CANADIAN TROOPS HAVE CROSSED GERMAN FRONTIER

Inhabitants of Belgian Village Cheer the Boys as They Pass Through -- Prince Authur of Connaught Serving on General Currie's Staff -- Soldiers Cross the Frontier to the Tune of the Maple Leaf -- Men Made a Fine Appearance

(By J. F. B. Livesay, Canadian Press Correspondent.)

With the Canadian Corps in Germany, Dec. 4—The Canadian troops crossed the German border today, the First Canadian Division at Poteau and another Canadian division further south. It was raining and the rolling hills and forest of Ardennes, the home of the wild boar and stag, were swathed in mist.

At Poteau, a poor hamlet on the Belgian side of the frontier, a group of Belgians cheered and waved the only flag they possessed as our men passed by. Just across the frontier, which was otherwise unmarked, is a post, resembling, with its black and white stripings, a barber's pole. Beside this is the German customs house where still its uniformed official presides.

Sir Arthur Currie, commander of the Canadian Corps, who crossed the frontier unofficially yesterday, was accompanied by his staff including Prince Arthur of Connaught, who has returned to his duties with the Canadian Corps, and the general officer commanding our first division, with his staff.

The Canadian Light Horse furnished an escort and the infantry which was the first to pass the saluting point was the Third Battalion of Toronto, followed by the First Battalion of Western Ontario and the Fourth and Second Canadian Batteries. The corps commander, whose fine impressive figure is a rock of elemental strength and power took the salute exactly on the boundary line. The first men to pass him marched to the tune of the Maple Leaf. It was a wonderful sight, the outward and visible sign of victory, so hardly won after four years of battle. Those battalions swinging along in time, eager, confident, disciplined, had fought their way from Ypres to the Somme, from Vimy through Passchendaele, back to Amiens and then from Arras to Cambrai and Valenciennes to Mons.

The Same Conquering Spirit

They began their long march through the Belgian plain and thence had climbed steadily up and up over the height of land of the Ardennes patiently and cheerfully. They have suffered deprivation and discomfort but they bring with them the same conquering spirit that carried them through bitter years of trench warfare. A cleaner, finer lot of men were never seen. One's heart thrilled to see them go by, Canada triumphant upon her march to the Rhine. One sorrowed for that great army whose sacrifice had made this day possible, but who in spirit still march beside us.

The Canadian Engineers received instructions to lay out a defence line for the Canadians in front of our bridgeheads on the east bank of the Rhine. Some of our signallers who had penetrated deeper into German territory to take over the telegraphs and telephones reported an almost obsequious disposition on the part of the enemy to put every convenience at our disposal. Vigilance, however, will not be relaxed one minute. We are taking no chances as was shown today, when for the first time, infantry escorts accompanied the batteries.

In the self-same chateau occupied tonight by the Canadian Corps commander the German Crown Prince lay hid during the momentous days before the signing of the armistice. It was then that he was reported assassinated on the Dutch border and it was only after the armistice was signed that he left and made good his getaway into Holland.

POETIC JUSTICE

Germany began the war for plunder and ends it by begging for the crumbs from the Allies' table. Was ever there a more ideal exposition of poetic justice

Girls! Have Wavy, Thick, Glossy Hair, Free From Dandruff

A small bottle destroys dandruff and doubles beauty of your hair.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you see new hair fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

TAKING USKUB

"The Serbs have taken Uskub." News item.

Bully news, bub,
The Serbs have taken Uskub.

Hear the drums rub-a-dub
As they march on Uskub.

'Tis a notable feat;
See the Bulgars retreat.

No more living on herbs
For the hard-fighting Serbs.

They will live on good grub
In the tow not Uskub.

It sometimes happens that a woman loves her enemies because it gives her a chance to learn such horrid things about them.

When a girl dreams of marching up the white-ribboned aisle to the strains of Lohengrin, she feels sanctified—when a man thinks of it he feels petrified.
