An Easy Proposition.

While the family were seated at the dinner table one day a knock came to the door, and a friend entered.

"Now you must sit down to dinner," the housewife invited.

"Oh, no," the caller answered, "you have such a large family yourself it would be a shame to put you to extra trouble."

"Oh," was the cheerful reply, "one more don't make a bit of difference. All I have to do is put another cup of water in the stew."
