OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

YOUR PET AVERSION.

Every housewife has her pet aversion, or oste noir, as the French folk say. What is yours?

Here are some of the aversions of housewives that in their opinion make for the real trial of housekeeping—the things which if eliminated from the housework would leave it entirely pleasant or nearly so.

With a very great many women who have no domestic assistance in getting and ungetting the meals, dish washing is the pet aversion.

"I don't mind getting the meals, but I just can't endure to unget them," is the familiar refrain of a good many women's plaint.

The fact that so many women especially despise this work of dishwashing is indication enough that there is room for improvement in the process.

A Dish Washing Machine.

Inventions and short cuts are needed. Before another generation of housewives has passed there will no doubt be a generally established dishwashing machine that will reduce the terrors of this black beast.

To many other housewives dust is the worst thing in the world. If they could live in a dustless world they would be happy. So long as there is a fleck of dust in their homes they are miserable.

Their eyes seem to be particularly keen at noticing even the merest atom of it. Perhaps if they knew a little more of the real nature of dust they might know how to combat against its real terrors.

The day the washwoman or scrubwoman comes is the most trying phase of other women's housework. If they could only do it all themselves, they say, they wouldn't mind it.

They long for a half dozen arms and the strength of an Amazon so that they might never have to humor and prepare meals for a woman who comes in by the day.

UGH! ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, HEARTBURN, GAS OR INDIGESTION

The moment "Pape's Diapepsin" reaches the stomach all distress goes.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorders.

is the most difficult part of housework for other women.

They wouldn't mind being cook, they say, if they didn't have to be hostess at the same time.

It is the eternal having to jump from the kitchen to the parlor that wears them out, they say, having to receive guests and cook for them at the same time, serve dinner and pre-side over it with equal ease.

What is your bete noir? It is worth finding, for once you have found it you can bend every effort toward defeating it, and mastering it—or if you cannot do that, toward making a nice little pet of it.

George M. Scribner of Queen City Park, Vt., went to Burlington recently on his 50th wedding anniversary. He was wearing the same suit and shoes which he wore the day he was married.

PROBATE COURT, COUNTY OF YORK

To Ida Donally, of Cross Creek, in the Parish of Stanley, in the County of York, wife of John Donally; Scott McNeil, of the said Parish of Stanley, Farmer, and Charles McNeil, of the same place, Farmer, and to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS Scott McNeil, of the Parish of Stanley, in the County of York, Farmer, and Charles McNeil of the same place, Farmer, have filed in this Court, two certain Testamentary Papers purporting to be Wills of James Milford McNeil, late of the Parish of Stanley in the County of York, aforesaid, and late of the 78th Battalion, Canadian Expeditionary Forces, bearing date respectively the Thirteenth day of April, A. D. 1916, and the Ninth day of August, A. D. 1916, and hath prayed that the said Testamentary Papers may be proved in solemn form, as together containing the last Will of the said James Milford McNeil,
you are therefore required to appear before me, if you so desire, at the Court of Probate to be held in and for the County of York at the office of the Judge of Probate for the County of York at the City of Fredericton in the said County on Thursday the Seventh day of February next at the hour of half past two o'clock in the afternoon to show cause, if any, why such Will should or should not be proved in solemn form.

Given under my hand this thirty-
first day of December, A. D. 1917.

Good Bye,
Old Time Melodrama!

Sorry to see you go, but the new
melodrama is here—"THE FIGHT-ING TRAIL." Greater Vignaroli's Duncan-Holloway Serial. The next page on the old home hasn't a chance in this, the only kind of melodrama that goes in that of brand new thrills and sensations. And there are dozens of 'em in every episode. William Duncan and Carol Holloway risk their necks two dozen times in THIS serial and THAT'S what we call melodrama! Stunts that amaze and mystify. Be sure to see it.
