AMERICAN TROOPS STORM THE HINDENBURG LINE

Hun Position Smashed Over a Front of Fifty Miles --- Smashing Victories Won by the Allies at Other Points --- Enormous Losses by the Enemy on the Western Front Since July 18

New York, Sept. 29—The Associated Press tonight issued the following: American troops—boys from New York, Tennessee and North and South Carolina—were used in the fray Sunday which badly smashed the German positions over a front of more than fifty miles, from the region of Arras to La Fere.

On a three mile front the Americans stormed the Hindenburg line and captured the town of Bellicourt and Nauhoy, crossing the Cambrai Canal in the operations. Meanwhile to the south, the British stormed the main Hindenburg defences on the Scheldt Canal, crossed the waterway and gained the hills beyond, taking many prisoners. To the north the British have their hands on Cambrai, the important German base over which recently there has been so much fighting. The Canadians are in the north-western outskirts of the city, while a naval division has reached the southern environs.

French and Belgian Victories

South of St. Quentin to La Fere, the French have pressed forward their line and taken some 500 prisoners. Along the Chemin Des Dames the French have advanced their line for a distance of two miles, capturing the highest point on the famous ridge.

In Belgium the Belgians and British have driven forward and taken Dixmude, ten miles from the North Sea southeast of Newport, bringing their line into closer union with that in the region of Ypres. The capture of Dixmude, if it pressed forward further gains eastward will seriously affect the German submarine bases on the North Sea.

Under the efforts of the British, Americans and French, the Germans have been cleared out of the entire department of the Somme, and part of the department of the Ardenens now is in French hands for the first time since 1914.

In unison with the attacks to the north the French along the battle front north and northeast of Soissons have delivered fresh attacks, under which the Germans are in retreat north of the Aisne toward the Ailette indicating that the enemy line soon must be readjusted eastward at least as far as Rheims, if not farther. The French now are on the banks of the Ailette river at the western end of the Chemin des Dames, making it apparent that this strong defence line soon must be passed by in retreat northward.

In Champagne and northwest of Verdun the Germans have sensed to the full the seriousness of the situation facing them—where further advances by the French and the American of necessity will compel the readjustment of the line from the north to the Swiss frontier. Large numbers of reinforcements have been thrown into the battle in Champagne to halt the advance of the French toward the important junction town of Vouziers, but nevertheless General Gouraud's men have pressed forward northward from the region east of Rheims to the northern fringes of the Argonne Forest, taken many positions of the highest strategic value.

Marching Up Meuse Valley

Meantime the Americans also have advanced their front, capturing Brieux-Sur-Meuse and Romanoge and at last accounts were progressing favorably northward along the Meuse valley and to the east of the Argonne Forest, the turning of which by the combined forces of General Gouraud and General Liggett seems probable within a short time.

The Bulgarian delegates who are endeavoring to arrive at terms with the Allied forces under which Bulgaria will quit the war have arrived in Saloniki, but the Italians, French and Greeks Serbian and British armies are keeping up their drive across the southern Serbian Serbian and into Bulgaria. Krushevo, the Bulgarian base, twenty miles north of Monastir, has been captured by the Italians, in front of whom the Bulgarians are in rapid retreat. The Serbians have won the important mountain range of Plachkovitsa, south of Kochana, while to the east the British and Greek forces have taken further territory from the enemy in the region of Lake Doiran and across the border into Bulgaria.

In Palestine the victory over the Turks is all but complete. Friday night General Allenby had counted 50,000 prisoners and 300 guns.

The loss of the Teutonic allies on the western front alone since the Allied offensive began July 18 have been 200,000 men made prisoners and 3,000 guns, 20,000 machine guns and enormous quantities of material captured.

Americans Command the Air

Washington, Sept. 29—In reporting further advances of the Americans northwest of Verdun, General Pershing's communique for yesterday received here tonight says American aviators "have kept command of the air." They have brought down twelve balloons and more than sixty enemy planes, while less than a third of that number of American planes are missing.

Huns Falling Back

Havre, France, Sept. 29—In addressing the Belgian army before its attack Saturday morning, King Albert asked his soldiers to drive the enemy from the Belgian coast with the help of their French and British comrades. "This is the decisive hour," said the king. "Everywhere Germany falls back. Be worthy of the sacred cause of our independence and the traditions of our race. Forward, for right and liberty, and for glorious and immortal Belgium."

WHITE SOX MADE A NEW TRACK RECORD

Lowered Mark Made by La Copia at Charlottetown to 2.13 1/4—Got After Boutillier.

Charlottetown, P.E.I., Sept. 28—The exhibition races closed today with fine weather and a good track. It was the most sensational and exciting day of the meet. The 2.35 trot stake and 2.22 trot, unfinished yesterday, owing to rain, were finished today. The feature of the day was the breaking of the track record of 2.13 1/4 (made by Lacopia) by the Sussex mare, White Sox. She won in three straight heats. In the third heat White Sox was in third position on the back stretch of the second round pocketed by Bob Mac and Peter Farren. Boutillier, driving the former, moved out and let White Sox through. He claimed that he did so to avoid going through a soft place on the track. At the same time he collided with Peter Farren. The grandstand, believing that Boutillier had not driven Bob Mac to win, loudly viewed its disappointment. McNamara, driver of Farren, greatly enraged, struck Boutillier. The crowd rushed on the track and a small-sized riot seemed imminent, but the police soon restored order.
