

NOW TO-DAY

SEPTEMBER 15 --- 23

THIS IS ARMY HUT WEEK

BACK UP THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS THIS WEEK IN THEIR CANADA-WIDE APPEAL FOR ARMY

HUTS, AND

DO YOUR BIT

The Need for All the Huts it is Possible to Furnish is Most Pressing. Canadian and British Generals say so, also American Commanders and even Generalissimo Foch himself. They all urge upon non-combatants at home the necessity of employing money and effort without stint to back up the fighting men with relaxing comforts. This is what Army Huts are built for; this is one of the great secrets of Allied spirit and fitness.

THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE ENTENTE
SANCTION AND ENCOURAGE THE EXTENSION OF THIS WORK THROUGH NON-
MILITARY ORGANIZATIONS.

THEREFORE:

When You are Canvassed This Week in Behalf of the Army Hut Appeal,

BE GENEROUS

PREMIER BORDEN says: "The purpose of the fund must command the support of all."

GENERAL TURNER says: "I wish you every success in increasing the scope of the Catholic Army Huts. . . . I feel they fill a long felt want."

SIR EDWARD KEMP says: "I would advise all Canadians that Army Huts are worthy the support of all."

LIEUT. GOVERNOR PUGSLEY says: "I deem it my duty to urge upon you as strongly as possible the desirability of giving a generous response."

HUNS ARE PREPARING TO GET OUT

With the American Army on the Lorraine Front, Sept. 18.—American patrollers after a night near the enemy's lines, report that the Germans are placing mines at various points in the region of Haumont. This seemingly indicates that they are preparing to evacuate.

The German troops are strengthening their dugouts and strong points along the Hindenburg line opposite the American positions. Aviators report that the enemy is building additional telegraphs to various parts of the Hindenburg defences.

ALLIED SUCCESS IN MACEDONIA

London, Sept. 19.—The Bulgarians are in flight in Macedonia and are burning stores and villages, according to a Serbian official statement received here. The Allied troops now have advanced more than 12 miles, and their progress is so rapid that they have not been able to count the prisoners and war material taken. The Bulgarians have been defeated completely and the Serbian troops are pursuing them day and night.

Wouldn't it be glorious to be able to say once more, "Is this hot enough for you?"

NEWSY NOTES FROM POINTS IN MARITIME PROVINCES

Late Lieut. Otty of Gagetown Belonged to a Fighting Family---Miramichi Tug Boat Captain Would Not Allow the Sabbath to be Desecrated---Halifax Chink Created Trouble

A few days ago Mrs. N. H. Otty of Gagetown, N. S., received from the war office in London, the official certificate of Lt. Allen Otty's mention in despatches. The communication reads as follows:

"Madam—I have it in command from His Majesty the king to inform you, as next of kin of the late Lieut. Allen Otty, of the 5th Canadian Mounted Rifles, that this officer was mentioned in a despatch from Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, dated 7th April 1918, and published in the fourth supplement to the London Gazette of the 24th, dated 28th May, 1918 for gallant and distinguished service in the field.

"I am to express to you the King's high appreciation of these services and to add that His Majesty trusts that their public acknowledgement may be of some consolation to you in your bereavement.

"I have the honor to be
Your obedient servant,
N. W. GRAHAM, Colonel,
Deputy Military Secretary."

By a coincidence in the same month over one hundred years ago, Lieut.

Otty's great-grandfather, Capt. Allen Otty of H. M. S. Goshawk, received a personal letter from George III., praising him for the courage he displayed when his ship formed part of a squadron under Capt. Thomas Usher, which made a brilliant attack on enemy privateers and batteries in the Mole of Malaga, in April, 1812, when Napoleon was seeking to dominate Europe.

The news of the recognition paid to Lieut. Otty's bravery at Passchendaele was heard with great satisfaction by his men and fellow officers, when his name appeared in the list of battalion honors, according to accounts received by them.

Sabbath Desecration

Chatham World: The steamer started early Sunday morning, from Burnt Church river, with a raft of logs in tow, and puffed and pulled all day long while her firemen shovelled coal into the furnaces and the crew attended to various duties. Progress was slow and some of the men, finding themselves at leisure, sat down to a game of auction forty-fives. But they had not played long before the skipper pounced upon them. "Playing cards on the Sabbath Day, my lads! Haven't you read in the Bible the commandment to keep the Sabbath Day holy—to do all your work in six days and keep the seventh holy? Stop playing and put your cards away. I'll not permit cardplaying on the Lord's Day on this boat." The men obeyed. And stokers kept on shovelling coal, and the tow-boat kept on puffing and groaning, and the Captain stood at the wheel and kept the steamer on her course, feeling that he had done a pious work by stopping the game and thereby preventing the desecration of the day of rest.

A Bellicose Chink

Police Officer Thomas McDonald has laid information against Lee Lock a Halifax Chinaman, for causing a disturbance and for discharging firearms. Late Wednesday night Officer McDonald was summoned to the corner of Almon and Agricola streets, to quell a disturbance. He found a large crowd present, and was informed that a man had been assaulted with a bottle by a Chinaman in a Chinese restaurant and then the Celestial had pulled a gun and fired it at the man but without hitting him. Just what caused the trouble the officer could not ascertain. He heard threats in the crowd that they would "tear up the place," but he ordered them to desist. He went inside and saw the Chinaman with a revolver in his hand. Some men came in after the officer, who momentarily turned around and when he again faced the Chinaman the revolver was nowhere in sight. He then arrested the Chinaman and took him to the police station. He was arraigned in court and remanded.

Big Booze Seizure

North Sydney, Sept. 17.—Town Inspector Chief of Police H. W. McNeil, and Deputy Inspector Lamond raided the premises of John Andrea at the head of the terminus wharf

TO win this war every ounce of the strength of each of the allied nations must be put forth to meet the organized, trained and disciplined efficiency of the Central Powers—that gigantic, ruthless force which is the result of fifty years of planning and preparation.

And every ounce of every allied nation's strength is in the hands and brains and hearts of the individuals of each nation, because they are free peoples.

Now the individuals of each nation must live as well as fight, therefore a proportion of the effort and material of each nation must be diverted from war purposes to living necessities,

So the less each individual takes for himself or herself for personal use the more effort will there be left for fighting and winning the war.

Every cent you spend represents that much effort because somebody must do something for you in order to earn that cent—somebody's effort must be given to you instead of to the war.

Therefore the less you spend—the less of somebody's effort you take for your individual use—the more will you leave in the national surplus for war effort.

The war can be won only by the surplus strength of the allied nations. The money each individual saves represents that surplus strength.

So the truly loyal Canadian will use less, spend less, and save more, to help to win the war.
