OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Do your bit in the kitchen. Save wheat and meat for our men in France.

LACK OF FOOD THREATENS THE BATTLE LINE.

One year ago only the enemy was on rations. Today Great Britain, France and Italy are on rations.

Upon the crop of 1918, from Canada and the United States, depends the fate of the democratic peoples of the world.

How necessary is it, then, for each individual to do all he or she can in the matter of food production and conservation.

"She also serves who only stoops and weeds."

WIN-THE-WAR RECIPES.

These recipes are issued by the Fredericton Food Control Committee.

Rye Muffins.

1 cup rye flour, 1 cup standard flour, 1 teaspoon (heaped) baking powder, 1 teaspoon (small) soda, a little salt, 2 tablespoons shortening (melted).

Enough buttermilk to make batter rather stiffer than when egg and sweet milk is used.

Method: Sift all dry ingredients twice, add buttermilk and lastly the shortening. Beat well.

Makes twelve small muffins. Tested by Mrs. Wm. Jaffrey.

(Note.—Barley flour can be substituted for rye, and cornmeal, oatmeal, or whole wheat for standard flour.

Boston Brown Bread.

1 cup granulated Indian meal, 1 cup rye flour, 1 cup graham flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 cups sour milk, 2 teaspoons soda, $\frac{3}{4}$ cup of molasses.

Method—Mix dry ingredients (except soda) together. Dissolve soda in sour milk and add the molasses. Pour into buttered tins and steam 3 or 4 hours.

1 small slice (1 oz.), 64 calories.
Tested by Miss Helen Vanwart.

The only thing that balks German ambition is the battle line in France, and the British navy. The only thing that sustains our men on land and sea is FOOD.

Slants of Humor

A COG IN THE WHEEL.

I am only a cog in Life's cast wheel.
That daily makes the same old trip;
But what a joy it is to know That but for me that wheel might slip.
It's something, after all to jog Along and be a first-class Cog.

PLAYS GOLF BY EAR.

A lady friend of ours tells us that she plays golf by ear. As explanation he says to listen to her hubby's golf talk at breakfast, luncheon and dinner and most of the time between meals.

PREPAREDNESS.

A country minister was driving a spirited horse through the village when he overtook the local physician on foot.

"Jump in, doctor," he said, pulling up. "I've got a horse here that goes pretty well."

The doctor jumped in and the parson drove off. The horse did not go well and ended in tipping over the carriage and spilling both the occupants.

The doctor jumped to his feet and felt himself all over to see if he was injured.

"Look here," he exclaimed, "what do you mean by inviting me to ride behind a horse like that?"

"Well, you see," gasped the parson, "luckily this time there are no bones broken, but I always like to have a doctor with me when I drive that horse!"

WIPERS.

It is refreshing to get hold of a copy of the "Wipers Times," an unofficial trench organ published in the vicinity of Ypres. Two or three bits of verse should cheer up the home folks and make them ashamed of themselves and their kicking about the cost of beans. For instance:

"The world wasn't made in a day, And Eve didn't ride on a bus; But most of the world's in the sandbags,
And the rest—it is plastered on us."

PIMPLES AND RUNNING SORES

Would Hold Head Down Face Was Such a Sight.

Pimples are caused by the blood being out of order. These festering and running sores appear on the chin and other parts of the body, and although they are not a dangerous trouble they are very unsightly to both you and your friends.

There is only one way to get rid of this obnoxious skin trouble, and this is by giving the blood a thorough cleansing by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters.

This sterling remedy has been on the market for over 40 years, during which time we have received thousands of testimonials as to its curative powers over all skin diseases.

Mrs. Victor G. Fry, North Battleford, Sask., writes: "I used Burdock Blood Bitters when I was about eighteen. I was so bad with pimples and running sores, that when I went down town, I would hold my head down when I would see anyone coming, my face was such a sight. I got two bottles, and my face began to clear, so I kept on until I had a beautiful complexion. I have recommended it to everyone who is in a run down condition, and it builds up the blood, and when the blood is all the face is clear."

Everything to cure me until a friend recommended with violent headaches, par-not speak too highly of Burdock Blood

How Old Govt.

treasury department from day to day as they were prepared, but were not paid. As the accounts accumulated, many of the people who were in need of their money, which was then long overdue, clamored for payment. I repeatedly and persistently urged payment of the accounts, but was met with the answer that there were no funds to pay them.

"During the latter part of the said month of October, in order that the provincial secretary-treasurer might be able to declare that the government had completed the year with a surplus, these accounts amounting to between $55,000 and $60,000 were handed back to me by the treasury department and I was asked by that department to hold them over until after the end of the then fiscal year.
I was further asked by the treasury department to change the dates of all the requisitions so as to make them appear as if they belonged to the following year. These alterations so requested by the treasury department were made, the dates were changed as of the following fiscal year and the requisitions filed in the department if examined will show where the changes were made. As a result of these transactions, the provincial secretary-treasurer declared, as will be seen by reference to the auditor general's report for 1913, page A 48, that the government had ended the year with a surplus of $12,037.38.

"Of these accounts had been paid instead of being held back and altered, he would have had a deficit to report of between $40,000 and $50,000 on these items alone. During other years while I was in the department of public works, the treasury department compelled us to adopt similar tactics, and make similar alterations."
