DOMINION W. C. T. U. IN CONVENTION

Ottawa, June 18—With their motto "For God, For Home and Country", as the inspiration of all their deliberations, and with added responsibilities which come from their new citizenship, over ninety delegates, representative of the various provinces are gathered in Ottawa for the twentieth convention of the Dominion of Canada Women's Christian Temperance Union.

The first sessions opened today in Chalmers Presbyterian Church Hall, with Mrs. Gordon Wright, of London, Ont., the president, in the chair. Problems which arise, resultant on the great world war, will be under discussion, chiefly. The delegates believe that, with the banishment of the liquor trade, the W. C. T. U. has only entered upon the threshold of its opportunity.

The fight against the cigarette habit, and the drug menace, will be among the important subjects for discussion. Numerous forms of patriotic endeavor already begun to a large degree will be outlined.

Sir. George Foster will deliver the greetings of the federal government to the delegates at a public meeting this evening.

F. K. SKIDMORE drives a taxi in Battle Creek, and has the nerve to put on his business card, "Careful Driving."
