BOY ENJOYED HIMSELF ON THE FARM

(Chicago News)

"Yes, I think he's having a good time," admitted the woman whose young son is spending a few vacation weeks on a Michigan farm. "I can't say about the farm. Maybe there isn't much of it left by this time—he seems to have used it all up."

She drew a packet of letters from her knitting bag and the others in the party settled down to listen.

"Dear mother," ran the first, "Oh gee! mother, I am having the time of my life, fun, oh gee."

"We all go to bed at 11 or half past and get up at 5 in the morning because we could not sleep and I only slept five hours. We collected the eggs at half past 10 last night and we jump off a great big high beam into the hay and it is about ten yards high too. My ankle don't hurt very much now but I haven't sprained it since the first jump so maybe its getting well. I am having a great time mother, and don't worry about me because I will take good care of myself. "PAUL."

"Dear mother: "I have a cold and want you to send that medicine and tell Mrs. Swift to send Jack as quick as they can and remember that is orders for Mrs. Swift. And for gosh sakes, write me a letter not because I am homesick but because I want to know how you and father are."

"We went frog hunting yesterday and caught fifteen fat round frogs and ate them for dinner and I got my feet wet and my throat tickles. Gee mother you would love it up here, every morning we drive the cattle down to the pasture and sometimes the other kids can milk the cows and I know how to now and it is lots of fun when they don't kick you and in the evening we take the horses to their drinking pond to take a drink and then after dinner we go fetch the sheep all together and then count them and see if they are all there and then we drive them to a certain place in the pasture and we have geese and as I am writing I can hear them quacking away and eating at the same time."

"We all walk about ten miles in a day and yesterday we walked fifteen miles and we go turtle hunting and that is fun. And most interesting we also have bees and one house of bees swarmed and then they all went up in a tree to wait for their queen and then we caught the queen and most of us got stung eight or eleven times. Good-by. PAUL."

"Dear mother: "In one or two weeks I am coming home because nobody will be here. I am perfectly delighted with the peanuts and the searchlight you sent me. I do not need the rubbers because I have a pair of wooden shoes, it is wet in the morning till 10 o'clock and that is when I wear them, it rains very much up here but they are all short rains."

"I have two jobs up here, by pulling wood with a horse and turning and stacking the hay, and I excepted both jobs for a dollar a week. We went to Saugatuck yesterday in a wagon and Billy drove going and I drove coming back which is ten miles and we climb up the Michigan sand dunes and I never thought the world was so wonderful before and so beautiful for we were up very high and could almost see across Lake Michigan and we ran down it too, it was a mile high and I took two spills and I almost broke my neck and got full of sand. Gee, I wish you could come up here. Try as hard as you can for it sure is God's country up here any you know how beautiful that is. FROM PAUL."

"Dear mother: "I am not at all homesick but I expect to go home next week and you come over and go back with me because Billy isn't going and I don't want to go home alone. I can't sleep at night on account of my throat tickling so you see I have been having a hard time this week and besides there has been no fun since Junow went so why shouldn't I come home. I think I will be home next Monday. My cold is better and please send me a fifty cent box of candy including mostly dip caramels and when you write me write a letter, not a line of words about a half a page long for I like to hear from you and say, I had a fine chance to buy a gun, a twenty-two for two bucks and I refused it because I knew you did not want me to have a gun, but when I am fifteen I am going to buy one even if I have to smuggle it. I hope you do not show my letters to anybody but yourself and father for if I find out you are showing it to anybody else I won't write any more. Maybe I won't come home Monday after all. PAUL."

"And if you ever tell on me," said his mother, as she put back the letters "my own son will cast me off, you see! He's still over there and we can't tear him away!"

BREAKS A BAD COLD IN A JIFFY! TRY IT

You can end gripe and break up a severe cold either in head, chest, body or limbs, by taking a dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until three doses are taken. It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store.

