

C. N. R. BOARD HAS RESIGNED

Toronto, Sept. 7.—Hon. J. D. Reid, Minister of Railways and Canals, is in Toronto today in connection with the Canadian Northern Railway matters. He stated that at the meeting of the directors today all the old board tendered their resignations with the exception of D. B. Hanna, A. J. Mitchell and C. A. Bell, who remain to form a quorum pending reorganization.

The resignation of the remaining directors, namely, Sir William Mackenzie, Sir Donald Mann, Z. A. Lash, W. K. George, W. J. Christie, R. J. Mackenzie, E. R. Wood and R. M. Horne Payne, were accepted.

Mr. Reid was not in a position to announce the composition of the new board to fill the vacancies, but stated the matter was receiving the attention of Sir Robert Borden and his colleagues. In the meantime, Mr. Hanna is in charge of operations until further

JUST LIKE HIS MOTHER

Speaking at a dinner Senator William H. Thompson of Kansas referred to the way in which children inherit the characteristics of their parents and told the following story as an example.

Recently an entertainment was given by the pupils of a public school. The fond mothers of nearly all the youngsters were assembled in the audience. Finally the boy orator of the occasion arose.

"Friends, Romans and countrymen," he began, in a loud voice, "lend me your ears."

"There!" whispered one of the fond mothers to the woman next her. "I knew it! Just like his mother!"

"Just like his mother," returned the other wonderingly.

"Yes," answered the first. "He's" Mary Jones's boy. He wouldn't be his mother's son if he didn't want to borrow something."

reorganization takes place. Mr. Reid is returning to Ottawa tonight.

IN THESE DAYS OF EASY MONEY

The war has brought to Canada immense financial prosperity in which practically all classes share. Many of the workers in the factory and the munition shop are receiving wages in excess of anything of which they had ever previously dreamed. There is ample work for all.

It is estimated that there are considerably over 200,000 people employed in the munition industry alone. It is quite a common thing for three and four members of one household to be engaged in munition making, and to be earning a total weekly pay-roll of an amount that would, in pre-war days have been deemed wholly incredible. Yet because war itself is wasteful, war-time prosperity is fleeting. It is prosperity that is not built on a sure and stable foundation such as is that prosperity which arises from industrial activity in peace-time. It is prosperity that may vanish even more suddenly than it arrived.

With the termination of the war

REPORT DISCREDITED.

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—Reports that class three under the Military Service Act is to be called out are generally discredited here. The question, the Canadian Press, Limited, is informed, has not even been discussed. Any further calls under the act would depend on the war situation and the supply of reinforcements.

there is bound to come a certain period of readjustment whether long or short, during which unemployment will probably assume dimensions of a very formidable kind. Unless all history's warnings are wrong we may be confronted by a time of very acute, and possibly prolonged, depression when the war is over. The need of the hour is for the individual citizen to save, Save, SAVE. The "free spender" of "easy money" made in war-time is not going the right way to enable himself to weather the storm in the straitened and strenuous days that may be coming sooner than he thinks. Thrift is at all times a virtue. To-day the lack of it, on the part of any one of us, is not merely a folly, but a crime.

Build up the Mighty National Force

FOR fifty years the Teuton peoples have been trained, disciplined, whipped, into servile cogs of an implacable military machine, by which is maintained the Prussian doctrine of might, and the Kaiser's autocracy. The Teutons deny themselves, they make sacrifices, because they are trained or forced to do so, but they do it.

The peoples of the Allied nations must make great sacrifices and tremendous efforts in order to defeat the enemies of freedom, but because they are free peoples it is left largely to the individual to say what or how much self-denial each will practice.

So if freedom is to prevail individuals must make voluntary sacrifices which in the aggregate will be greater than the forced sacrifices of the enemies of freedom.

The measure of your love of freedom is your willingness to deny yourself so that the strength of the nation for war effort will be increased.

