OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

LITTLE FOLKS' APRON.

Little ones who can sew will find this apron very easy to make either for themselves or a little friend. Dotted Swiss or any thin material makes a very dainty apron.

For a child 8 years old one yard of material is sufficient. Also one yard of insertion and two and one-third yards of ribbon about one and one-quarter inches wide is needed. The material should be twenty-four inches wide. Measure the length needed, allowing for a three-inch hem.

Make two tucks at bottom of apron and then sew on the insertion. Make two more tucks above the insertion; measure across the chest for the band, sew on insertion and plait the material into the band.

Cut the ribbon in half and sew to each end of the band. It goes over the shoulders and is crossed at the back, brought round the waist and tied in front in a bow.

STORING JARS.

Fruit jars bought by the dozen come in heavy corrugated paper boxes. Instead of tearing open the top at the joints, cut around three sides with a knife and you have a lid hinged on one side. As the jars are filled, place them in this box, where they will be in the dark and protected to some extent from freezing. As they are emptied, wash and put the lid back on again and return to the box bottom upward.
A glance into the case then shows you how many jars of fruit remain. When all are empty there are one dozen jars ready for storage until next season.

MAPLE BLANC MANGE.

Mix 5 level tablespoons of cornstarch with 1½ cups of maple syrup until smooth, add 1 saltspoon of salt and a half saltspoon of soda, then pour the mixture slowly into 1 quart of scalding milk. Cook for twenty minutes, stirring frequently; pour it into small wet molds and serve cold with cream, either plain or whipped. When 1 quarter of this receipt is used, which is enough for a family of two, use the merest suspicion of soda and salt.

ESCALLOPED CORN.

Escalloped corn is the favorite method of preparing this popular vegetable. Two cupfuls raw corn, cut and scraped from the cob; one egg, one cupful milk, two tablespoonfuls corn-meal flour, one large tablespoonful of butter or substitute, one tablespoonful chopped green sweet pepper, or more if desired, one-eighth teaspoonful of sugar, salt to taste. Combine, pour into a buttered baking dish and bake in a good oven until "set" and slightly brown.

then continued: "Ah were coming out of communication trench at Wipers—" "Ypres," said the lady.

Again Tommy stared and then went on: "It were the first fight at Wipers—"

"Ypres," corrected the lady again, and as Tommy lapsed into silence the lady passed on. His mate came along and said: "That were a great lady talking to you."

"Aye," said Tommy, "seems right enough. Pity she's got hiccups."

The secret of a happy life is to keep on wanting it after you've got it.
Only a hundred or so more shopping days before Christmas.

Best Liniment Made

MR. A. E. LAUNDY, EDMONTON, writes:—
"I fell from a building and received what the doctor called a very bad sprained ankle, and told me I must not walk on it for three weeks. I got MINARD'S LINI-MENT and in six days I was out to work again.
I think it the best liniment made."

faction. For any

NOT A COMIC LITTLE BROTHER

A Cleveland young woman has a 10-year-old brother who is wise beyond his years and is likely to crop out in new places at the most unexpected times. The other night the anxious suitor called on his inamorata, arriving at her domicile a little before he was expected. She was not ready to make her appearance, and the duty of entertaining the caller devolved upon the little brother.

"Well, Bobby," began the young man in an effort to make conversation and at the same time to put his involuntary host at his ease, "does your sister think that I am calling at this house oftener than I am welcome?" The child looked keenly at the caller. "Nothing doing," he said. "Do you think I'm one of these fresh kids you read about in the funny papers?

There ain't going to be no embarrassing answers this time."