Secretary Franklin K. Lane was commenting the other day on the latest German peace proposals and advising us not to place any faith in their words.

"Because the Germans are cornered it doesn't follow that they're square," he said.

Stepping on the gas becomes once more a popular Sunday pastime.

HAD TO DO IT

In a case of breach of promise the defendant was allowed to say a word on his own behalf.

"Yes," he said. "I kissed her almost continually every evening I called at her house."

Counsel for the plaintiff was pleased. "Then you confess it?" he said.

"Yes, I do confess it. But I had to do it."

"You had to do it? What do you mean?"

"That was the only way I could keep her from singing!"

Wild geese flying south under their own power seem to the motorist to honk with a peculiar taunting note this year. They have no gasless days.

Speaking of the days of real sport, who is so happy as a three-year-old kid that has got hold of a bottle of muckilage—or who so stuck on himself?

If a man is reckless in spending money when other women are present it has the effect that she decides not to be so economical in future.

INSINUATING WHAT?

"My husband considered a very long time before he proposed to me. He was very careful."

"Ah, it's always those careful people who get taken in."

Commenting on the many and varied excuses offered for evading the draft, Provost Marshal General Crowder remarked that most of the would-be slackers come to grief through talking too much.

"They remind me of the young fellow who, on the spur of the moment asked a girl to marry him."

"Yes, replied the girl."

"After waiting for five minutes for him to say something more, she said:

"Well, what have you got to say?"

"Nothing," replied the young man:

"I've said too much already."

Want to find the nearest drug store?

Alas, why is it that a man can't seem to take his wife and his vacation on the same trip nowadays?

What are Canada's Victory Bonds

ANADA'S Victory Bonds are the solemn promise of the Dominion of Canada to the holders that Canada will repay, at the time stipulated in the bonds, their full face value in money, and will pay interest at the rate stated in the bonds, every six months.

As a financial investment Canada's Victory Bonds are in the first rank of the world's investments because:

- the security of the principal and interest is certain as anything human can be, being nothing less than the entire assets of Canada, the pledged honor of the people of Canada and all the assets of all the people of Canada,
- they are the most "liquid" form of investment; they can be promptly turned into cash at any time,
- they bear interest which, if saved and compounded, at ordinary bank interest rates would double the amount of the original investment in about fourteen years.

They are also free from Dominion taxation, present or future.

FOR the investment of estate funds, trust funds, sinking funds and all other funds which by law or other necessity must be invested in unquestioned securities, Canada's Victory Bonds are the premier investment.

Executors, trustees, municipalities and public service corporations and all others with trust or sinking funds to invest, can render to Canada valuable patriotic service by investing their funds in Canada's Victory Bonds.

AND because of the high rate of interest they bear, coupled with their supreme security, there is every reason to expect that Canada's Victory Bonds 1918 will increase in value, when peace is declared—already in the open market Victory Bonds 1917 are quoted at an increase over the issue price.

BUT Canada's Victory Bonds are much more than merely a sound money investment; they are Canada's renewed pledge to fight the war to a finish, till victory is with the Allies and lasting peace is secured to the world.

Every one of Canada's Victory Bonds bought by you is a new assurance to every Canadian soldier that Canada stands behind him ready to send him food and munitions, and to care for those he has left in Canada.

Canada's Victory Bonds guarantee that Canada will keep on producing the food, the munitions and machines to bring victory to the Canadian soldiers in France, and that Canada will keep the home fires burning for their loved ones while they are fighting for our freedom.

SO when you buy Canada's Victory Bonds you help Canada finance the war,—you help to maintain the production of food, munitions and supplies which our soldiers must have.

—and the money paid for these products helps to maintain business and industrial conditions by which the productive efficiency of Canada can be kept at high pressure.

Your investment in Canada's Victory Bonds will be a link in the complete chain of helping our soldiers, helping the country, and thereby also helping yourself.

Investment in Canada's Victory Bonds is sound business patriotism
