

HEAD AND NOSTRILS STUFFED FROM COLD

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! A dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

"Pape's Cold Compound" is the quickest, surest relief known and costs only a few cents at drug stores.

DIVORCE COURT WILL MEET FRIDAY

H. S. Wainwright Rector of Trinity Church Kingston. Mr. and Mrs. Piers lived together till 1905 and in the meantime two children were born to them. The plaintiff seeks divorce on the usual statutory grounds and asks for alimony—she names as correspondent one Ceila Pickett, with whom she says her husband is now living.

Charles Howe vs. Annie May Howe—Parties belong to Fredericton, the defendant being formerly Waters. They were married in 1903 by the Rev. Geo. B. Payson, Methodist, and after living together a year the plaintiff alleges his wife left him and married a B. S. Skinner, with whom she lived in Halifax. One child was the issue of the marriage. Divorce is asked on the usual statutory grounds.

Bessie Irene McManiman vs. Stephen Basil McManiman—Plaintiff, formerly Bubar, now resides in Marysville, and the defendant in Fredericton. They were married in St. John in 1909 by the Rev. J. W. Kierstead, Baptist. During most of their married life they have lived in Fredericton and two children were born in wedlock. The plaintiff is now an employee in the Marysville Cotton Mill. She asks for a divorce "a mensa et thoro" on the ground of neglect, cruelty and non-support.

Joseph Seymour Moore vs. May Hattie Moore—The plaintiff in his libel, alleges that he married May Hattie White in St. John in May 1915, the Rev. E. B. Hooper, Episcopalian, performing the ceremony, and one child was the result of the marriage. In September, 1915, he enlisted in the 140th Bat. and went overseas. Being wounded he returned in February, 1916, when he learned that his wife in the meantime had been living in Halifax with one George Campbell and after his return and while he was in hospital, she went to Sydney, N. S. with a Captain Joseph A. Raymond, where she registered with him at a hotel as his wife. The plaintiff seeks a divorce on the usual grounds.

BIRTHDAY OF MARCH KING

Sousa is the "March King," the world's foremost composer of marches. He has been decorated with all sorts of orders and medals by all sorts of prominent people, emperors and kings and others, in about all the biggest countries of the world.

He was born in Washington, D. C., 64 years ago today, of a Spanish-German family. He studied music, fairly grew up on it, taught it at fifteen, led a theatre orchestra at seventeen, and when the great Jacques Offenbach visited the States, was one of the first violinists in his orchestra. Still in his twenties, he was made band leader of the United States Marine Corps, and stayed at this for twelve years. Then followed a period of travel and rapidly growing fame. He toured Europe again and again, and toured the world some seven years ago.

Meantime he was composing—the famous march "The Stars and Stripes Forever" and a dozen others as popular, and operas as well. Everyone has seen and heard his "El Capitan," "The Queen of Hearts," "American Maid" and others. He has composed about a dozen operas and besides this he has written several books, "The Fifth String" being one of them. His style in fiction is too sentimental for popularity, and quite a contrast to the stirring swing of his music.

WORKING IT OUT.

A school teacher received the following note:

Dear madam—Please excuse my Tom today. He won't come to skule because he is acting as timekeeper for his father, and it is your fault. U gav him a ixample if a field is 6 miles around how long will it take a man to walk 2 1/4 times round it. Tommy ain't a man so we had to send his father. They went early this morning and father will walk round the field and Tommy will time him, but please don't give my boy such ixamples agin because my husband must go to work every day.

AN ELECTION SOON IN G. B.

London, Nov. 5.—The general election will take place in Great Britain on December 7, it is expected. This information was given out at a meeting of whips to settle plans for the campaign.

EX-M. P. DIED SUDDENLY.

Campbellton, N. B., Nov. 5.—John McAllister, ex-M. P. for Restigouche, died here very suddenly yesterday. He represented Restigouche for at least two terms, 1892 and 1896.

Average citizens would bear with equanimity the threatened scarcity of golf balls if somebody would put more hen's eggs into circulation.

European fashions are more freakish than ever. Cans are being substituted for crowns.

MUST SEE FOCH.

London, Nov. 5.—Speaking in the House of Commons today, Premier Lloyd George stated that the Allies had decided that Germany must apply to Marshal Foch for an armistice.

Many a boche who was thinking of luncheon in Paris now confines his aspirations to any kind of a quick hand-out in his home town.

NO OPTION LEFT THE HUNS

London, Nov. 5.—The Times' Paris correspondent, reporting that the Allies have agreed on armistice conditions, says that the Allied successes on the French front leave little doubt of German acceptance.

The Bad Man of Europe is groggy. The hell-hounds he loosed in Belgium are backing away, cringing, snarling, scared.

We've got him going.

But he lives—4,000,000 strong on the Western front alone—and in his perverted brain lives the ambition to destroy and to enslave.

Now, while his legions totter; while his only hope is to dodge, to retreat, to evade the knockout blow that he knows must fall, now is the time to strike and to put everything we have behind the blow.

If you were planning to buy a $100 Victory Bond you can surely hit harder. Make it $200 or $500.

If you were thinking of a $500 Bond, can't you strike a $1,000 blow?

The full weight of Canada's fighting strength must go into that crushing stroke—our great resources, our industries, our agriculture, our fisheries, our surplus wealth, every dollar we can spare, every dollar we can rake and scrape.

For this is the knockout—the blow that must strike the demon down and send his broken war hordes hurtling back across the Rhine.

Hit him again!
