THE NEAR EAST FURNISHES MOST SENSATIONAL NEWS

The Offensive Launched There the Most Pretentious in Several Months---Bulgarians Have Been Forced to Retire---Lull in the Fighting on the Western Front---Huns Burning Villages Along Mozelle

New York, Sept. 17—The Associated Press tonight issues the following: There are indications that the Germans intend to retire behind the Hindenburg line in this sector. They are burning villages along the Moselle and in other sections. This procedure usually is a preliminary to a retreat. Another victory has been recorded for the British, American and French on the newly constituted eastern front. Detachments of the Allies have routed Bolshevik forces in the vicinity of Archangel and it is reported many of the Red Guard officers went over to the Allies when their men fled.

The Near East furnished the most sensational news of the day, however. The offensive which has been launched there seems not only the most successful but the most pretentious in many months. It appears probable that a further advance by the Franco-Serbian troops will necessitate the recall of the Bulgarian divisions which have been loaned to Emperor William to bolster the Teutonic resistance in France and Flanders.

An official Serbian report declares that the reconstituted army of the battered, but not beaten, little kingdom has taken not only 3000 prisoners but an important park of cannon. The Bulgars admit having retired but declare the attack has been checked to the north of Gradeshitsa. There is nothing to indicate however that the advance of the Serbs and French has been definitely held up.

Expect Heavy Blows
The lull in the fighting in the west is regarded by military critics as merely the prelude of further heavy blows at the foe by the British, American and French forces.

The British advanced their lines slightly at several points. They are making steady progress in the investment of St. Quentin under favorable conditions.

General Petain's veterans are forging ahead slowly but surely in their grim and desperate struggle for the St. Gobain Forest which the Germans have been ordered to hold at all costs. Not only is the position a natural citadel but the Teutons have fortified it in every way their ingenuity could devise. Notwithstanding the difficulty of their task, however, the French are moving on, taking prisoners as they go.

On the American front the past twenty-four hours have been the quietest since General Pershing's command launched its irresistible paid for his work, and he takes pleasure in his joy rides in his automobile over the beautiful country at the end of a hard day's work. The automobile to the farmer, is one of the 20th century blessings. It brings him into direct touch with the outside world, his nearest town; gives him rest and recreation, and keeps his boy happy and contented on the farm.

Third—The people everywhere are most enthusiastic and loyal in regard to the great war. Homes everywhere one goes are sad, and the vacant chair stands there, but courage and devotion and a great patriotism exist. New Brunswick has done and is doing its part most loyally in the great world struggle.

Fourth—Two of New Brunswick's towns greatly impressed Mr. Perry. Moncton is a bustling, bustling western town. The city fathers have spent sums of money on paved streets. Buildings are going up in every part of the city. Moncton is a progressive city. Minto is one of the most interesting spots in New Brunswick's map. One stands in the very midst of a British Columbia mining town.

Mr. Perry returns to his work in Winnipeg after one of the most pleasant summers in his native province.

The story of "THOSE WHO PAY" is one of the most gripping narratives ever presented in the silent drama—telling of a girl alone in the world save for her little sister, and little sister was ill and longed for a doll for Christmas. Big Sister had no money, but she stole one, and three persons paid a heavy price for the tiny toy.

BETTER THAN PHYSIQUE TO LLOYD GEORGE

London, Sept. 18—In reply to a message sent by premier Lloyd George to General Pershing, congratulating him on the American victory on Le Havre, in which the premier, who received the news on his sick bed, declared it was better and infinitely more palatable than any physio, the American commander has sent the following telegram:

"Your congratulations are deeply appreciated. It shall be the endeavor of the American army to supply you with occasional doses of the same sort of medicine as needed from now until the final victory has been attained. I trust this will find you fully recovered from your illness."
