HEREDITARY TITLES ARE NOT WANTED IN CANADA

Copy of an Order-in-Council Dealing with the Subject Brought Down in Parliament by Sir Robert Borden---Radical Recommendations Made to the Imperial Authorities on the Subject.

Ottawa, Apr. 9. — Parliament got a surprise last night when, during a debate on Mr. W. F. Nickle's motion in respect to "hereditary titles," Sir Robert Borden produced an order in council, already passed by the government and containing most radical recommendations to the imperial authorities. They are four in number and are as follows.

1. No honor or titular distinction, save those granted in recognition of military service during the present war or ordinarily bestowed by the government to be conferred on a British subject resident in Canada, except upon the advice of the prime minister of Canada.

2. The British government shall exercise the same authority as hitherto in determining the character and number of titles to be allocated to Canada.

3. No hereditary titles hereafter be conferred upon a British subject resident in Canada.

4. Appropriate action shall be taken by the government to provide that after a prescribed period, no title had by a British subject now or hereafter ordinarily resident in Canada shall be recognized as having hereditary effect.

Beset With Difficulties.

Sir Robert expressed the belief that the fourth recommendation was one beset with difficulties and that these and the other recommendations made would be considered when the Canadian ministers are in London this summer. In view of his announcement, Sir Robert suggested that Mr. Nickle should withdraw his motion which asked that His Majesty be presented with an address praying that hereafter no hereditary titles be conferred in Canada. Sir Robert Borden subsequently moved the adjournment of the debate. Hon. W. S. Fielding, who expressed hearty support of the resolution, could not concur in all that had will probably secure the release of two young English priests who have been waiting for passports to come to the diocese. I am looking forward also to ordaining one student from King's College on Trinity Sunday. Under the most favorable circumstances, it is quite clear that for some years to come the supply of clergymen is not likely to be at all equal to the demand, and we must make up our minds to do in regard to the work of the Church what is being done in so many other directions, that is, to carry on bravely without complaint, making the most of such resources as may be at our disposal.

The responsibility for the welfare of vacant parishes does not belong to the clergy only. It is something in which every parish ought to take its share. Every member of the Church ought to have a wider horizon than the bounds of his particular parish. Let every parish, and every member of every parish, learn to think in terms of the entire body, and it will not then seem a sacrifice to share with a vacant parish the privileges which we enjoy.

Mission Fund.

It is satisfactory to find that the fiscal year ends with a fairly substantial balance to the credit of the Diocesan Mission Fund, $2,624.83. Inasmuch as we began the year with a credit of $487.41, there has been a gain in the twelve months of $2,137.42. A certain part of this gain is due to the fact that more missions have been vacant during 1917 than in the previous year, although the gain in this respect would not be more than about $700, as some of the additional vacancies occurred towards the end of the year. There has been, moreover, a distinct

S. C. Rhode Island Reds and White Plymouth Rocks; prize-winning broodstock, equal to anything in the province. Pen 1 of my Reds is headed by a cock bird which I imported from the Owens farm at Vineyard Haven at a cost of $25. He comes from one of the best laying strains in the world. Eggs from this pen, 20c each, or $3 per setting of 15.

Pen No. 2 is headed by the first cock at Moncton and Fredericton poultry shows. Eggs from this pen $2 for 15.

White Rock Pen No. 1 is headed by Colonel, a famous prize-winning cock, and consists of 6 splendid females. Eggs $3 per 15.

Pen No. 2 is composed of large healthy birds with splendid egg record. Would strongly recommend these for farmers, utility men. Price $2 per setting.

been said with regard to titles. While he believed that hereditary titles should be abolished in Canada, he felt that there were instances where titles might be awarded with advantage. He drew attention to the fact that, during the fifteen years the Liberals were in power, only six cabinet ministers had been knighted while the six years of the Borden government had resulted in a similar number of knighthoods for Conservative members.

increase in missionary offerings for this fund, whilst the arrears on missionary stipend account are $552.21 less than in 1916. But whatever the reasons contributing to this improved condition, it is encouraging to note that whereas in 1916 the expenditure for diocesan missions exceeded the receipts by about $1,100, in the year 1917 the receipts exceeded the expenditure by $2,137.42.

Clerical Stipends.

Before leaving this part of my address there is one more matter about which it is my duty to speak with the utmost plainness. It is the simple truth that the Church is treating its clergy with very grave injustice. We are expecting our missionaries to subsist upon stipends that were altogether insufficient before the war, but are now shamefully inadequate. In the diocese today eleven priests are receiving only $800; twenty-eight are receiving $900; seven are receiving $1,000; four are receiving $1,200, and five are receiving between $1,200 and $1,500. These stipends moreover, are taxed with the cost of keeping a horse and maintaining a driving outfit which can hardly be done today at less than an annual outlay of $200. The principle is altogether vicious and one that would not be tolerated for a moment in the commercial world. The very least that a parish can do under such circumstances is to make an honest effort to see that its missionary is supplied with hay and oats in addition to his official stipend. But apart from that the Synod must do something. There are some parishes which would find it extremely difficult to do much more than they are already doing, but they are not very many. There are plenty of parishes in the diocese in which all that is needed is an honest effort to meet the pressing need. The money is there. There is only one source from which relief can come and that is the pockets of the people.

Dr. Allen Resigns.

I regret very much, more indeed, than I can tell you, to have to announce that Dr. T. Carleton Allen, who for the past fifteen years has been the very able and respected chancellor of the diocese, has found it necessary to ask the Synod to accept his resignation of that important office. The pressure of increasing duties, he tells me, makes it impossible for him to continue to serve the diocese in this respect.

King's College.

The King's College campaign has been launched and is meeting with an encouraging measure of success. Up to the present time subscriptions to the amount of $54,000 have been secured of which St. John gave $10,000. The suggestion was recently made and strongly urged, I understand, upon the Board of Governors, that the Arts side of King's should be abandoned and that the College should devote itself exclusively to Divinity. The proposal, however, was rejected, and the College will retain its ancient status. So far as the Diocese of Fredericton is concerned it is, in my judgment, the Divinity course for which King's is chiefly valuable. I desire, however, to press upon you all, and through you upon the diocese, that the question that lies behind this campaign is the maintenance of the College upon any kind of footing. It is not a question now whether King's will teach Arts and Divinity, as heretofore or Divinity alone, as has been proposed, but whether it will continue to teach anything at all.

Rothsay School

It is a source of great satisfaction to know that the Rothsay Collegiate School maintains its usual high standard of efficiency under the able leadership of the Rev. W. R. Hibbard. The Church has a valuable asset in the School, and I hope that every member of the Synod will feel it to be his duty to support and strengthen it in every way.

Women's Auxiliary

The Woman's Auxiliary, also, continues to do splendid work, and all through the Diocese its influence for good is more and more being felt. I think that I need not say that the Auxiliary has my complete confidence and warm appreciation. I am particularly grateful to its members for their systematic and successful effort to maintain a scholarship for the education of a candidate for Holy Orders.

And now, dear brothers, I commend you and your important work to Him, whose you are, and whom you serve. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with you all.
