THE KAISER'S SYMPATHY

Paris, Aug. 2.—A letter written by the Kaiser to a woman who lost nine sons for Germany is now going the round of the European press. It is particularly interesting to Americans because of the sharp contrast to the famous letter of President Lincoln to Mrs. Bixby. The Kaiser's letter is as follows:

The Kaiser is "gratified" and sends his photograph. Lincoln was grieved, but as I recall Lincoln's letter, it did not occur to him that his picture would relieve the desolation of Mrs. Bixby. The Kaiser's letter is as follows:

"His Majesty, the Kaiser, hears you have sacrificed nine sons in the defense of the Fatherland in the present war. His majesty is immensely gratified at this fact, and in recognition is pleased to send you his photograph with a frame and autograph signature."

Frau Meter, who received the letter has now joined the street beggars in Delmenhorst, Oldenburg, to get a living.

THINKS TURNING POINT IN WAR HAS BEEN REACHED

Crushing in the German lines north of the Ourcq river, the Allies on Thursday carried their front to the northwest from their former positions between Hartennes and Fere-En-Tardenois.

The exact location of the new line is not given in the early despatches from the battlefield, but it is said that the Allies have established themselves on the high ridges between the Ourcq and the Aisne and along the whole eastern section of the battle area.

The attacks were made over a front of about five miles and penetrated to an extreme depth of three miles from the former line. It was reported Thursday night that the Allies are within five miles of Bazoches an important German railroad centre on the Vesle river, which agrees quite closely with this morning's report of the advances to the northeast of Beauneux, the approximate centre of the line of attack on Thursday.

Goussancourt Taken

In the centre of the line important progress is shown in reports of the front Goussancourt has been captured and the northern edges of Meunier Wood has been cleared of the Germans. This marks an advance of a mile and three quarters. Nothing is said of the fate of the Germans at St. Gamme at the tip of the salient, but it is to be assumed that they have retreated from their perilous position.

Further toward Rheims, the important town of Ville En Tardenois has been circled by the Allies, it is reported. The despatches would seem to indicate that the German defenders of the place have been surrounded by the Allied advances. Advances reaching London state that the success of the Allies on the western side of the line is the most important accomplishment since the German retreat from the Marne began. The view taken in the despatches is that the advance on Thursday was the turning point of the campaign and possibly of the whole war.

While the detailed reports so far received in this country so far have not shown the ground for this view, it seems clear, at any rate that the German retreat which has been proceeding slowly must now be hurried if the enemy is to escape a terrible pounding from the Allies heavy guns. The advance of the Allies to within easy cannon range of Bazoches and likewise of Fismes, the German base on the Vesle, will tend to disarrange all plans the enemy may have formed to hold his opponents at bay until the defences along the Vesle could be thoroughly organized.

THE HAMMER OFF THE LIST

(Chicago News)

"We'll ask the Hammers out for a ride again," announced Mrs. Fadden as she adjusted her motor regalia.

"Certainly we will not!" replied Fadden, polishing his amber goggles. "The Hammers are off the list. They are nice, congenial people, I'll admit, but my guests on a ride must be more than that. We'll ask the Torpeys."

"Why the Torpeys?" queried Mrs. Fadden.

"Why the Torpeys?" repeated Fadden. "Just because," said Fadden. "You've ridden with the Torpeys and you've been out with the Hammers, and still you can't see the difference. I'll explain. Torpey is a good scout. Hammer may be one in time, if he ever wakes up, but just now he's excess baggage."

"Hammer is a scenery fan. He admires the trees and the landscape. For a man who spent his boyhood working twenty hours a day on a farm he loves the rural life more ardently than any one else I ever met."

"He begs me to stop while he alights and picks bunches of wild flowers and asks that I allow him to get out and look over the rustic bridges we pass so that he can see if there are any sunfish or bullheads in the stream below. He's a born naturalist. He's a bug fancier. He loves birds. He has a nice discrimination as regards flora and fauna and all that sort of thing."

"Torpey is something else again. Torpey has his eyes in focus for eating places. When his trained orb sights a pavilion of some kind bearing an intimation to the effect that liquid and solid food is dispensed within he jumps for joy."

"Now, you know what Hammer does when the machine has tire or engine trouble. He sits in the car and looks at his watch every two seconds. He has even had the hard boiled nerve to tell me on one occasion that before taking a machine into the outskirts it might have been a good idea to learn how to make repairs when necessary."

"But Torpey! When a tire blows out that good natured soul has his coat off before the echo of the blast has died away. He's under, over and around the old bus with both hands full of tools before I can remonstrate with him. He insists on doing all the greasy, grimy work as a special favor. His heart is as big as a dirigible balloon, and I believe that if he had to tow the whole contraption into town from anywhere in the state."

