CLOSING OF THE SCHOOL AT BARKER'S PT.

Exercises Last Night Attended by Many Spectators—The Children Acquitted Themselves Well.

The Christmas closing exercises of the Barker's Point School last night were very interesting. The school room was crowded to the door and all those present enjoyed the very excellent program provided. There was a large well laden Christmas tree from which Eddie Harris representing Santa Claus distributed gifts to all the little ones present. An excellent address was delivered by Mr. John Lipsett, secretary of the school. Much credit for the success of the entertainment is due Mrs. Mabel F. Copeland the esteemed teacher who worked hard to train the children.

The program was as follows:
Opening chorus, O Canada, School Address, Words of Welcome, Alta Jordan.
Recitation, When Christmas Comes, Charles Staples.

Recitation, Vacation, Robert Harris.
Recitation, When Pa Skated, Douglas Rice.
Exercise, Merry Christmas, Grade I.
Recitation, "Our Folks", Mildred Ross.

Recitation, A "Sojer" Boy, Daniel Watters.

Recitation, A Little Girl's Troubles, Lilian Staples.

Recitation, Wanted—A Boy, Eddie Harris.

Chorus, A Christmas Welcome, School.

Recitation, Adam Never Was a Boy, Archie Vivyan.

Recitation, A Christmas Guest, Doris Harris.

Recitation, Kittens and Babies, Eunice Dinsmore.

NEW STATION AT HALIFAX TO BE USED

Old North Street Station will be Abandoned Tomorrow for Station at Ocean Terminals.

Halifax, Dec. 21.—Tomorrow the transfer of all passenger trains in and out of Halifax from the old North Street station to the new temporary station at the Ocean terminals, in the south end of the city, will be effected. The last train to arrive at North street will be the one from St. John arriving here tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. The first passenger train to pull into the new station will be the Maritime Express from Montreal, due here at 2.40 p.m. Sunday, and the first passenger train to depart from the new station will be the outgoing Maritime Express at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Have Sold Timber Limits
It is announced that the King Lumber Company has sold its timber holdings near Cranbrook, B. C., to the Canadian Pacific Railway. The great part of the lands were located in British Columbia but some were in the United States. The initial payment of $100,000 has been made.

Sentenced to Immediate Death