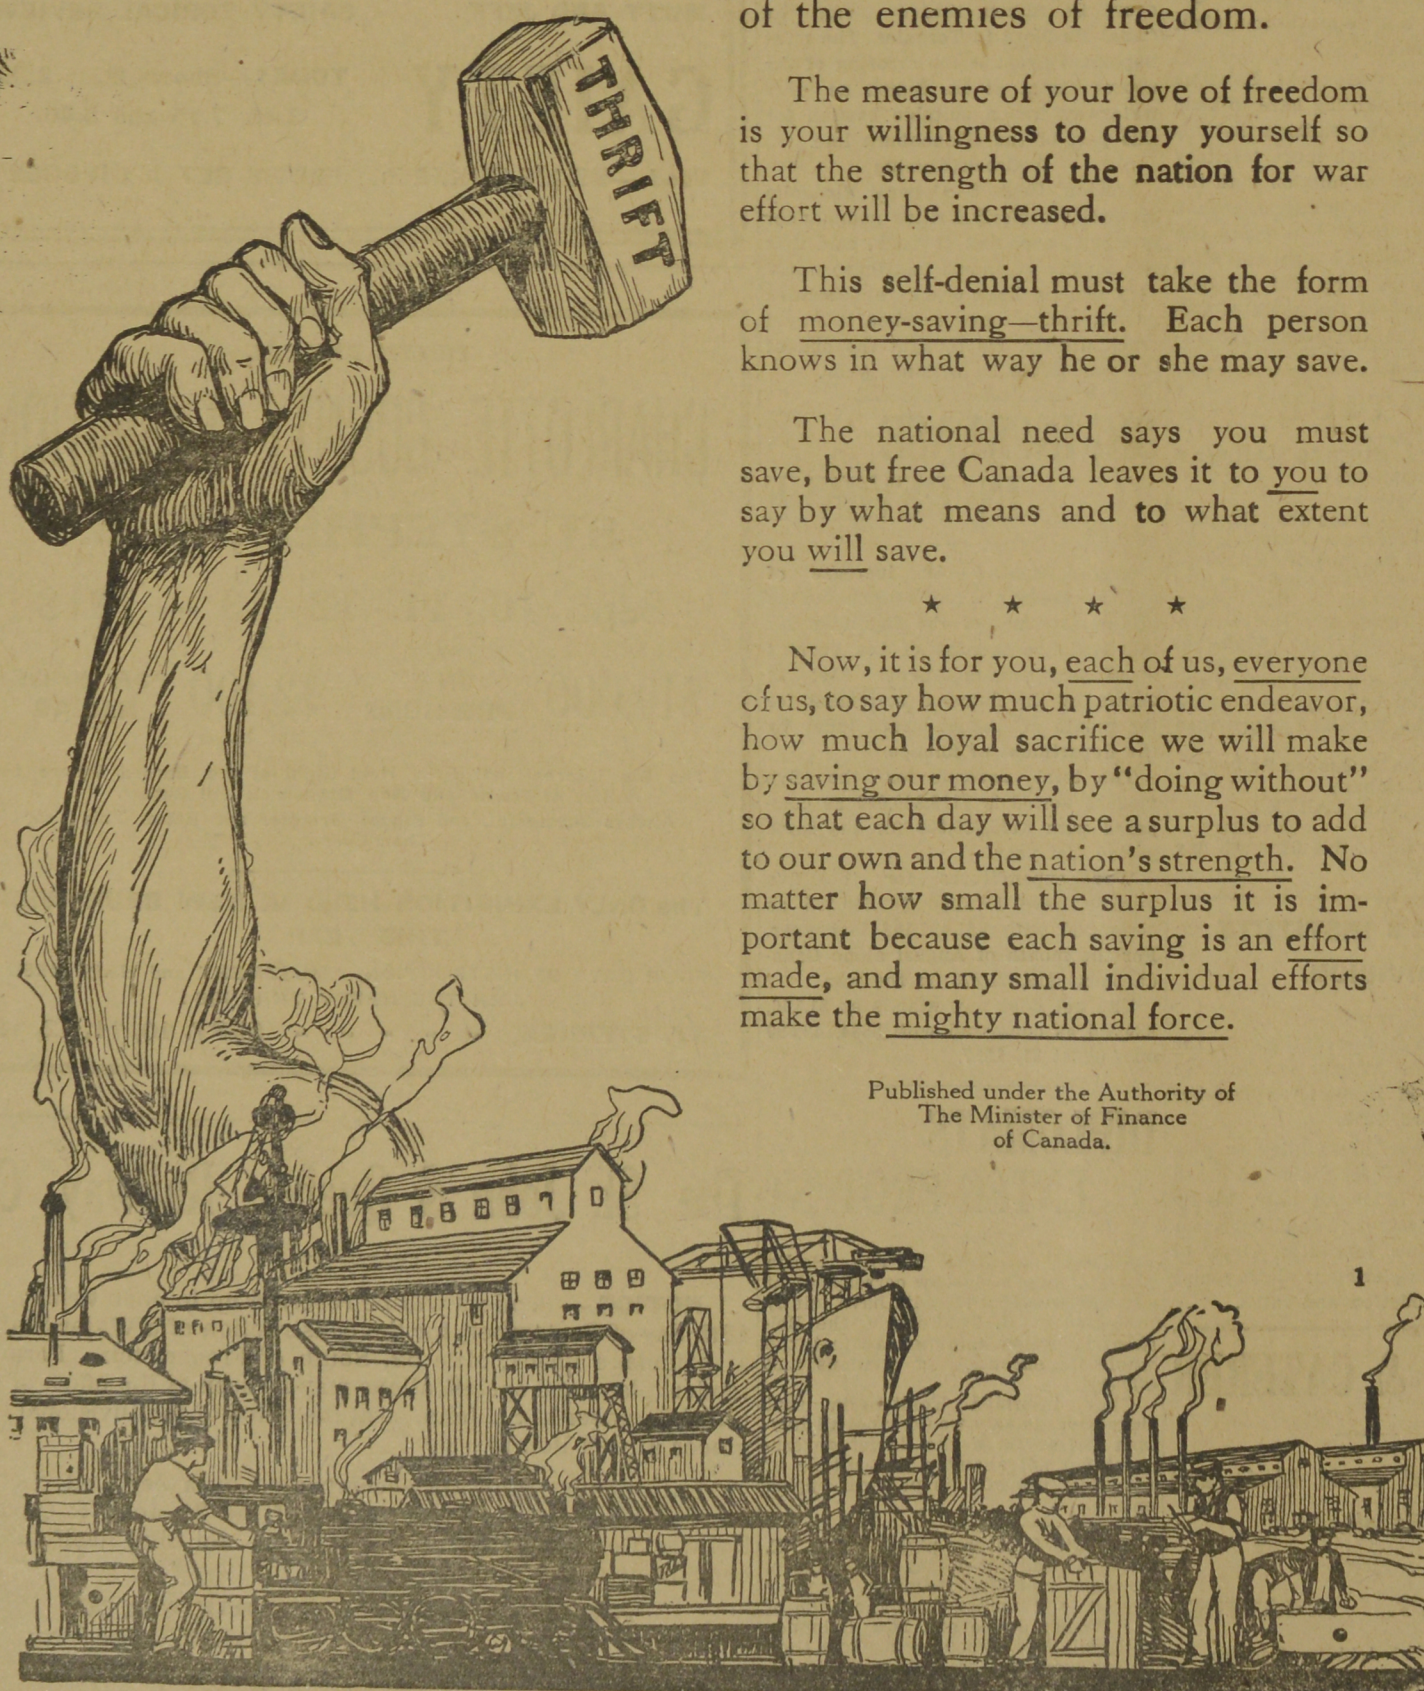

This self-denial must take the form of money-saving—thrift. Each person knows in what way he or she may save.

The national need says you must save, but free Canada leaves it to you to say by what means and to what extent you will save.

★ ★ ★ ★

Now, it is for you, each of us, everyone of us, to say how much patriotic endeavor, how much loyal sacrifice we will make by saving our money, by "doing without" so that each day will see a surplus to add to our own and the nation's strength. No matter how small the surplus it is important because each saving is an effort made, and many small individual efforts make the mighty national force.