"Then you wonder why I prefer Torpey to Hammer on a motor trip?"

"But Mr. Hammer is such an interesting conversationalist," said Mrs. Fadden.

"Conversation never put on a tire or paid a check at a wayside inn," retorted Fadden. "Let Hammer do his riding in a chaise longue."

Beans.

Beans may be canned whole or cut in inch pieces. Those canned whole are best for salads, while those cut up save jar space, as they may be much more closely packed.

String the beans carefully. Blanch ten minutes in boiling water. Plunge in cold water, changing the water until beans are cold.

Pack in sterilized jars. Boil ninety minutes for pints and 100 for quarts.

PROCLAMATION

GEORGE the FIFTH, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these presents shall come or whom the same may in any wise concern,—GREETING:

A Proclamation of conditional amnesty respecting men belonging to Class 1 under the Military Service Act, 1917, who have disobeyed our Proclamation of 13th October, 1917, or their orders to report for duty, or are deserters or absent without leave from the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

E. L. NEWCOMBE, } WHEREAS consider-
Deputy Minister of Justice, } able numbers of men
Canada. } belonging to Class I under our Military Service Act, 1917, called out on active service in our Canadian Expeditionary Force for the defence of Canada under Our Proclamation of 13th October, 1917, although they have thus become by law soldiers enlisted in the Military Service of Canada,

Have failed to report for duty as lawfully required of them under the said Military Service Act and the regulations thereunder, including the Order in Council duly passed on April 20 last,

Or have deserted,
Or absented themselves without leave from our Canadian Expeditionary Force,

And it is represented that the very serious and unfortunate situation in which these men find themselves is due in many cases to the fact that, notwithstanding the information and warning contained in Our Proclamation aforesaid, they have misunderstood their duty or obligation, or have been misled by the advice of ill-disposed, disloyal or seditious persons.

AND WHEREAS we desire, if possible, to avoid the infliction of the heavy penalties which the law imposes for the offences of which these soldiers have thus been guilty, and to afford them an opportunity within a limited time to report and make their services available in Our Canadian Expeditionary Force as is by law their bounden duty, and as is necessary for the defence of Our Dominion of Canada.

NOW KNOW YE that we in the exercise of Our powers, and of Our good will and pleasure in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare and cause to be published and made known THAT THE PENALTIES OF THE LAW WILL NOT BE IMPOSED OR EXACTED as against the men who belong to Class 1 under Our Military Service Act, 1917, and who have disobeyed Our Proclamation aforesaid; or who have received notice from any of Our registrars or deputy registrars to report for duty on a day now past and have failed so to report; or who, having reported and obtained leave of absence, have failed to report at the expiry of their leave, or have become deserters from Our Expeditionary Force, PROVIDED THEY REPORT FOR DUTY ON OR BEFORE THE TWENTY FOURTH DAY OF AUGUST 1918.

AND WE DO HEREBY STRICTLY WARN AND SOLEMNLY IMPRESS UPON ALL SUCH MEN, and as well those who employ, harbour, conceal or assist them in their disobedience, that, if they persist in their failure to report, absence or desertion until the expiry of the last mentioned day, they will be pursued and punished with all the rigour and severity of the law, SUBJECT TO THE JUDGMENT OF OUR COURTS MARTIAL WHICH WILL BE CONVENED TO TRY SUCH CASES or other competent tribunals; and also that those who employ, harbour, conceal or assist such men will be held strictly accountable as offenders and subject to the pains, penalties and forfeitures in that behalf by law provided for their said offence.

Provided however that nothing contained in this Our Proclamation is intended to release the men aforesaid from their obligation to report for duty as soon as possible or to grant them immunity from arrest or detention in the meantime for the purpose of compelling them to perform their military duty; Our intention being merely to forego or remit the penalties heretofore incurred for failure to report, absence without leave or desertion incurred by those men of the description aforesaid who shall be in the proper discharge of their military duties on or before the said twenty-fourth day of August, 1918.

Of all of which Our loving subjects and all others whom these presents may concern are hereby required to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of Canada to be hereunto affixed. Witness: Our Right Trusty and Right Entirely Beloved Cousin and Counsellor, Victor Christian William, Duke of Devonshire, Marquess of Hartington, Earl of Devonshire, Earl of Burlington, Baron Cavendish of Hardwicke, Baron Cavendish of Keighley, Knight of Our Most Noble Order of the Garter; One of Our Most Honourable Privy Council; Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Knight Grand Cross of Our Royal Victorian Order, Governor General and Commander-in-Chief of Our Dominion of Canada.

At Our Government House, in Our City of OTTAWA, this FIRST day of AUGUST, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and in the ninth year of Our Reign.

By Command,

Thomas Mulvey

Under-Secretary of State.
