MUCH INTEREST TAKEN IN CLOSING OF CITY SCHOOLS

Public Examination Held This Morning And Attracted Many Visitors--Interest- ing Exercises Carried Out by the Pupils ---Certificates Were Presented by Mem- bers of the Trustee Board

The public schools of the province closed today and the exercises at the schools in the city were largely attended. The usual great public interest in the exercises was manifested and all departments this morning had their quotas of visitors. In many departments the time of the session which began at ten o'clock, was devoted to a review of the ordinary work of the term. In others special programs were followed out. The schools which have assembly halls held combined exercises which were of great interest and were largely attended.

The chief item of interest in all departments was the presentation of certificates and prizes in the schools in which prizes are given. Members of the School Board and Secretary Sampson distributed the certificates in the city schools. At the Model School the presentation was made by Mr. J. J. Weddall, at the Regent Street School by Mrs. Philip Cox, at the Charlotte Street School by Mrs. W. G. Clark, at the York Street School by Secretary C. A. Sampson and at the Smythe Street School by Mr. J. W. Spurden.

Burke—Cuzzolino

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at Sacred Heart church, Sydney, N.S., on Wednesday morning, when Miss Mary Teresa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cuzzolino who frequently has visited Fredericton, became the bride of Dr. John A. Burke, son of Patrick Burke of St. John's, Newfoundland. Miss Cuzzolino entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march. She wore the regulation wedding dress of white satin with veil of point lace and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of brides roses and lillies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Dorothy was maid of honor and wore a costume of pale pink satin with hat of ninon trimmed with daisies in the same shade and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Regina, acted as bridesmaid, and wore a costume of pale blue satin with hat of ninon trimmed with daisies in the same shade and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Private Leonard Burke, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen.

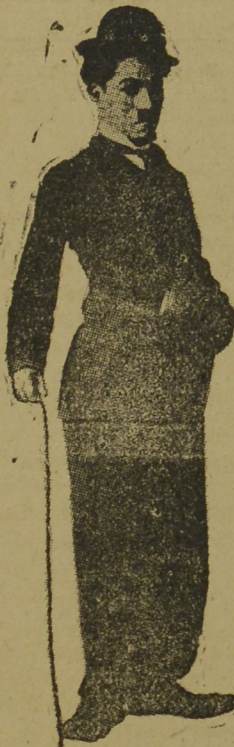

The ceremony was performed during nuptial high mass by the Right Rev. Bishop Power of St. George's, Newfoundland, assisted by the Rev. Fr. MacAdam of Sacred Heart and the Rev. Michael MacAdam of Antigonish. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the
