SENATOR LODGE'S VIEWS.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge delivered a speech in the United States Senate last week which has deservedly attracted wide attention, in the course of which he set forth the only terms of peace which will satisfy the United States, following this by a warning as to the immense task before the nation and the necessity for turning a leaf ear to German peace propaganda, and to the "whimperings of pacifists at home." Peace, he said, must be a dictated peace, and the victory making such a peace possible "must be won finally and thoroughly inside, and not outside, the German frontier." Such a peace, he asserted, can be won nowhere else. These are the terms upon which Senator Lodge says the United States will insist, and short of which there can be no permanent security for civilization:

Belgium must be restored.
 Alsace and Lorraine must be returned unconditionally to France.
 All areas where the Italian race is predominant, including Trieste, must go back to Italy.
 Independence for Serbia and Roumania.
 Greece must be made secure.
 The great Slav population, now under Austria, must be established as independent states.
 The Polish people must have an independent Poland.
 Russian provinces taken by the Brest-Litovsk treaty must be restored to Russia.
 Turkey must be driven out of Europe and Constantinople must be placed in the hands of the Allied nations as a free port.
 Bulgaria and Turkey must share the fate of Germany.
 Palestine must not return to Turkish rule; the Christians of Asia Minor must be made safe.

Senator Lodge dismissed the arguments of those who favor a negotiated peace by saying they overlook the fact that this war is utterly different from any that the world has previously known. Because it is, the peace to come after it must be utterly different from any peace which has ever been agreed upon before. He declared unequivocally that the war must be carried across the enemy's frontier. He said:

"It cannot be a peace of bargain, of give and take and of arrangement. No peace that satisfies Germany in any degree can ever satisfy us. It cannot be a negotiated peace, and we and our Allies must dictate it. The victory bringing such a peace must be won inside, not outside, the German frontier. It must be won finally and thoroughly on German territory, and can be won nowhere else. In no other way can we secure the safety for which we are fighting. In no other way can we justify the sacrifices we are making. To this supreme end our efforts must be addressed. I do not underestimate the difficulties, I do not underestimate the obstacles to be overcome. But the difficulties and the obstacles must alike be crushed, set aside and overridden."

Kingston Whig: Government by order-in-council is not in accord with the democratic sentiment of this country. Sir Robert Borden's place is at home, where his leadership and inspiration might be of benefit to the nation in its hour of trial. Hon. Mr. Rowell could be better employed than in attempting to defend a defenceless cause. Canada today is sadly lacking in intelligent and forceful leadership, with half of the cabinet overseas and the rest of them asleep, the country is fast drifting into a dangerous situation.

"Big Bill" Heywood and fourteen of his aides in the I. W. W. have been sentenced to twenty years in the federal penitentiary by Judge Landis, of Chicago. They must also pay fines ranging from $20,000 to $5,000. Heywood and his aides were convicted of conspiracy to overturn the United States war programme.

Peronne, an important railway centre, was captured on Sunday by British and Australian troops. Over two thousand Germans were taken prisoners and a number of guns were also secured. Peronne is the last town on the Somme held by the Enemy.

Let us not forget, says the Toronto Globe, as we notice the heavy lists of Canadian casualties, that they were very light in the spring and early summer, when British lists were running as high as thirty-five thousand a week. Our part of the price of victory, large enough as it is, is not proportionately as that of the United Kingdom.

The date of Thanksgiving Day has not yet been fixed by the Dominion cabinet, but there is a likelihood of it being later in October than usual. Representations have been made in favor of the time between the Labor Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays being more equalized.

THROUGH OUR SIEVE

No September Marne for the Huns.
 Pants that have gone above the $6 mark are trousers.

Hinderburg may be alive, but he can't be greatly enjoying the privilege.

At this rate it won't be long before Foch is setting a watch on the Rhine.

September here—summer going—vacation gone—please pass the choke-cherries and cream.

Some of the leaves are making the serious mistake of not hanging on for Indian summer.

Knowing the tricks of the trade is not always the same thing as knowing the trade.

