MOVEMENT TO CURTAIL SALARIES OF MOVIE STARS

(Chicago News.)

Possibly you have noticed an occasional jar in the recent acting of the bigger film stars. Their lips have been framing words unrelated to the events in which they were participating, and their visages, on such occasions, have been bearing scowls where smiles were in the scenario.

The writer has investigated, and the secret it out. The silent mutterings have to do with stars' salaries. They are condemning a movement said to be afoot for curbing vast contracts, for they need the money.

It is asserted that most of the money in the business goes to a few high priced players; that Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin and William S. Hart together take more than $2,350,000 from the motion picture business, while many lesser lights receive weekly stipends ranging from $1,000 to $6,000 each.

Fairbanks' Shadow Interviewed.
"I couldn't possibly get along on less," commented Fairbanks' film presence between silent stunts at the Castle theatre. He was struggling with numerous enemies who stood between him and the throne of Vulgaria in his play, "Reaching for the Moon."

"With the price of turkey up to 43 cents eggs costing 63 cents a dozen—pardon me a moment." He executed a flying leap from a first story window into a lagoon and promptly swam ashore. Then he scaled the wall of a building to the roof, dashed across to an adjoining house and crashed through a skylight.

"What was I saying?" he resumed. "Something about the high cost of food."

"Don't I earn the $10,000 a week they pay me?" he almost sobbed. "Look at the stunts I do."

Mary Almost "Fades Out."
Mary Pickford's film presence in "The Little Princess" was found at an outlying theatre. The news almost made her "fade out."

"What?" she exclaimed. "They can't do it. They won't do it. I have my mother to support and I need every cent I earn. Is Mr. Zukor behind this?" She almost shrieked the last.

"I don't know why they begrudge me my modest income," Miss Pickford continued calmly. "Frankly, it's not much over a million a year and I'm entitled to it. I've worked hard and I am the oldest star in experience in pictures."

Then she chuckled:
"I've just renewed my contract with Mr. Zukor. I guess that will tide me over a while longer, anyway."

Chaplin's Presence Laughs.
Mr. Chaplin was then seen flitting across the screen on one leg at a nearby house.

"Iskabibble and I should worry," was his response as he flipped his lighted cigarette over his shoulder and kicked it with his heel. He was the only one of the players who laughed at the impending gloom.

"I felt for a long time that it could not last," he snickered, "so I put my money away in safe securities. I've got every dollar of the $670,000 I

And the missus, ever knitting,
Never fitting, ever sitting,
Knits such things as mortal never saw before;
And no word she ever utters,
Sits and knits and nods and mutters,
Till househusband starts and stutters,
Flings himself from out the door.
Does he come back? Evermore!

IS IMPROVING

(Canadian Press direct wire.)

Sound Advice

THE best information obtainable at present indicates plentiful supplies of raw sugar for the year 1918, and, PROVIDED THAT SHIPS ARE AVAILABLE to transport the raw sugar, everybody should be able to obtain a reasonable supply.

This is a great big "IF" however, to overcome, and therefore it would be safer for consumers and dealers to make plans only for eighty to ninety per cent of last year's consumption.

It will be well on in February before any large supplies of raw sugar reach Canada, and in the meantime the supply will be limited owing to the small stocks on hand.

During 1917 this Company has operated its Refinery continuously, the only interruption being two days at Christmas time. We believe this record has not been equalled by any refinery in the United States or Canada.

During the whole year it has been our constant aim to keep the Canadian public supplied with "LANTIC PURE CANE SUGAR" at reasonable prices.

In order to accomplish this extraordinary feat in view of the actual sugar shortage that occurred, we were obliged at different periods, to purchase raw sugar at highest prices when such action was most unprofitable.

During 1918 we will continue our Advertising Campaign of our celebrated "LANTIC SUGAR" and, in addition, will make a feature of our Old-Fashioned Brown Sugars, known to the trade as soft or yellow sugars.

These sugars are available in three different grades, under the names of

Lantic
Sugar

Light Yellow
Brilliant Yellow
Dark Yellow

Such sugars as these have a pronounced flavour all their own that adds richness to everything for which they are used.

Try "LANTIC OLD FASHIONED BROWN SUGAR" for Cooking and Cereals and on homemade bread for the kiddies. Its rich deliciousness and melting goodness will induce you to USE IT DAILY.

For sale by all first class grocery stores in any quantity. The Red Ball Trade Mark appears on each 100 lb. bag and your grocer will be very glad to show you that the sugar you are getting is out of a "LANTIC" bag.

We thank our friends, the people of Canada, for their generous approval of the quality of our Products and the liberal share of their patronage given us during the three years of our existence.

We assure them that in the future the same high standard of quality will be maintained so that our Red Ball Trade Mark will always be recognized as the "SEAL OF PURITY".
