The latest casualty lists contain the names of G. W. Kitchen of Kingsclear, wounded, and E. B. Foster of Burt's Corner, wounded. Both were with the infantry.

Burned by Exploding Lamp.

Mr. Ernest Leaman of this city was painfully burned last night by the explosion of a lamp on the car which he was driving. The explosion burned him severely about the face and head.

At St. Paul's.

Rev. Mr. Fraser of St. Andrew's preached very acceptably at St. Paul's church yesterday at both services. Rev. Mr. Anderson, the acting pastor of St. Paul's, was at St. Andrew's.

Injured in Motoring Accident.

Word has been received from Sedgwick, Alta., to the effect that Mr. Chas. B. Morgan of that place, formerly of St. Mary's, is in hospital as the result of injuries received in a motoring accident.

Will Lose $1,100 in Licenses.

Halifax will lose $1,100 in theatre licenses this year as a result of legislation passed by the government preventing the city from charging more for a license than is charged by the government.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement has been announced this week of Miss Doris Sayre, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sayre of St. John, to Mr. F. R. Taylor, the well known barrister, living at Rothesay.

Want Recruits for Navy.

The local recruiting office has been notified that recruits for the Royal Navy are especially wanted. Last week fifty-three men were enlisted here. Of that number fifty were British subjects from the United States and the remainder were local recruits.

Crop that Never Fails.

Mr. H. C. Rutter is making good progress with the work of serving the city tax notices. So far there have been a number of complaints of alleged over-assessment but nobody has come forward with a complaint that his taxes are too low. Quite a number of people have already paid up.

To Wed Next Week.

The wedding is announced for 8 o'clock next Wednesday evening of Mr. James Edward Gregory of this city, and Miss Elsie O. Randall of Lakeville Corner. Rev. G. C. Warren will officiate. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Randall of Lakeville Corner.

Died Yesterday.

Mrs. Eliza McKinnon passed away Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. Frank Dunphy, Waterloo row, after a lingering illness. She was aged eighty-two years. The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. G. M. Young conducting the service. Interment will be made at the Methodist cemetery, Marysville.

Took 200 Prisoners.

The announcement was recently made that Lieut. Frank deL. Clements of Kingsclear, who went to France with an infantry battalion, has been awarded the Military Cross. The official record says:

"Lieut. Francis deLancy Clements: With great skill he led a platoon, capturing two hundred prisoners."

Spent Sunday Here.

State Senator and Mrs. Edwin T. McKnight of Boston, and Sheriff and Mrs. McLeod of Kings, motored here from Sussex on Saturday and registered at the Queen. They started on the return trip this morning. Senator and Mrs. McKnight were the guests of Lord and Lady Ashburnham Sunday evening.

Potatoes are Scarce.

Potatoes sold in the local market Saturday morning at from $5 to $6 per barrel. Local provision dealers had allowed their stocks to get low and had to replenish at the advanced prices. In some sections of the country potatoes are very scarce while in other sections they are being fed to hogs. New potatoes are expected to be in general use in about a fortnight.

Enforcing Traffic Regulations.

Saturday night motorists and other drivers of vehicles had an opportunity to learn how the traffic regulations would work for the police took a position at the intersection of Queen and York streets and compelled all drivers to pass on the left on to turn the corners properly. After some instruction drivers appeared to understand what was required of them. The "silent policeman" ordered by the street department have not yet arrived.

The Crop Outlook.

The Dominion Cannery, Ltd., in a recent circular, state the recent heavy rains have made crop conditions most unfavorable in some districts while in others the outlook is good. East of Toronto the crops look better than west of that point. On the Niagara peninsula potato plants have been standing still and the outlook is not promising. In centre and western Ontario peas are doing well but corn is backward. Conditions are likely to improve the company thinks, with fine weather.
