

USUAL QUANTITY POTASH SAID TO BE AVAILABLE

CONFERENCE BETWEEN MINISTER AND DEALERS

Announcement Made Saturday Encouraging—Potash Most Important Ingredient in Fertilizer.

The Department of Agriculture reports that the conference of representatives of fertilizer dealers held here Saturday afternoon with Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, Minister of Agriculture, resulted in the assurance being given the department that there was approximately the same quantity of potash available for the farms of New Brunswick in 1919 as was available for the present year. The conference was free and informal and the representatives were frank in their statements to the minister.

Assurance is Encouraging

The assurance that approximately the same quantity of potash will be available in 1919 is most encouraging to the farmers of the province as potash is one of the most important ingredients of commercial fertilizer particularly where potatoes are grown in large quantities.

Crops Look Well

The crops along the St. John Valley between Fredericton and Woodstock never looked better at this season. Oats and wheat are particularly good and promise a heavy yield. Potatoes look remarkably well and so far there is no sign of rust. Good progress is being made with haying operations, and the yield especially on the islands is an exceptionally good one.

Back From Fishing Trip

A party composed of Mr. James S. Neill, Mr. John Neill and Mayor Hanson returned on Saturday from a successful fishing trip to the Southwest Miramichi. They took the river at Half Moon Cove and made the run to Boilestown, whipping the salmon pools while en route. They killed during the trip six salmon and seven grilse which is considered a very good showing. Their catch would probably have been larger but for two days of wet weather which interfered with their sport. Mr. Neill, Sr. has been making fishing trips to the Southwest Miramichi for forty-five years, and has lost none of his old time enthusiasm for the sport.

SHEEP BEING PURCHASED IN P.E.I. FOR N. B.

PREPARATIONS MADE FOR STOCKING IN AUTUMN

Conjecture re Extent of Bean Crop of Province—No Farm Laborers' Excursion to be Held.

Preparations for the campaign for the stocking of the farms of this province with sheep are progressing rapidly. Thomas Hetherington of Fredericton, Live Stock Husbandman of the Provincial Department of Agriculture today will reach Prince Edward Island in search of pure bred sheep which will be used later for the purpose of stocking. He already has covered Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

Going To Ottawa

Deputy Minister W. R. Reek will leave for Ottawa, this evening for the purpose of conferring with the Federal Department of Agriculture on various matters. He will return Thursday. It is probable that on his return statistics of crop production in New Brunswick will be issued.

Conjecture re Bean Crop

There is considerable conjecture about the bean crop in this province. Last spring many farmers attracted by the remarkably high prices quoted for beans planted increased acreage. This is said to be particularly true of Carleton County. So far it has been impossible to make any estimate of the bean crop. Some damage was done by frosts early in the summer but the effect upon the crop is not known.

No Harvest Excursions

Protests by the Provincial Government against the running of farm laborers' excursions brought out the information that none is to be run in 1918.

Six Hundred for Farms

Over six hundred farmers left Camp Sussex on Saturday for their various farms under the order-in-council recently issued allowing all bona fide farmers harvest leave of six weeks' duration. It is anticipated that a further draft will leave today.

Telephone to P. E. I.

Telephone communication between Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick was opened Saturday. Messages of congratulation were exchanged between Premier Foster of New Brunswick and Premier Arsenault of Prince Edward Island. Similar messages followed between Mayor Hayes of St. John and Mayor Wright of Charlottetown. In the course of his conversation Premier Foster arranged with Premier Arsenault for a conference of Maritime Province premiers at Halifax on August 27 to consider matters of mutual interest. This was a peculiarly appropriate use to make of the new direct connection.

CHAUTAUQUA WILL RETURN TO FREDERICTON

REQUIRED NUMBER OF GUARANTORS SECURED

Tent Crew Left This Morning for Newport, Mass., the Next Town on the Circuit.

The Chautauqua course was finished in Fredericton yesterday. Last night the tent crew struck the big canvas top which had been on the Officers' Square for a week, and this morning started on the long jump to Newport, Mass., the next town on the circuit.

At Saturday's performance it was announced that Chautauqua would again be at Fredericton. The assurance was the result largely of the efforts of the Countess of Ashburnham who at Friday night's performance canvassed the audience for guarantors for the 1919 course. This puts Fredericton in line with the other towns and cities of the Maritime Provinces which were visited by the Chautauqua this summer.

Like Eastern Canada

The performers and lecturers who appeared in Fredericton stated that they were greatly pleased with the Maritime Provinces because of the cool weather which they had experienced, which was in great contrast with the weather usually experienced in the United States. This is the first season the Chautauqua has placed a circuit in the Maritime Provinces. Everywhere it has been received heartily and probably will become as much a part of the social life of the various communities of this part of Canada as it has become in the United States. It is the intention of the Chautauqua Association to extend its activities in Canada.

College Students with Tent

The tent crew which was in Fredericton was composed partly of college students. The latter spend their summer vacation travelling on the various circuits and incidentally earning money for next term's expenses at college.

New Maritime Trotting Record

A new Maritime trotting record was made at Moncton Saturday by White Socks the bay gelding owned by G. B. Fenwick of Sussex. His best time was 2.11½. The previous record was 2.15½. The record also is a new figure for the Moncton track.
