

The Bank will trust you

Perhaps you never had an account in a bank—maybe you've never done business in a bank—hardly even cashed a cheque in one. But—that is no reason why you cannot go to a bank and borrow money to buy Victory Bonds.

If you are a steady, industrious, thrifty citizen, working and saving a part of your income, you are just the kind of person Canada's chartered banks stand ready to help to-day.

Any bank will lend you as much money as you can save during the next twelve months with which to buy Victory Bonds.

All you have to do is to pay ten per cent. of the amount you want to buy and deposit the receipt for that ten per cent. in the bank.

The bank will lend you the 90 per cent. balance at 5½ per cent. interest and will give you a year to repay it, the interest you get on your bond being just the same as the bank charges you.

This is a fine opportunity for you to begin a real savings account, to make a first class investment and to help your country at the same time.

Why not see a banker to-day—he will tell you all about it and you will be glad of the advice and help he can give you.

HOW NEW YORK CELEBRATED THE VICTORY OVER THE HUNS

A Day That Will Rank Red in the Calendar of the World—Scores of Monster Parades—Impressive Services Held in Many Churches—Every Boy in Uniform Regarded as a Hero—Premature Celebration was Only a Rehearsal.

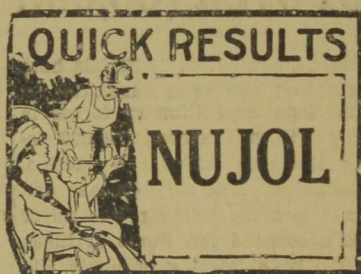

New York, Nov. 12—From the thousand high-placed masts surmounting tall edifices the Stars and Stripes yesterday flew over the happiest group of 6,000,000 persons that ever assembled within such a space. For Victory was at last proclaimed officially. And New York made the most of it.

From "the dawn's early light," as our hymn has it, when the Statue of Liberty blazed into incandescence, and the eye-rubbing ship captains in the harbor tied down their sirens and the motormen in the all-night subterranean railways sent their trains shrieking along underground, and neighbor aroused neighbor with telephoned or shouted call; "The war's over"—from this early hour until dawn was threatening again today,

HIGHLAND TERRIER A REAL DOG OF WAR

Gassed and Wounded, Carried Cigarettes
to the Dough-boys.

(New York Sun)

Titus may be only a pup, but he has been gassed and wounded and has now come to this country to help put the United War Work Campaign over the top. Titus originally was a member of the "Black Watch," but he has been with the American soldiers since they first landed in Great Britain.

He was brought to this country by E. A. Starks a Y. M. C. A. secretary. They will make a whirlwind campaign of the industrial centres around New York and hope to raise $1,000,000 for the seven organizations carrying on social work among the soldiers.

Titus knows what it means to soldiers and on this account his Highland heart is in the work. He has taken cigarettes and candy to the soldiers in the front lines. It was while doing this that he was gassed.

To France in a Pocket

"The dog was given to an American soldier when the first contingent of men from this country were parading the streets of the British capital," says Mr. Starks.

"He was so small then that a Yank took him to France in his coat pocket. In France the dog went into the Toul sector and was with the American troops while training. Titus was in the fights at Mondidier, Chateau Thierry and St. Mihiel. He has developed a keen sense of smell when gas is in the air. It is only when gas is being wafted over the lines by the Huns that 'Black Watch' as he is officially known, will yelp."

The dog veteran was brought up from Mr. Starks' home in Asbury Park yesterday. The dumb hero lay quietly on the desk as the Secretary told the story for him.

Flew Over the Channel

"I found him on a whippet tank outside of Montdidier," said Mr. Starks. "He was having the time of his life. It was then that someone suggested that I take him back to America for the campaign. I agreed, but the international quarantine laws would not allow Titus to cross the Channel. This was a disappointment, but some kind aviator solved the problem and Titus took the trip to London in a big Handley-Page machine. It was not the first time the little Western Highland terrier had been in the air. He has been a passenger at least seven times when the Hun airplanes have been shot down."

"On this account Titus was given a big reception in London. I took him to the Red Triangle Masonic lodge meeting and I think he is the only dog that has had the honor."

Secretary Sparks is planning his itinerary for the United War Work Campaign which will begin November 11. He expects cooperation from Titus, who will go with him to all the big factories. Starks has brought back a part of a Hun airplane which he will ship to the parents of First Lieut. H. R. Clay of the 148th All American Flying Squadron.

According to Mr. Starks, Lieut. Clay's name has not yet appeared in despatches from France, where he has a record of seven Hun machines to his credit. The souvenir that he is sending to his parents in Fort Worth Tex., came from a plane shot down southwest of Fontaine.

plumes and the jazziest of bands; and others by the raggedest of youngsters with broomsticks, followed by spoon and pot-cover musicians. There were hundreds of thousands in these marches.

Churches Were Crowded

Another may go to a far extreme, and talk of how the churches were crowded and how in St. Patrick's Cathedral at noon the priests stood at attention and the congregation rose for "The Star-Spangled Banner," and how at the episcopal St. Thomas' up the Avenue at the same time the music of "La Marseillaise" poured forth from the great organ while "La Brabanconne," Belgium's hymn, came from another temple and "God Save the King!" from a fourth and the "Marcia Reale" of Italy from a fifth, all the while that congregations of every denomination knelt and poured forth to the Almighty their thankfulness and wept unashamed tears of gratitude that finally all was well.

To your ear may come the tale of how—late last night—every boy in uniform was a hero, and that the mind of New York was this: Whether he had a service stripe on his arm or not, he had helped win the war, and so to him belonged kisses and hugs
