FOOD CONSERVATION.

At the Pacific Logging Congress held recently, Mr. W. B. W. Armstrong, of the British Columbia Loggers' Association made some very pointed remarks in connection with the present waste of foodstuffs in logging and lumber camps. Something like a competition has developed among the several companies in providing luxurious food for their employees, with the definite object of attracting men to their employ. It was stated that "now the foods served in our logging camps are more expensive and more varied than those used in our own homes or in the average hotel." Mr. Armstrong attributed the present "great waste of food" in the camps, to the general and lavish use of canned fruits and vegetables. This waste he classified as follows:

1. The labor cost of canning fruits and vegetables is greater than that of drying or evaporating.
2. The heavy syrup in which fruits are put up is very expensive, and this class of fruit is used almost exclusively in the camps.
3. The material of which the containers is made is expensive, and also scarce, and is, moreover, very necessary for the conduct of the war.
4. It has been demonstrated that the food values of evaporated fruits are equal, if not superior, to those of the same materials put up in a heavy syrup.

No class of men, he pointed out, requires better food than the logger if he is to be efficient, "but of late years the selection of his food has been all wrong in theory and wasteful in practice." As a remedy Mr. Armstrong urged that this mistaken competition should be stopped by the companies operating and working out a standard diet of palatable, body-building foods for their employees. He urged that standardization, at least for the period of the war.

It is most desirable that the men should be given plenty of wholesome food prepared in sanitary kitchens and served in clean, bright dining rooms, but this may be done without the "tremendous waste that now prevails."

TRAFFIC IN BONDS.

The following remarks, which U. S. Secretary McAdoo addressed to Liberty Loan subscribers a few days ago will apply with equal force to Canadians: "I want to say to you, and I say it in all sincerity, my friends, that the man who subscribes for a government bond and then sells it immediately when he does not need the money is not helping the government; he is hurting the government. The minute he sells that bond below par when he does not have to do it, he depresses the price of government bonds; he is stabbing the credit of the government, which is the very life blood, the arterial blood, of the nation in this great time. I want you to realize it, because I think most of these bond sales have been thoughtlessly made. I think most of the men who sell those bonds do not realize what they are doing to their own government at a time when it needs support instead of hard knocks."

Mr. Thomas Cozzolino, a native of Sunny Italy, who gave evidence at the Valley Railway enquiry on Thursday, swore that he paid $100,000 to Mr. W. B. Tennant for his influence with the late provincial government. Mr. Cozzolino is the president of the N. S. Construction Company, which concern was awarded the contract for the lower section of the road. Mr. Tennant did not take even a sporting chance, but demanded and was paid one-half of the estimated profits in advance. According to Mr. Cozzolino, the company's share of the profits failed to materialize, as the accounts came out about square.

Hamilton Herald: General Pershing has issued orders denying the members of the American expeditionary force all alcoholic beverages except light wines and beers. All the officers have been informed that they will be held to strict accountability for the fullest compliance with the regulations. Uncle Sam's army also is to be a sober one.

Gloucester (Mass.) Times: The Kaiser seems to have the idea that a handful of kings can determine the destinies of the world as was the case a few centuries ago, entirely ignoring the fact that since then the sovereign people have been discovered.

Philadelphia Ledger: No doubt Germany is sincere in wishing peace on earth, but she is less concerned for good will among men.

General Frost in command—other orders to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Turks were amiable, but the Germans started "gassing" the peace conference at once.

A man is never quite so good as he thinks he is nor quite so wicked as he tries to make a woman think he is.

To make a bride perfectly happy this year, give her a "coal shower" or a "sugar shower" in place of the old-fashioned linen shower and silver shower.

The drawback with the woman who always speaks her mind is that it's usually the same old mind.

Our idea of a wise man is one who isn't foolish enough to try to convince a woman by arguing with her.

Accidents will happen, so a girl may as well get used to having her heart broken once in a while.

This is not the time of year we learn to love the careless person who leaves the door ajar.

Some people do not relish the idea of cutting out wheat flour and buying cornmeal at 8½ cents a pound. Those who are wondering how the big crop is going to affect the price will get enlightened in due course.

A.—I don't know.
Q.—Anyone else?

A.—That is all I would safely name.
Commissioner Stevens: In regard to the question objected to a minute ago, I rule that you must answer it. The question was then read:

Q.—What was the money used for?
A.—I suppose for campaign purposes.

Q.—What do you mean by campaign purposes?
A.—For election purposes.

Q.—What do you mean by election purposes?
A.—I don't know exactly what it went for. I gave it out to them to do with as they wished. They could buy dinners or might even buy booze if they wanted to.

Q.—Was it for such purposes that you thought you were giving it to them for?
A.—I suppose so at the time, yes.

Q.—Did you take any part in the election yourself?
A.—Yes.

Q.—Where were you?
A.—Somewhere about town, wherever I was most needed. I did anything where I could fit in.

Q.—Did you hire any teams to send voters to the polls?
A.—Yes.

Q.—Were you on any committee in charge of any of the work?
A.—No, I don't know as I was.

Worked Only as Treasurer.
Q.—Were you working on any committee leading up to the election?
A.—Only as treasurer for Carleton county.

Q.—You paid out this money to the different polls. To whom did it go in Woodstock town?
A.—I don't know.

Q.—At no time did this money become connected with any other fund?
A.—No.

Q.—Did you get any accounts as to how this money had been spent?
A.—No.