The repair man doesn't care how many of the books "How to Take Your Car Apart" are distributed.

Mrs. Verbal Scrambles says that distribution is bound to overtake sinners and that the snares one sets for others will come home to roost!

The German female may be even more deadly than the male, but they have found it necessary to chain her to the machine gun when they leave her to work it while they run away.

German military critics still insist that the German high command is leading the Allies on, like mice, into a trap. And indeed the clown prince has been admirable in the role of a piece of cheese.

EDDIE COLLINS RIGHT ON DECK

Eddie Collins has joined the navy. The great second baseman of the Chicago White Sox has announced his intentions. When the season closes he will don the navy blue.

Here passes probably the greatest second baseman of them all—at least the greatest "money player" of all. He has been a wonder, particularly in landing the coin. He has got his, so to speak, and will help his country now in the navy.

The idea of usefulness is growing apace. Everybody should look about and find a spot where he can help.

How about helping on the farm? The harvest is on and farm labor is mighty scarce.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Love of St. Stephen were at the Barker House yesterday. Senator G. G. King of Chipman was in the city on Saturday.

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT MARYSVILLE

Prohibition Cases Tried in the Police Court—A Penalty of Fifty Dollars Imposed.

Marysville, Sept. 3—A memorial service in honor of Pte. Milton E. Clegg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Clegg who was killed while fighting in France was held at the Anglican Church Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended. A mixed choir rendered several pleasing selections and a very impressive sermon was delivered.

The annual picnic of the Olivette Baptist Sunday School took place yesterday afternoon and evening. Ideal weather and a good crowd contributed to the splendid success of the affair. A very substantial amount was realized which will be devoted to church purposes.

Gr. Arthur Stephenson of the 9th Siege Battery at St. John was a visitor in town Saturday.

Mr. George F. Gailley has returned from a visit to Sussex and St. John.

Mrs. R. Pettigrove is recovering from her recent illness.

Mrs. L. Stockford of Woodstock is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Thomas McDowell arrived home last evening from a visit to points in Charlotte County.

A number of cases under the Prohibition Act were before Magistrate Clayton Saturday morning. The defendants were residents of Boiestown and Mr. Fraser Saunders was the complainant. In one case the offence was acknowledged and a fine of fifty dollars and costs imposed. In two other cases adjournment was made until Thursday next to permit of securing necessary witnesses. Mr. P. J. Hughes of Fredericton appeared for the prosecution and Mr. F. H. Peters of Fredericton for the defence.

Some attention on the part of the road commissioner to the condition of a sewer on Morrison Street would be appreciated by the residents of that section.

PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRIES.

Fredericton, August 31, 1918.

To the Editor of the Mail:
 I am interested to know whether all our merchants who are so prone to chastise the ladies for patronizing the mail order houses, are consistent. Do all these merchants, for instance, get their printing done in this city or do they go to some large establishment in Toronto or even some town in the States and get their envelopes, bill-heads, forms and stationery of various descriptions? Wouldn't it be grand if both parties were to patronize home industry all the time instead of sneaking an order to some firm away off with a high-sounding name and loudly-illustrated advertising? There no doubt is fault on both sides in this town. A change for the better is desirable, and nothing is easier to accomplish, but neither side must let the "other fellow" set the example; he and the "other fellow" must turn over a new leaf at the same moment. Yours for local progress,
 O. N. E.

One of these days we are going to start a drive for the relief of the sufferers from drives for war relief.

THREATENED WITH DROUGHT

The lack of rain in New Brunswick has begun to present a serious problem as drought even so late in the summer will do considerable damage. The grain harvest should be good if gathered in proper condition but potatoes and roots need more rain. Gardens also are suffering from lack of rain and many varieties of vegetables are drying up and dying on that account. Beans and cucumbers are notable examples.

The few scattered showers which have occurred during the last few days have practically no effect on the soil, what is needed is at least twenty-four hours' heavy rain. If that does not come the farmers will meet with heavy loss. Harvesting could easily be postponed a few days if the rain would come.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Allen have left for St. Stephen.
