demand and enforce the reparation due to the countries ravaged by the German armies and ensured the peace for which the world longs for. If I read aright the sentiment of Canadians they do not so greatly desire peace as wish to conclude it before the Kaiser and his creatures are placed beyond the possibility of beginning anew the deadly game they have so successfully played in the past three years.

"The price paid so far in blood and sacrifice is too precious and costly to be satisfied with an inconclusive result. The Hun has not promised or made restitution, he has not yet shown the least sign of repentance. The Kaiser is yet acclaimed as the supreme war lord and his spirit so far as can be seen still dominates the people. There is no hope for peace until this is changed. The war should go on until the desired change is wrought. Nor can one well see how the propositions discussed by President Wilson can be successfully realized unless under the compelling force of an unconditional surrender."

MIDDLE HAINEVILLE

Middle Hainesville, Oct. 14—The past week has been very bright and warm. The farmers have taken the advantage of the fine weather for finishing up getting in their grain and digging potatoes.

The concert given in the Church last Wednesday night was a decided success. Much credit is due Mrs. Van Etten for the painstaking manner in which she instructed the children and young ladies who took part in the concert.

Mr. Duncan Nason who went West a few weeks ago, has many friends here who will miss him very much.

Our school closed on Friday. The teacher Miss Price went to her home. The church is also closed for a time in fear of the Spanish "Flu," however at this writing all the inhabitants are in good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Darius Jewett spent Sunday in this place, coming by auto.

Mrs. Arthur Stevens and children who were visiting Mrs. Ed. Whitehead left for home on Saturday morning's train.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Morgan, Mrs. Melzar Staples and Mrs. Emma Hull motored to Fredericton on Saturday.

Mr. L. W. Nason and Mr. Roy Johnston also went to Fredericton on Saturday by auto.

Mr. Dow Price had the misfortune to break a bone in his ankle a few days ago.

Miss Lelia Ingraham is spending a few weeks with her sister Mrs. William Reynolds.

Colds are the order of the day.

IT WAS UNSOLDIERLIKE.

A German major in the medical corps, taken prisoner, was asked by someone whether he thought the Americans were good soldiers.

"I don't know," he replied. "I saw only one during the battle, and he was most unsoldierlike. I was in a dugout with forty men when the bombardment started. After the firing stopped I came up to the entrance.

"An American soldier was standing there. He did not look military at all. His steel helmet was on the back of his head. He didn't have any coat on. Even his shirt front was unbuttoned. He had a grenade in either hand. When he saw me he whirled around and said:

"Come up out of that hole, you dirty Dutch pretender, or I'll spill a whole basketful of these things down into your cellar!"

"It was almost unsoldierlike."

Now if the weather man will please have foresight enough not to keep his thermometer in an exposed situation!

THE BRITISH LOSSES THIS YEAR ARE REPORTED AS ABOUT 700,000

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—British casualties during the first thirty-nine weeks of 1918 aggregated 700,000, according to a cablegram received by the British Bureau of Information here today. This does not include losses in the heavy fighting of the last two weeks.

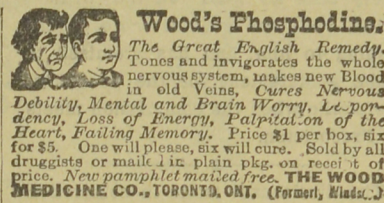

The message stated that during the period between Jan. 1st and Oct. 1st the lowest casualty list for any single week was 4,126, and the highest over 40,000.

GOOD WORK ACCOMPLISHED BY RED CROSS

Three important publications from a Red Cross standpoint have been issued from the Central Headquarters, 56 Church Street Toronto, within the past few weeks. These are the Annual Report of the Society for the year 1917, a pamphlet entitled "What the Canadian Red Cross Society is doing in the Great War", and the War Work, or official instruction book for Red Cross workers for the coming winter. These publications are being distributed throughout the various provincial and district branches.

The Annual Report is extremely late in making its appearance owing to the direct effect of war as the financial statement of the Society in England was twice lost at sea. The work of the Society in all its departments is recorded, also an outline of the financial statement and personnel of each of the provincial organizations. It is interesting to note that the administrative expenses of the Central Society for the year, amounting to $29,649 are offset by interest which accrued from deposits and profit on exchange to the sum of $23,315.

The pamphlet dealing with the part of the Red Cross in the present great struggle is a terse yet complete outline of the beginning, organization and work of the Canadian Red Cross. The title page carries a cut of the President of the Society, Her Excellency, the Duchess of Devonshire, together with a facsimile statement from Her Excellency's pen, asking for a continuance of the support which has been so generously accorded. This little book should appeal to a busy person who wishes in a short time to become acquainted with the scope of the Society's efforts.

The War Work brings the official needs of the Society to date, so that there need be no ground for doubt in the mind of the worker who provides herself with this latest edition.

Any or all of these publications can be obtained from the nearest provincial headquarters or from the Publicity Department of the Central Society, 56 Church Street, Toronto.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT!

STOP DANDRUFF AND BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Hair stops falling out and gets thick, wavy, strong and beautiful.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

SAILOR LOST OVERBOARD

Quebec, Oct. 15.—Elzear Pichette, a sailor on the steam barge Tremblay, outward bound to Gaspé, disappeared from the vessel on Saturday afternoon as she was passing Crane Island. He has not been seen since and it is reported he was drowned.

AS USUAL.

A divorce scandal was being discussed. "Poor Smith," a banker sighed. "To fall at the age of 69! He'd climbed to the very top of the moral ladder, too. In fact he was a Sunday school superintendent. How strange that at 69 Smith should fall from the ladder's top!"

"But wasn't there a woman at the bottom of it?" asked Reading.
