

Seed Grain, 1918

Good Seed is scarce. Place your order now with your County Councillor. The Department of Agriculture has ordered wheat and oats through the Seed Branch, Ottawa. The germination is carefully tested.

The Seed is now stored in the elevators at Quebec, thus avoiding transportation difficulties and guaranteeing delivery.

The Department requested the co-operation of the County Councils in the distribution. Seed will be forwarded at their order in car lots, thus avoiding local freights and much handling.

Wheat will cost about $3.00 per bu. shel in bags laid down.

The Seed Branch is yet unable to fix the price on oats. Definite prices will be stated in this space immediately they are at hand.

New Brunswick is expected to bread herself for the duration of the war. Every farmer should grow some wheat.

Agricultural Societies should arrange orders early. Send all orders to the County Councillors immediately.

GREAT VALUE OF A CALM EXTERIOR

(Chicago News.)

"The lady next door is the very acme of good nature," observed the landlady's daughter.

"Well, it pays to be good natured," declared the pretty teacher. "Things always go smoothly when people are calm and collected."

"Squally weather sours the cream and curdles the milk," agreed the professor, "while prolonged fair weather keeps it sweet."

"I have noticed," continued the pretty teacher, "that a person of calm demeanor can keep everything around him calm. Take, for instance, hair. The tresses will never go awry if one can keep cool and collected. The hair under such circumstances lies smooth and neat."

"But just as soon as you become irritated and cranky and cross your hair takes on the same disposition. It flies off at a tangent in all directions; it stands on end; it crackles and bristles and is generally defiant."

WEEPING ECZEMA SOON RELIEVED

A Perfect Treatment For This Distressing Complaint

WASING, ONT.

"I had an attack of Weeping Eczema; so bad that my clothes would be wet through at times."

For four months, I suffered terribly. I could get no relief until I tried 'Fruit-a-tives' and 'Sootha Salva'. The first treatment gave me relief.

Altogether, I have used three boxes of 'Sootha Salva' and two of 'Fruit-a-tives', and am entirely well."

G. W. HALL.

Both these sterling remedies are sold by dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

"Fruit-a-tives" is also put up in a trial size which sells for 25c.

"But how can a fellow help getting mad at his hair?" responded the red headed boarder, plaintively. "My hair and I have a fight and a falling out every time I take a comb and brush in hand, and the first thing I know I am swearing and swatting—"

"Tut, tut!" ejaculated the professor. "Profanity has positively no influence on hair."

"It isn't just hair that acts that way," broke in the dressy boarder. "It is everything—shirts, collars and collar buttons are the same."

"Too true!" said the landlady. "When you allow a cross expression to appear on your face every garment you wear looks the same, every single ribbon, bowknot, ringlet, button, buttonhole—why, even the very feather on top of your hat will stick out in an ugly and defiant angle. I can tell when a woman is cross by the angle of any one of her garments. When Mrs. Jellybean says, 'I'll not work under anybody!' her hat always rears up and rampages around worse than she does herself."

"Garments are more than merely cranky looking," added the dressy boarder. "They are cranky acting. When a fellow is dressing in a hurry and gets mad and loses his doggone temper, as of course he does, then the collar buttons roll under the be—"

And every button and every hook and eye and shoe lace and pin and fastener seizes the opportunity to join in the chorus of the Hymn of Hate," added the landlady.

GEMS OF POETRY

TODAY.

Be swift to love your own, dears.
Your own, who need you so;
Say to the speeding hours, dears,
"I will not let you go,
Except thou give a blessing";
Force it to bide and stay.
Love has no sure tomorrow,
It only has today.

Swifter than sun and shade, dears,
Move the fleet wings of pain;
The chance we have today, dears,
May never come again.
Joy is a fickle rover,
He brooketh no delay.
Love has no sure tomorrow,
It only has today.

No Dipping, No Scrubbing

WHEN YOU USE SANI-FLUSH REGULARLY.

Just sprinkle a little in the bowl each morning and a hitherto odious task is made easy. The result is a clean, white, sanitary Closet. SANI-FLUSH is patented, nothing else like it. It's meant to clean toilet bowls and it does it thoroughly. Should be used in residences, stores, business offices, hotels, factories and wherever closets are installed.

It does not injure the plum bing.
