KING DIDN'T LOOK REAL

King George has no fear of telling a story, even on himself. He told it to Edward Bok, editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, a few weeks ago.

The King has a great admiration for American soldiers Mr. Bok said, and never loses a chance to visit American camps. On one of these occasions the King approached a squad of soldiers and asked the customary questions as to their health, and so on.

As the King was turning away one American nudged his neighbor.

"Who's the 'bug'?" the soldier asked. "Sh! That's the King!" cautioned the other.

"The King of what?" the first soldier persisted.

"The King of England."

"King of nothin'!"

"Where the h—! is his crown?"

Commenting upon which to Mr. Bok, the King exclaimed: "How can one help liking the American soldier! He's quick on the trigger, and I don't mean his weapon either."

bearing our products.

The children of England, France, Italy and Belgium are laughing once more because they are being fed from Canada's bakeshop. We are in this scrap to the last dollar, the last grain of wheat, the last day.

We will never stop until Germany dips her dirty blood-stained rag to the Union Jack.

It is a whale of a job we've tackled but we can and must put it over. But you must help.

EXPERIENCES OF PRIVATE DANNY IN FRANCE

(Chicago News)

Today was a big one because we got in a great fine truck load of mail from home. Honest, nobody knows what mail means until he gets planted way off in some foreign place like France and then has to wait two or three weeks for each batch of letters.

A fello around us soldiers wouldn't even have to be told that a new mail had just come in. You can tell it by how happy everybody is. Then another sure fire sign is when everybody starts showing the new picture that they just got.

"Ain't she a peach," some Buddy will say pulling a kodak picture of some best dame of his back home.

"I should say she is—but just give this little peach the O. O." another cuts in. Then with two started the first thing you know you'll have a regular baby show.

Then after a while somebody will pull out the one of his sister's kid and tell what a wonderful white hope he is. Then maybe somebody else will show all three of his nephews standing on the porch back home. But a little later best girl's will pop back in, but it won't be long until some Buddy will show a picture of his mother.

Maybe it will be one where she is standing up by a tree in the front yard or maybe sitting in a hammock in a nice white dress. And right away from somewhere—the back of a watch, a pocket book, blouse pocket, some place where the real treasures are kept—every doughboy will pull out a picture of his mother. And he'll be proud of her and he'll tell his Buddies what an old dear she is and how she always stuck up for him and helped him and loved him, and how now he wants to show her that he isn't afraid and that he's ready to give everything he's got for the right, just like she'd want him to do.

Instead of having so many Orders of Sons of Warriors and Grandchildren of Veterans, etc., they ought to have a new one—and call it Mothers of Soldiers. Gee that would be a great order.

Don't whine. Don't knock. You can't saw wood with a hammer. Don't turn the hose on the fire; add fuel. Buy Bonds! Buy Bonds!!

HOW HALIFAX CELEBRATED THE VICTORY

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 11—With the booming of guns from the citadel, the ringing of the church and fire bells and the blowing of the whistles of scores of steamers in port, Halifax awakened this morning to find that the war was over, fifteen minutes after the news flashed over the Canadian Press wires at 4.54 Atlantic time. The streets were immediately thronged, with shouting crowds, hands made their appearance, impromptu parades formed, flags and all available bunting were brought out and the city went on fete. The street demonstrations are still continuing. The harbor is ablaze with colors, only the stolid and fantastically camouflaged ships of the navy which made victory possible exhibiting no outward sign that anything outside of the day's work had occurred.

An extraordinary issue of the Royal Gazette has been issued appointing tomorrow, Tuesday, a day of general thanksgiving and prayer throughout the province and inviting the people to repair to their various churches at noon for the purpose of rendering thanks to Almighty God for the blessings of peace.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF CANADA

UNITE TO HELP

VICTORY LOAN

BY

WAR MEMORIAL

ONE MILLION SCHOLARS! ONE MILLION DOLLARS!

A million Sunday school scholars and members of Young People's Associations of the Anglican, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist and Congregational churches are co-operating on a plan which has the three-fold purpose of helping to boost the Victory Loan over the top; assisting the churches to extend their mission work, and commemorating the heroism of church members who have fallen at the front.

"Every school at least one bond," is the cry that will help to carry the 1918 Victory Loan to the Sunday schools' million dollar objective. Above is a reproduction of the shield to be presented to each Sunday School subscribing a bond.

BREAKS A BAD COLD IN A JIFFY! TRY IT

You can end gripe and break up a severe cold either in head, chest, body or limbs, by taking a dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until three doses are taken. It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store.

BILLY SUNDAY TALKS ON THE VICTORY LOAN

Canada's Victory war chest needs filling again. We have the cash to fill it as many times as the lid is lifted. There are only two horns to this dilemma—you are either a patriot or a traitor.

The men on the firing line and on the battleships have turned from business, home, mother, wife, children, and they stand ready to give their lives and shield with their bodies us who remain at home.

We are unworthy to be thus protected if we do not do our utmost to sustain them.

We must be one in our determination to win this war. We are traitors to the cause for which they are giving their lives if we do things here that make their efforts harder.

Life is not worth living unless there is something to live for. Life would not be worth living if that bunch of Heines should win. That is why they cannot win. That is why we cannot lose.

What a mountain of crime God has on his books against that horde of Hellish Huns. What grave is deep enough for this thousand-armed, thousand-horned, thousand-fanged pirate of the air, assassin of the seas, despoiler of the earth and ambassador of Hell. The army and navy will dig the grave, but we must furnish the spade.

Our boys will soon hang crape on the door of the Potsdam palace and the bands will play "The Maple Leaf Forever" along the Rhine.

Canada is the cactus in the Kaiser's pillow.

Our boys have gone over to clean up on that fool bunch of Huns and it is up to us to supply them with what they need to finish the job. It takes money to keep the riveters riveting, the sawyers sawing, the machine guns spitting bullets and the grub wagon always on hand with the eats. There is nothing too good for our brave defenders.

Our vocabulary contains no words adequate to express our approval of the achievements of our armies since we threw our hat in the ring. We are rich on top of the ground; we are rich under the ground, and our rivers creep like silver serpents to the seas,

More than one way to save the Wheat Make every atom work

A soggy biscuit or a half baked cake is a slacker. It is indigestible and half the good grain in it is lost by faulty cooking.

It isn't how much you eat, but how much you digest that counts.

Grape-Nuts

is a fine example of nourishment efficiency.

Baking and re-baking—twenty hours of it, under exact conditions of heat—make Grape-Nuts a really wonderful food in efficiency and economy

Its flavor is delicious and EVERY ATOM WORKS
