

FRIENDSHIP FOR RUSSIA

London, June 3.—The movement within Russia in favor of the cause of the Allies is increasing and has been strengthened by President Wilson's recent declaration of sympathy for Russia, says a Petrograd despatch to the Daily Express. The Russian democracy also is enthusiastic over a recent step taken by the British government to show its friendship.

The newspaper Novoe Vedomosti in a long article defends the policy of the Allies and expresses gratitude for President Wilson's friendly utterances.

CANADA FOOD BOARD

Order No. 31, Re Flour.

In exercise of the powers conferred upon it by Orders of His Excellency, the Governor General in Council, dated the 12th day of March, 1918, P.C. 596 and P.C. 597, and all other powers enabling it in that behalf, the Canada Food Board hereby orders as follows:—

1. No person shall hold, or have in his possession, or under his control at any one time, flour made wholly or in part from wheat more than is sufficient for his ordinary requirements for a period not exceeding fifteen days, except as hereinafter provided:

(a) A person living at a greater distance than two miles, and less than five miles from a dealer licensed by the Canada Food Board, may have in his possession, or under his control, flour made wholly or in part from wheat not more than is sufficient for his ordinary requirements for a period not exceeding thirty days; a person living at a greater distance than five miles, and less than ten miles from a dealer licensed by the Canada Food Board, may have in his possession, or under his control, flour made wholly or in part from wheat not more than is sufficient for his ordinary requirements for a period not exceeding sixty days; and a person living at a distance of ten miles or more from such dealer may have in his possession, or under his control, flour made wholly or in part from wheat not more than is sufficient for his ordinary requirements for a period not exceeding one hundred and twenty days.

(b) A wholesale dealer or a retail dealer licensed by the Canada Food Board may have in his possession, or under his control, flour made wholly or in part from wheat, not more than is sufficient for his ordinary trade requirements for a period not exceeding sixty days.

2. Section 1 of this Order shall not apply to manufacturers of flour, nor to bakers and confectioners licensed by the Canada Food Board.

3. (a) On and after the first day of May, 1918, no person shall feed live stock or poultry, nor permit any live stock or poultry to be fed with milling wheat, or any product thereof, except bran and shorts; and no person shall knowingly sell the same to be used for such prohibited purposes. Provided, however, that where wheat has been grown together with other grain, and the wheat cannot be separated for milling purposes without undue cost, such mixture, provided it does not contain more than 25 per centum of wheat, may be sold or purchased or used for the feeding of poultry.

(b) No person shall grind any milling wheat or mixture of milling wheat with other grains for the purpose of making feed for live stock.

4. Any person holding or having in his possession, or under his control, flour, made wholly or in part from wheat, in quantities greater than are prescribed in this Order, shall forthwith return such flour to the miller or dealer from whom it was purchased, and such miller or dealer shall accept same if it be in good condition, and pay for same at the purchase price, or at the market price on April 20, 1918, whichever be the lower; and if the same be not purchased, the facts and circumstances shall forthwith be reported to the Canada Food Board by the said miller or dealer.

5. Provided that every dealer in such flour shall forthwith report to the Millers' Committee, 178 Queen Street, Ottawa, the quantities of such flour held in excess of his requirements for sixty days, and shall state the name of the miller manufacturing such flour, the brand, the date of purchase, the person for whom purchased, the price paid, and his requirements for the months of May, June and July. Upon receipt of this information, the Millers' Committee shall notify the miller who manufactured such flour, and it shall then be the duty of the miller to purchase such flour at the price paid by the dealer or at the market price on April 20, 1918, f. o. b. the dealer's station, whichever price be the lower, or to dispose of it in such manner as the Canada Food Board may direct.

6. In addition to the penalties for violation of this Order, as provided, any flour hereafter held or purchased in excess of the amounts herein prescribed, may be seized after the fifteenth day of May, 1918, by the Canada Food Board, and any such flour so seized shall thereby be forfeited to His Majesty, and shall be disposed of as this Board may direct from time to time.

7. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Order shall be liable to the penalties enacted in the Order of His Excellency, the Governor General in Council, dated the twelfth day of March, 1918, P. C. 597, in which penalties are provided by the following clauses: Same as provided in Order No. 30.

Missions Are Doing Good Work

Street Mission. He is now at Camp Devens, Mass., where according to a letter to Mr. Wyburn, "he does more good than all the other Y. M. C. A. secretaries." His rough and ready way, born of years around Cherry street and the lower East Side, is tempered with his Christian conviction and his appeal to all classes of soldiers is tremendous.

Capt. Philip I. Rossiter, now at a Texas cantonment, serving as a doctor, once was sent in as a hopeless alcoholic to Water Street Mission. One of the most brilliant men ever "down and out" at the Mission was Charles Gearhart, now secretary to Gen. Bell at Camp Upton.

Jack Hildt, now a petty officer in the navy, scion of a very old and aristocratic New York family is one who found himself through this refuge. Two of the stars of the Water Street Mission Service flag are for Conrad Bjorkman and Louis Dunaway, seamen on the Texas. Fred W. Hamilton, graduate of Dublin University and a student of the languages and medicine, was saved from death by alcoholism, served as secretary of the committee which brought Billy Sunday to New York, and is now with the Presbyterian Hospital unit in France.

Fred W. Harvey, a Columbia graduate, who at one time was jobless through dissipation "came back" and later went to Camp Upton. From there he sent 300 suits of clothes for derelicts to the mission in the severe weather this winter. He is now in France. Others represented on the Water street flag are Andrew Martin and James McGregor, Scotchmen, who went back to their home and enlisted when the war started; Clarence P. Caterer, an Australian; Edward Upton, a Canadian; Robert Smythe, an Englishman, who became a corporal, and Mike McNally, an Irishman.

Hadley Rescue Hall, at 293 Bowery has a service flag with thirty-one stars. Before long six more if its "boys" are to leave. Here again is the story of the man "down and out" picked up and after months or years of usefulness enlisting in the service.

Two of the thirty-one have the rank of Lieutenant. They are Howard Hamberger, with the Medical Corps, and Hugo Howling, who is at Rockford, Ill.

A Flag With Ninety-one Stars

Joseph Williamson of Philadelphia, who was a Cunard line steward before war started, recently wrote Supt. John Callahan of this mission from a Scotch hospital where he is invalided. Williamson, who once walked the Bowery without a place to stay and nothing but a burning desire for drink now wears a Distinguished Service Cross. In the battle of Jutland he saved the life of his Captain.

"I'm in the war to a finish," he wrote Mr. Callahan recently, "but when its over I'm coming back home."

The Bowery Mission of which the Rev. Dr. John G. Hollimond is superintendent has a service flag with ninety-one stars. Most of these however, are for attaches of the organization or their relatives. But there are about a dozen men who have come to the institution as outcasts and later made good in the national service.
