Wetmore was in his twentieth year and was popular with all who knew him. Public sympathy goes out to the members of the bereaved family. Besides the parents three younger sisters survive.

Mr. W. R. Marshall of Toronto is a guest at the Barker House.
Mr. J. K. Urquhart of Amherst is in the city.

NO EXEMPTIONS FOR STUDENTS

(Canadian Press direct wire.)

Montreal, Nov. 27—Instructions have been sent to the military representatives of the various exemption tribunals to refuse exemption to all first year medical and dental students. It is claimed that in this city many of the first year students in the medical faculty entered this branch of study only after the Military Service Act was passed. At McGill and Laval universities there is an especially large number of students of military age in the first year medicine and dentistry departments.

A GREAT PLAY THIS WEEK

On Saturday, December 1 through arrangement with Klaw and Erlanger and George C. Tyler, "Out There", the remarkable play with which Laurette Taylor has been thrilling New York during the past two seasons will be presented at the City Opera House. Miss Taylor was unable to leave New York but she selected as her successor in the role of 'aunted Annie', a character as distinctive as Peg in "Peg O' My Heart", Elsa Ryan, who is fitted temperamentally and physically to perform the role. She is supported by a large company of English actors who were selected to personate the various roles. One of the moving scenes takes place in a hospital behind the French lines on the great fighting front, and among the characters who are seen in this remarkable act are a wounded New Zealander, a wounded Canadian, a wounded Scotchman, a wounded Cockney and a wounded Irishman. It would be a stony heart indeed that would not be moved by the action in this scene. It is presented with a fidelity to fact. Among the songs which are sung in this act are "I Want to Go Home" and "We Beat Up to the Marne", written by Lieut. Gitz Rice of the First Canadian Battalion. Setas will go on sale at Ryan's tomorrow morning.
