ARMISTICE WITH AUSTRIA SIGNED BY THE ALLIES

Chief Ally of Germany Throws Up the Sponge—
The Terms to be Made Public at Once—No
Doubt That It Means Unconditional Surrender—Italians Capture 100,000 Prisoners and More Than 2,200 Guns—Trieste Taken—Great Satisfaction Expressed Among Allies.

London, Nov. 3.—An armistice with Austria was signed this afternoon by General Diaz, the Italian commander-in-chief, according to an official announcement made here this evening. The text of the statement reads: "A telephone message has been received from the Prime Minister in Paris saying that news has just come that Austria Hungary, the last of Germany's props, has gone out of the war."

"The armistice was signed by General Diaz this afternoon and will come into operation tomorrow at 3 o'clock. The terms will be published Tuesday."

Terms to Be Made Public

Paris, Nov. 3.—Official announcement of the signing of the Austrian armistice reached the premiers while they were in session at the apartment of Colonel House, President Wilson's special representative this afternoon and gave the greatest satisfaction. It was arranged that the conditions of the armistice would be made public promptly.

Took 100,000 Prisoners

Rome, Nov. 3.—Italian and allied forces in their drive in northern Italy have captured 100,000 Austro-Hungarians, the Italian war office announced today. More than 2,200 guns have been taken.

Landing at Trieste

Rome, Nov. 3.—Italian land and sea forces are landing today at Trieste, the principal seaport of Austria-Hungary on the Adriatic, according to an official announcement made this evening by the Italian war office.

Vienna Says Fighting Over

Vienna, Nov. 3.—Via London—"In the Italian theatre of the war our troops have ceased hostilities on the basis of an armistice which has been concluded," says the war communication issued today.

"The conditions of the armistice will be announced in a later communication."

Trent Captured

Rome, Nov. 3.—The Italians have captured Trent, one of Austria's chief fortified towns in the Tyrol, according to the war office announcement tonight.

Italian forces have landed at Trieste and the Italian tri-color is flying from the castle and from the tower of San Giusto.

Italian cavalry have entered Udine.

Summary of News

New York, Nov. 1.—The Associated Press tonight issued the following: Austria-Hungary is out of the war.

Deserted by her last ally, Germany fights alone a battle which means ultimate defeat or abject surrender.

After days of pleading an armistice has been granted Austria-Hungary, whose badly defeated armies in the Italian theatre are staggering homeward, under the violence of the blows of the Entente troops.

Trent, in Austrian Tyrol, which the Italians always claimed as their own has been captured by them. Trieste, Austria's principal seaport on the Adriatic, over which there has been such bitter fighting now flies the Italian flag and Belgrade, capital of Serbia, has been recaptured by the Serbians.

In France and Belgium the German forces are being sorely harrassed by the British, French, Americans and Belgians, and there are indications that a debacle is about to occur. The advance of the Americans and the French on the southern part of the battle front, taken in conjunction with the operations of Field Marshal Haig and the Belgians in the north threatens to prove the culminating blow to Germany's attempts to hold ground in France or Belgium.

Indeed, it is not improbable if the advance from the south continues as rapid as it is, the greater portion of the German army will be trapped before the men can reach their border.

Situation Critical One

The situation of the Germans seemingly is a critical one. Although the Austria-Hungarians have been given an armistice they are still being bitterly attacked by the Italians, British, French, Americans and the Czech troops in the mountains and on the plains and will continue under chastisement until Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock when a cessation of hostilities will take place.

Entire regiments are surrendering to the Italians in the mountains and large numbers of the enemy are being made prisoner on the plains. Heavy casualties are being inflicted on the retreating troops. Many additional towns have been reclaimed.

In their swift drive against the Austro-Hungarians the Allied forces have up to the present taken more than 100,000 prisoners and have captured more than 2,200 guns.

So rapid has been the advance over the plains that Italian cavalry already has crossed the Tagliamento river, and entered Udine.

RELEASED FROM PRISON

Amsterdam, Nov. 4.—Dr. Friedrich Adler, who assassinated Austrian Premier Stuerghk on October 21, 1916, has been released from prison, according to Vienna despatches.

TOO LITERAL.

Ernest Poole, a novelist, said at a socialist meeting in Troy:

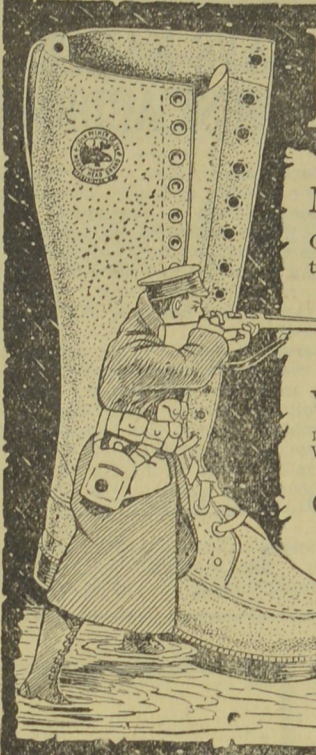

"The bolsheviks are applying to the Germans the Tolstoyan principle of nonresistance to evil, but they are following Tolstoy too literally. To be too literal is to be ludicrous."

"It's like the case of the brakeman who was learning the ropes on a first trip."

"I'll yell out the names of the stations," his teacher said to him, "and you listen and then yell the same at your end."

"So the train started off, and, when the first stop came, the veteran at the front of the car yelled: 'Iola! Iola!' and then the new man at the rear door yelled:

"Same at this end! Same at this end!"
