ACIDS IN STOMACH SOUR THE FOOD AND CAUSE INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" fixes sour, gassy, upset stomachs in five minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fly-leaf cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why it relieves sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapepsin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sour

LABOR WILL HELP DEFEAT THE GERMANS

(Canadian Press direct wire.)
New York, Feb. 11.—The workers American Federation of Labor. The of Great Britain and the United States through their spokesmen at a great loyalty mass meeting at the Century Theatre last night, pledged their united unswerving effort to the defeat of Germany. The workers of the United States spoke through Secretary of Labor W. B. Wilson and officials of the workers of Great Britain spoke through Charles Duncan, M. P., head of the British labor mission which arrived in this country yesterday. Pacifists were pilloried by the speakers and when Hugh Frayne, representative of labor on the war industries board, asked that firing squads be called to deal with the kaiser—branded seeker after peace—he was cheered to the echo.

Secretary Wilson made a special speech to these labor factions which revel in calling this war capitalistic. He said it was a war for the common people and not for capitalists.

When to Talk Peace.

Mr. Duncan drew great applause when he told how the speeches of President Wilson had cried up the people of England. He told of the effect of the coming of American troops in England. Referring to the pacifists Mr. Duncan said:

"It will be time enough to talk about peace when those who started the war ask for peace."

The members of the British delegation besides Mr. Duncan are W. Appleton, secretary general of the Federated Trades and Unions; Joshua Butterworth, Associated Shipwrights' Society, and J. L. Moses, of the Pattern Workers' Union. Mr. Duncan is general secretary of the General Workers' Union and Labor member of parliament for Barrow and Furness.

PRUSSIAN MORAL GYMNASTICS.

(St. Paul Pioneer Press.)
In accord with the leniency shown by German courts, a Teutonic soldier may have as many wives as the number of military engagements in which he has taken part. The theory is that a man should not be held responsible for any lapse of memory in regard to his marital affairs after having been subjected to the possibility of shell shock. As to the women, it probably is considered that, due to the scarcity of men, each little wife and mother should be thankful to have had a husband even for a limited period of time. Wonderful are the moral gymnastics of the Prussian mind!

"What is the secret of Wyse's great success as a bill collector?" "When a debtor tells him to call the next day at four, he calls at three and catches him in."
