PATRIOTIC PROGRAM—HOLDING THE HOME LINES
CARRYING ON

Big Lectures with Big Messages About the Great War.

"THE TRAGEDY OF ARMENIA AND SYRIA" Stirring Lecture by Dr. Frederick G. Coan.

The "OLD HOMESTEAD" QUARTET. Third Day at Chautauqua

"ROBIN HOOD" by far Most Popular American Opera. Fifth Evening at Chautauqua.

"Robin Hood" is perhaps the biggest single attraction ever given on any Chautauqua program. If Chautauqua patrons were pleased with the "Chimes of Normandy" and "Mikado" in previous years, they will be more than delighted with "Robin Hood." Many remember the famous songs—"Then Hey! For the Merry Greenwood," "Brown October Ale," "Come Dream So Bright," "Tinkers' Chorus," "Oh, Promise Me," "Come Away to the Woods," "Ho! Ho! Then for Jollity," "Ye Birds in Azure Winged," "Armorer's Song," "A Hunting We Will Go," "Ah! I Do Love You," "Sweetheart My Own," "Love, We Never More Will Part," and others. Chautauqua will be the place to hear them in the opera "Robin Hood" presented in full cast.

Secretary of War Baker Says of Chautauqua

"I am constantly facing the splendid results of the work done by the Chautauqua in this country in creating and sustaining a sound patriotic feeling, and in carrying forward the great national enterprises which the government is necessarily bringing to the attention of our people; and I want you to know that as an officer of the government I not only appreciate the importance of the lecture platform as a means of communication and expansion, but also appreciate the work which you and your associates are doing as a contribution to our national cause."

GERMAN SPY
SYSTEM TOO
ELABORATE

(Century Magazine.)

The very elaborateness of the German spy system in this country, its extraordinary organization, proved its undoing in the hour of crisis.

In a single office of a railway company or other large American business establishment employing one or two hundred men, there might have been three or four German spies working in the same room for years, and not one of them even suspecting that any of the others was a fellow spy. In the United States at least a German spy never knows who is just below him in rank or who is just above him. As a matter of fact, each one is ordered to report to just one man in the United States and to receive instructions only from that man.

To understand the wrecking of the system on April 6, 1917, take the entirely supposable case of a German spy located in Omaha who had not been located by the department of justice, and consequently was not seized during the round-up on April 6th. He would have known just one other German spy in the United States, this being a man in Chicago, perhaps, to whom he reported and from whom he received orders. But while the Omaha man escaped arrest, his superior in Chicago was seized; all he knew was that after April 6 he did not hear from the Chicago spy and could not get in to communication with him. The Chicago man had simply disappeared without leaving a trace of his whereabouts. Here, then, was the Omaha spy completely isolated, still at liberty, but marooned in a foreign land, not knowing or even suspecting the identity of a single other spy planted here by the German government. He had nobody to turn to, nobody whom he could trust, nobody from whom he could receive instructions. The German spy machine had been organized with such elaborate secrecy that when a single link was broken the chain fell to pieces.

THE VILLAGE OF STANLEY
ENJOYING PROSPERITYWhat a Member of the Mail Staff Saw During a Recent Visit--Is the Centre of a Fine Farming District --- The Church of England Have a Fine New Church

One of the most up-to-date and prosperous villages in York County, if not in New Brunswick is the village of Stanley. After a pleasant and delightful twenty mile ride from Fredericton over what used to be the Canada Eastern Railway, the traveller arrives at Cross Creek Station. A six mile auto ride over the hills or a railway trip by way of the York & Carleton

At Lime Kiln, a prosperous farming district where some years ago burning lime was the leading industry there are several excellent farms.

Ex-Coun. James G. Douglass one of Stanley's most progressive and esteemed citizens, is the proud owner of one of the best grain farms on the Nashwaak. There is also a splendid vegetable garden connected with it.

RIVERVIEW HOTEL.

branch, now owned and operated by the Dominion Government, lands you at Stanley.

There Prosperity is Evident

Everybody seems busy, money plentiful, crops excellent and all people contented. Stanley is one of the oldest as well as the prettiest little villages in the Province. It contains several stores, Churches, halls, a saw mill, besides a splendid hotel "The Riverview" known the country over for its excellent qualities.

The Church of England community of Stanley having a fine new church hall erected which, although only started this spring is almost completed. It has a large stage, dressing rooms and scenery and is fitted for the staging of large plays, besides for meetings. The country around Stanley is well settled with prosperous farmers, making business good for the different stores within the village. Red Rock, Cross Creek Village, Lime Kiln, and Williamsburg are among the important places near Stanley.

Mr. Douglass is having a large barn erected, 108 feet by 30 feet and very lofty, to replace the one burned last fall, on which occasion he lost several head of pure bred cattle and four horses. It is Mr. Douglass' intention to go extensively into stock raising, he expects to handle nothing but pure bred cattle. Situated about midway on the farm property, is the farm house which compares favorably with most of the city homes, it having all the modern improvements, hot and cold water, bath room, telephone and hard wood floors. Everything is magnificently arranged to make it comfortable and convenient. Mr. Douglass besides being an enthusiastic farmer is proprietor of one of Stanley's largest stores and has a fine residence in the village. His son Mr. James Douglass Jr. who is in business with his father is having a beautiful dwelling erected next to the store.

On the road to Lime Kiln is the Government sheep farm of Mr. Joseph Thorburn which is certainly a beautiful