Commissioner Stevens: You did not handle any of this money yourself, I suppose?
A.—No.

Commissioner—How many parishes are there in Carleton county?
A.—Richmond parish and town of Woodstock, Wakefield, Simonds, Wilmot, Wicklow, Northampton, Brighton, Peel, Aberdeen and Kent.

Commissioner—To whom did it go in Kent?
A.—That went in the Tompkins' package.

Commissioner—Aberdeen?
A.—I can't remember.

Commissioner—Do you mean to tell me that you distributed $5,000 in

RETURNING SOLDIERS WERE WELCOMED

Private Jas. M. Fowler, M. M., of Fredericton, and Private Frank Barton of Devon Arrived.

Two returned soldiers from this vicinity who had been invalided home from England arrived here last night. The weather was cold but quite a number of people were at the C.P.R. station to greet them. The two were Private James M. Fowler of Fredericton and Private Frank H. Barton of Devon. Deputy Mayor Walker extended an official welcome on the part of the City and Fredericton and the representatives of various societies were present.

Private Barton is a son of Mr. Oliver Barton of Devon. He went overseas with the 104th Battalion and served in France for a long time. He was wounded in the neck some time ago and since has suffered from illness.

Private Fowler is a son of Mrs. Jas. D. Fowler of this city. He enlisted in Saskatchewan with the 209th Battalion and after reaching England transferred to the 10th Battalion with which he served in France. He lost one of his legs as the result of wounds received at Lens and the same day was awarded the Military Medal. He was given the decoration for going back under fire to brigade headquarters and taking a message to send up reinforcements to a hard pressed section of the line. While doing so he was hit.

Private J. J. Haines of Fredericton, who served with the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, did not arrive last night. He lost his left leg at Avion on July 8th last. While being carried out on a stretcher he and the bearers were shelled by the enemy.

PULPIT EXCHANGES.

Where the City Pastors Will Preach Tomorrow.

The usual exchange of pulpits after the Week of Prayer will take place in the city churches on Sunday morning, the following appointments having been made:

Brunswick Street Baptist—Rev. G. M. Young.

George Street Baptist—Rev. G. C. Warren.

Reformed Baptist—Rev. J. S. Sutherland.

Methodist—Rev. M. Addison.

St. Paul's Presbyterian—Rev. H. C. Archer.

Week-end Market.
There was quite a large market this morning and good prices prevailed. A marked feature was the large quantity of beef on sale. It brought from 13 to 15 cents a pound by the quarter. Butter sold at 45 cents, eggs at 60 cents, pork at 22 cents, veal at 17 and 18 cents, potatoes at $3.75, apples at $2.50 and $3.

Undergoing Treatment.
Mr. William McKay, inspector of the Board of Health, is in St. John undergoing medical treatment.

A considerable share of labor on the farms is taken by the Serbian women, who also weave the material for their home clothes.

different parishes and don't know to whom the money went?

A.—That is to be candid with you.
Commissioner—Brighton?

A.—I can't remember.
Commissioner—Northampton?

A.—I am not sure.
Commissioner—Whom do you think?

"Boy Came After It."
A.—It runs through my head that a boy came after it.

Commissioner—Didn't he present any authority?
A.—I don't know. He might have got it for Harry McIlroy.

In answer to a remonstrance from the commissioner he said: "It is pretty hard to remember back things which you are not supposed to tax your memory with."

Hon. W. P. Jones—Do you mean to tell us that you had the distribution of all this money without being consulted or consulting anyone?
A.—I consulted with different men.

Commissioner—Tell us one.
A.—Well, E. R. Teed of Woodstock, talked it over with me for one.

Commissioner—Tell us another.
A.—I can't remember.

Q.—Were there any others?
A.—I couldn't say.

Q.—Did he assist you in deciding the apportionments?
A.—Yes.

Q.—But you looked after the distribution yourself?
A.—Yes.

Q.—How much went to each parish?
A.—Between $300 and $500 or so I would imagine.

Q.—Did as much as $800 go to any one?
A.—Yes. I would imagine that much went to Kent.

Women! It's Cheap! Use Lemon Juice and Make Lotion

To keep your skin and complexion naturally soft, white and clear at all times you simply must use a lotion or cream every day. But choose the one that is best and costs the least.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart pint of the most remarkable beauty lotion at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier.

Just try this lotion! Make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant cream and massage it into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen and bring out the hidden roses and beauty of any skin.

Your druggist will sell three ounces of orchard white at little cost, and any grocer will supply the lemons.

ENJOYABLE EVENINGS

The young ladies and young men who attended the FREE EVENING CLASSES last year found enjoyment as well as profit. There was hard work, but there was also a friendliness and sociability that made the time pass quickly and pleasantly.

CLASSES ARE NOW FORMING in three subjects—Woodworking and Mechanical Drawing, Business Methods and Household Science.

Set aside your Tuesday and Friday evenings for ten weeks, have a good time, and learn something that will increase your income and broaden your intellect.

Call on Mr. Sampson at his office in the York Street School Building, or telephone to 27-31, for detailed information.

Do not delay, as the classes start January 15th.

Classes are limited in size.

aims have been sufficiently specified. It is believed, however, that optimism is not yet justified, owing to the practical difficulties that are still to be overcome in connection with formal peace ventures, which are indispensable as a prelude to any possible outlook.

There is reason to believe that assurances have reached the vatican that Germany's apparent antagonistic attitude towards peace has been considerably modified under the pres-
