KEEP THE HUNS FROM COAST

"Owing to the sinking of the steamship Tuscania, with American troops aboard, urgent steps should be taken to have all enemy aliens, naturalized or not, removed at once from every coast town and seaport, and prohibited from approaching within ten miles of the coast."

THEM HOSIERY.

The hours I spent with thee, dear sock.

Are like a string of pearls to me,
I count them o'er by the weary clock,
My hosiery—my hosiery—

First two I knit, then two I purrl,
And round the leg I slowly reel—
Now joyful paeans to the heavens I hurl,
I've turned the heel.

Oh, knotted ends that scratch and burn—

Oh, stitch that dropped, uneven row—
I kiss each night and strive at last to learn

To reach the toe, sweetheart, to reach the toe.

Grandmother made delicious things to eat

FRESH, snappy, brown cookies, Poor Man's Pudding—but it was good enough for a millionaire—rich coffee cake with fruit and spices put in with a generous hand, pumpkin pie with the genuine old-time flavor, and many more. All these good things Grandmother made with brown sugar. Her granddaughters can make them just as successfully today if they use

Lantic Old-Fashioned Brown Sugar

—three kinds—Light, Brilliant and Dark Yellow—sold by grocers throughout the Dominion. Of these, the Brilliant Yellow is recommended as widely useful for general cooking.

Pure brown sugars give to baking and desserts the characteristic molasses taste which is a great improvement to many dishes. Brown sugar, as well as white, should be kept in the pantry of every household which appreciates old-time goodies. Brown sugar is economical. It costs a little less per pound than other pure sugars and it flavors as well as sweetens.

For fear Grandmother's recipes might be forgotten, we have reprinted a number of the best of them in the booklet illustrated at the top. We will send it to you without charge, if you will fill out the coupon at the left. We know you will enjoy making these old-time dishes and that your family will enjoy eating them.

Lantic Old-fashioned Brown Sugars are made by the same firm that makes the famous Lantic "fine" granulated.
