

CHILD DIES FROM TAKING FLY POISON

UNSEEN, DRANK WATER
OFF A POISON PAD

Medical Aid Unable to Save
Life—Much Sympathy for Parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Edgar Kearney.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kearney of Neill Street, Devon died at a late hour last night from the effects of drinking the water off a fly poison pad. The child was aged two years and unseen in the afternoon got the poison. Shortly afterward it was taken violently ill. Dr. C. P. Holden was summoned and a fight for the little one's life was made but unsuccessfully.

Sympathy for Parents
There is much sympathy for the bereaved parents who are grief stricken on account of the tragedy. Two other little children survive. Every effort was made to save the little child's life.

Interment will be made at Oromocto to the hour of the funeral will be announced later.

MRS. WHEELER TOLD HER SON OF FATHER'S DEATH

REUNION IN MIRAMICHI
WOODS AFTER 2 YEARS

The Two will Return to United States This Evening—Major
Wheeler Killed With U. S. Army.

Mrs. D. E. Wheeler of New York who passed through here three weeks ago enroute to the Miramichi woods returned to the city today accompanied by her son, E. Pepperell Wheeler who has been on a fishing trip with Mr. Henry Braithwaite. They are at the Queen Hotel and will leave for home by this evening's train.

Broke News to Son

Mrs. Wheeler's husband, Major David E. Wheeler was killed in France early in August while serving as a medical officer in the American army. On receiving confirmation of the sad news Mrs. Wheeler who was employed as nurse in a French hospital boarded the first steamer for New York, and hastened to New Brunswick to visit her son in the Miramichi woods. The young man knew nothing of the fate of his father, and Mrs. Wheeler had the satisfaction of being the first to acquaint him with the terrible news. She had not seen her son for 2 years and their reunion in the wilds of the Miramichi under such circumstances was strange and a pathetic one.

Noted Hunter

The late Major Wheeler was a noted big game hunter and had made numerous trips to Braithwaite's Camps on the Little Southwest Miramichi and had looked forward to another trip at the close of the war. Mrs. Wheeler always accompanied him on his hunting trips, and when he went overseas to fight the Huns she went along too. He served in the French Foreign Legion early in the war and afterwards in the British and French armies, while Mrs. Wheeler engaged in hospital work in England and France. Major Wheeler lost his life in the first big drive started by the Americans near Chateau Thierry early in August.

It is the intention of Mrs. Wheeler to accompany her son to New York where he is attending school and then return to France to resume hospital work.

The Woodcock Season

Woodcock are reported to be quite plentiful in this vicinity and local sportsmen are planning an aggressive campaign. The best covers are at Hanwell and the old road leading to Carlow. The woodcock is a very gamey bird and can only be successfully hunted with the aid of dogs.

Mr. C. E. Dillon of Toronto is in the city.

For Siberian Force

Major Aumond, paymaster of Military District No. 7, has been advised by Ottawa that he has been appointed paymaster of an infantry unit with the Siberian contingent and to hold himself in readiness to be transferred to the same. Major Aumond has been attached to the Ottawa branch of the pay office for several years previous to his appointment to this district. Word that Major Aumond had been sent to the Siberian contingent came as no little surprise to himself.
